Palm Trees David Leaser, 2005 Enthusiast Leaser takes us to palms around the world and also gives us the practical uses of palm trees their nuts and fruit and their place in both history and imagination Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Palms ,2007 America's War for Humanity Related in Story and Picture ,1898 Picture Perfect: The Jodi Arias Story Shanna Hogan, 2013-09-03 Picture Perfect is the chilling true crime story of Jodi Arias a beautiful aspiring photographer and the murder of Travis Alexander a devout Mormon Travis Alexander was a handsome hard working practicing Mormon who lived in Mesa Arizona His good looks and easygoing manner made him popular with everyone especially the ladies But when he was found brutally murdered with a bullet wound in the face and his throat slashed the shocking crime sent waves throughout his community Who could have committed such a sinister act Suspicion soon fell on Jodi Arias Travis s ex girlfriend Though they had broken up Jodi moved from California to just miles from Travis s home and began inserting herself into his daily life Investigators found startling evidence in Travis s home that implicated Jodi But in a bizarre turn of events Jodi claimed self defense Was she a victim or a dangerous obsessed stalker Picture Perfect The Jodi Arias Story the New York Times bestseller by Shanna Hogan chronicles the deadly affair and the murder trial that captured the nation s attention With 8 pages of chilling photos Motion Picture Story Magazine ,1912 Power Composition for Photography Tom Gallovich, 2015-02-03 In this book Tom Gallovich shows readers how to use their camera s exposure controls aperture shutter speed ISO to establish the focal point of the image and create the overall mood of the shot and choose a particular lens or focal length setting to massage the way elements in the original scene will appear within the frame Next he presents chapters on using shape color lines and arrangement to strengthen the intended visual message Readers will learn how to best place their primary subject and in some cases secondary subject for maximum impact and will discover artistic strategies that reinforce that decision through careful use of color tone highlight and shadow leading lines curved shapes and relative size qualities that will contribute to the overall mood in the image Copious illustrations emphasize the impact that putting these concepts into play will have on your images and these are often coupled with images that show how ineffective images are when those important compositional needs are not attended to The Picture Magazine ,1894 War & Press Freedom Jeffery Alan Smith, 1999 War and Press Freedom The Problem of Prerogative Power is a groundbreaking and provocative study of one of the most perplexing civil liberties issues in American history What authority does or should the government have to control press coverage and commentary in wartime First Amendment scholar Jeffery A Smith shows convincingly that no such extraordinary power exists under the Constitution and that officials have had to rely on claiming the existence of an autocratic higher law of survival Smith carefully surveys the development of statutