Palestinian Walks Forays Into A Vanishing Landscape:

Palestinian Walks Raja Shehadeh, 2008-06-03 A rare historical insight into the tragic changes taking place in Palestine Jimmy Carter From one of Palestine's leading writers a lyrical elegiac account of one man's wanderings through the landscape he loves once pristine now forever changed by settlements and walls updated with a new afterword by the author I often come to walk in these hills I said to the man who was doing all the talking and seemed to be the commander In fact I was once here with my wife it was 1999 and some of your soldiers shot at us It was over on that side the soldier pointed out I was there he said smiling When Raja Shehadeh first started hill walking in Palestine in the late 1970s he was not aware that he was traveling through a vanishing landscape In recent years his hikes have become less than bucolic and sometimes downright dangerous That is because his home is Ramallah on the Palestinian West Bank and the landscape he traverses is now the site of a tense standoff between his fellow Palestinians and settlers newly arrived from Israel In this original and evocative book we accompany Raja on six walks taken between 1978 and 2006 The earlier forays are peaceful affairs allowing our guide to meditate at length on the character of his native land a terrain of olive trees on terraced hillsides luxuriant valleys carved by sacred springs carpets of wild iris and hyacinth and ancient monasteries built more than a thousand years ago Shehadeh's love for this magical place saturates his renderings of its history and topography But latterly as seemingly endless concrete is poured to build settlements and their surrounding walls he finds the old trails are now impassable and the countryside he once traversed freely has become contested ground He is harassed by Israeli border patrols watches in terror as a young hiking companion picks up an unexploded missile and even on one occasion when accompanied by his wife comes under prolonged gunfire Amid the many and varied tragedies of the Middle East the loss of a simple pleasure such as the ability to roam the countryside at will may seem a minor matter But in Palestinian Walks Raja Shehadeh's elegy for his lost footpaths becomes a heartbreaking metaphor for the deprivations of an entire people estranged from their land

Palestinian Walks Raja Shehadeh, 2010-07-09 Over two decades of turmoil and change in the Middle East steered via the history soaked landscape of Palestine This new edition includes a previously unpublished epigraph in the form of a walk When Raja Shehadeh first started hill walking in Palestine in the late 1970s he was not aware that he was travelling through a vanishing landscape These hills would have seemed familiar to Christ until the day concrete was poured over the flora and irreversible changes were brought about by those who claim a superior love of the land Six walks span a period of twenty six years in the hills around Ramallah in the Jerusalem wilderness and through the ravines by the Dead Sea Each walk takes place at a different stage of Palestinian history since 1982 the first in the empty pristine hills and the last amongst the settlements and the wall The reader senses the changing political atmosphere as well as the physical transformation of the landscape By recording how the land felt and looked before these calamities Raja Shehadeh attempts to preserve at least in words the Palestinian natural treasures that many Palestinians will never know

Enclosure marshals bold new and persuasive arguments about the ongoing dispossession of Palestinians Revealing the Israel Palestine landscape primarily as one of enclosure geographer Gary Fields sheds fresh light on Israel's actions He places those actions in historical context in a broad analysis of power and landscapes across the modern world Examining the process of land grabbing in early modern England colonial North America and contemporary Palestine Enclosure shows how patterns of exclusion and privatization have emerged across time and geography That the same moral legal and cartographic arguments were copied by enclosers of land in very different historical environments challenges Israel's current rationale as being uniquely beleaguered It also helps readers in the United Kingdom and the United States understand the Israel Palestine conflict in the context of their own tortured histories Provided by publisher

Weaponized Architecture Léopold Lambert, 2012 Research informs the development of a project which rather than defusing these characteristics attempts to integrate them within the scene of a political struggle The proposed project dramatizes through its architecture a Palestinian disobedience to the colonial legislation imposed on its legal territory In fact the State of Israel masters the elaboration of territorial and architectural colonial apparatuses that act directly on Palestinian daily lives In this regard it is crucial to observe that 63% of the West Bank is under total control of the Israeli Defense Forces in regards to security movement planning and construction Weaponized Architecture is thus manifested as a Palestinian shelter with an associated agricultural platform which expresses its illegality through its architectural vocabulary

Brokers of Deceit Rashid Khalidi, 2013-03-12 Winner of the 2014 Lionel Trilling Book Award An examination of the failure of the United States as a broker in the Palestinian Israeli peace process through three key historical moments For more than seven decades the conflict between Israel and the Palestinian people has raged on with no end in sight and for much of that time the United States has been involved as a mediator in the conflict In this book acclaimed historian Rashid Khalidi zeroes in on the United States's role as the purported impartial broker in this failed peace process Khalidi closely analyzes three historical moments that illuminate how the United States involvement has in fact thwarted progress toward peace between Israel and Palestine The first moment he investigates is the Reagan Plan of 1982 when Israeli prime minister Menachem Begin refused to accept the Reagan administration's proposal to reframe the Camp David Accords more impartially The second moment covers the period after the Madrid Peace Conference from 1991 to 1993 during which negotiations between Israel and Palestine were brokered by the United States until the signing of the secretly negotiated Oslo accords Finally Khalidi takes on President Barack Obama's retreat from plans to insist on halting the settlements in the West Bank Through in depth research into and keen analysis of these three moments as well as his own firsthand experience as an advisor to the Palestinian delegation at the 1991 pre Oslo negotiations in Washington DC Khalidi reveals how the United States and Israel have actively colluded to prevent a Palestinian state and resolve the situation in Israel's favor Brokers of Deceit bares the truth about why peace in the Middle East has been impossible to achieve for decades US policymakers have masqueraded as unbiased agents working to bring the two sides together when in fact they have been the agents of continuing injustice effectively preventing the difficult but essential steps needed to achieve peace in the region      Mapping Israel, Mapping Palestine Jess Bier, 2017-06-30

Digital practices in social and political landscapes Why two researchers can look at the same feature and see different things Maps are widely believed to be objective and data rich computer made maps are iconic examples of digital knowledge It is often claimed that digital maps and rational boundaries can solve political conflict But in Mapping Israel Mapping Palestine Jess Bier challenges the view that digital maps are universal and value free She examines the ways that maps are made in Palestine and Israel to show how social and political landscapes shape the practice of science and technology How can two scientific cartographers look at the same geographic feature and see fundamentally different things In part Bier argues because knowledge about the Israeli military occupation is shaped by the occupation itself Ongoing injustices including checkpoints roadblocks and summary arrests mean that Palestinian and Israeli cartographers have different experiences of the landscape Palestinian forms of empirical knowledge including maps continue to be discounted Bier examines three representative cases of population governance and urban maps She analyzes Israeli population maps from 1967 to 1995 when Palestinian areas were left blank Palestinian state maps of the late 1990s and early 2000s which were influenced by Israeli raids on Palestinian offices and the legacy of British colonial maps and urban maps after the Second Intifada which show how segregated observers produce dramatically different maps of the same area The geographic production of knowledge including what and who are considered scientifically legitimate can change across space and time Bier argues that greater attention to these changes and to related issues of power will open up more heterogeneous ways of engaging with the world      Moon Israel & the West Bank: With Petra Genevieve Belmaker, 2023-08-29 Ancient stories meet modern cities in this deeply significant region where the past is always present Take the trip of a lifetime with Moon Israel the West Bank Inside you ll find Flexible strategic itineraries including a week in Jerusalem three days in Tel Aviv and a month exploring the region plus excursions to the West Bank the Dead Sea and Petra The top sights and unique experiences Visit the Church of the Holy Sepulchre or pay respects at the Western Wall and stop at holy sites throughout Northern Israel and the West Bank Feast on falafel hummus and shaksuka and haggle for antiques at a market in Jerusalem Bike through Tel Aviv s charming Neve Tzedek neighborhood or relax at one of its beaches Float in the Dead Sea watch the sun set over the massive Negev craters or stay overnight in a Bedouin tent encampment Local insight Journalist and longtime Jerusalem resident Genevieve Belmaker shares the history and culture of her beloved former home Full color vibrant photos throughout Detailed maps for exploring on your own and useful tips on border crossings and checkpoints Thorough background information on the landscape history government and culture Handy tools and planning essentials including Hebrew and Arabic phrasebooks health and safety tips customs and conduct and information for LGBTQ female and senior travelers families with children travelers of color and travelers with disabilities Focused coverage of Jerusalem Tel Aviv Haifa the

Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke, 2016-02-12 An exploration of walking and mapping as both form and content in art projects using old and new technologies shoe leather and GPS From Guy Debord in the early 1950s to Richard Long Janet Cardiff and Esther Polak more recently contemporary artists have returned again and again to the walking motif Today the convergence of global networks online databases and new tools for mobile mapping coincides with a resurgence of interest in walking as an art form In Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke explores a series of walking mapping projects by contemporary artists She offers close readings of these projects many of which she was able to experience firsthand and situates them in relation to landmark works from the past half century Together they form a new entity a dynamic whole greater than the sum of its parts By alternating close study of selected projects with a broader view of their place in a bigger picture Walking and Mapping itself maps a complex phenomenon

Palestinian Identity Rashid Khalidi, 2010 Reprint of work originally published in 1997 New introduction by the author

Letters from "Apartheid Street" Michael T. McRay, 2013-04-16 In 1984 Ron Sider challenged that until Christians are ready to risk everything in pursuit of peace we dare never whisper another word about pacifism Unless we are ready to die developing new nonviolent attempts to reduce conflict we should confess that we never really meant that the cross was an alternative to the sword From this challenge Christian Peacemaker Teams was born Nearly thirty years later Michael McRay too explored Sider's challenge interning with CPT in the West Bank city of Hebron Alongside local and international peacemakers McRay learned how to resist the violence of occupation sharing in the stories of a suffering people as he struggled to embody the peaceable spirit of the rabbi from Nazareth This book tells those stories Drawing on his personal experience with the land and its history McRay's raw letters home tackle critical issues relevant to peacemakers everywhere What is really happening in Palestine that mainstream media fails to report How are Palestinians' lives being affected How can one be peaceable amidst such violence and oppression How should Christian discipleship influence one's pursuits of peacemaking and reconciliation McRay's letters illustrate both the challenge and promise of the cross in today's world

Vehicles of Decolonization Maryam S. Griffin, 2021-11-22 This book considers collective Palestinian movement via public transportation as a site of social struggle through which Israel deepens its settler colonization of the West Bank and Palestinian communities refuse and transcend that project at quotidian activist and artistic registers

Seeing Through Race W. J. T. Mitchell, 2012-06-13 According to Mitchell a color blind post racial world is neither achievable nor desirable Against claims that race is an outmoded construct he contends that race is not simply something to be seen but is a fundamental medium through which we experience human otherness Race also makes racism visible and is thus our best weapon against it Back Stories Amahl A.

Bishara,2013-01-09 Few topics in the news are more hotly contested than the Israeli Palestinian conflict and news coverage itself is always a subject of debate But rarely do these debates incorporate an on the ground perspective of what and who newsmaking entails Studying how journalists work in Jerusalem Bethlehem Ramallah and Nablus and on the tense roads that connect these cities Amahl Bishara demonstrates how the production of U S news about Palestinians depends on multifaceted collaborations typically invisible to Western readers She focuses on the work that Palestinian journalists do behind the scenes and below the bylines as fixers photojournalists camerapeople reporters and producers to provide the news that Americans read see and hear every day Ultimately this book demonstrates how Palestinians play integral roles in producing U S news and how U S journalism in turn shapes Palestinian politics U S objectivity is in Palestinian journalists hands and Palestinian self determination cannot be fully understood without attention to the journalist standing off to the side quietly taking notes Back Stories examines news stories big and small Yassir Arafat s funeral female suicide bombers protests against the separation barrier an all but unnoticed killing of a mentally disabled man to investigate urgent questions about objectivity violence the state and the production of knowledge in today s news This book reaches beyond the headlines into the lives of Palestinians during the second intifada to give readers a new vantage point on both Palestinians and journalism Struggling for Time Natalia Gutkowski,2024-05-14 Struggling for Time examines how time is used as a mechanism of control by the Israeli state and a site of mundane resistance among Palestinian agriculture professionals Natalia Gutkowski unpacks power structures to show how a settler society lays moral claim on indigenous time through agrarian environmental policies science technologies landscapes and bureaucracy Shifting the analysis of Israel Palestine from land and space to time she offers new insight into the operation of power in agrarian environments and develops a contemporary framework to understand land and resource grabs under temporal justifications Traveling across both policymaking arenas and Palestinian citizens agrarian fields Gutkowski follows the multiple ways that state officials agronomists planners environmentalists and agriculturalists use time as a tool of collective agency Through investigations of wetland drainage in Galilee transformations in olive agriculture sustainable agrarian development and regulation of the shmita biblical commandment the year of release for agricultural fields this work highlights how Palestinian citizens agriculture has become a site for the state to settle and mediate time conflicts to justify its existence As Struggling for Time demonstrates time politics will take on ever greater urgency as societies and governments plan for an uncertain future in our era of climate change Architecture of Resistance Yara Sharif,2017-05-08 Architecture of Resistance investigates the relationship between architecture politics and power and how these factors interplay in light of the Palestinian Israeli conflict It takes Palestine as the key ground of spatial exploration looking at the spaces between people boundary lines documents and maps in a search for the meaning of architecture of resistance Stemming from the need for an alternative discourse that can nourish the Palestinian spaces of imagination the author reinterprets the land from a new perspective by stripping it of the dominant power of lines to expose the hidden dynamic topography born out of everyday Palestine It applies a hybrid approach of research through design and visual documentary through text illustrations mapping techniques and collages to capture the absent local narrative as an essential component of spatial investigation Edward Said on the Prospects of Peace in Palestine and Israel J. LeBlanc, 2013-11-12 John Randolph LeBlanc examines the political oeuvre of critic and activist Edward Said and finds that Said preferred reconciliation to segregation in Palestine Israel LeBlanc argues that Said's criticism speaks to the importance of negotiating the troubling proximate and unsettling presence of our most perplexing others

Contemplative Democracy Shannon Lee Mariotti, 2025 In Contemplative Democracy Shannon L. Mariotti explores how contemplative practices represent a form of world building that is valuable for meaningful democracy and an overlooked form of ordinary political theory Reimagining the work of political theory employing feminist approaches and with a focus on educational spaces and democratic modes of pedagogy Mariotti examines contemplative practices as spaces where ordinary people do the work of democracy creating new political imaginaries finding new selves and founding new states of being Further this book reveals how the larger body politic may be reshaped by the everyday work people do in their own bodies

Theorizing Fieldwork in the Humanities Shalini Puri, Debra A. Castillo, 2016-12-13 This volume the first of its kind launches a conversation amongst humanities scholars doing fieldwork on the global south It both offers indispensable tools and demonstrates the value of such work inside and outside of the academy The contributors reflect upon their experiences of fieldwork the methods they improvised their dilemmas and insights and the ways in which fieldwork shifted their frames of analysis They explore how to make fieldwork legible to their disciplines and how fieldwork might extend the work of the humanities The volume is for both those who are already deeply immersed in fieldwork in the humanities and those who are seeking ways to undertake it

Everywhere a Guest, Nowhere at Home Kim Chernin, 2009 The title of this book is a phrase often used to describe the fate of the Jewish people in the world and invokes one of the central arguments for the creation of the state of Israel In this thoughtful collection of essays Kim Chernin suggests that the Zionist struggle has left the Palestinian people in a similar predicament now they too are merely guests in their former homeland Confronting her own uncritical support of Israel Chernin tries to reconcile her desire for a Jewish homeland with the reality of the violence carried out in order to secure it Following an in depth examination of the perspectives of both Jews and Palestinians Chernin writes eloquently of the process by which she gradually learned to hear once ignored Palestinian voices By combining her knowledge of Jewish history with her insights as a psychotherapist Chernin discovers the psychological mechanisms that have kept her and other Jews from fully comprehending the suffering of both parties in this seemingly endless conflict She argues persuasively that by overcoming the mental blocks that prevent so many from seeing the Palestinian point of view

Jews can learn to feel empathy for them without diminishing their love and support for Israel      Criminal Cities Molly Slavin, 2023-05-24 Why does crime feature at the center of so many postcolonial novels set in major cities This book interrogates the connections that can be found between narratives of crime cities and colonialism to bring to light the ramifications of this literary preoccupation as well as possibilities for cultural aesthetic and political catharsis Examining late twentieth and twenty first century novels set in London Belfast Mumbai Sydney Johannesburg Nairobi and urban areas in the Palestinian West Bank Criminal Cities considers the marks left by neocolonialism and imperialism on the structures institutions and cartographies of twenty first century cities Molly Slavin suggests that literary depictions of urban crime can offer unique capabilities for literary characters as well as readers to process and negotiate that lingering colonial violence while also providing avenues for justice and forms of reparations
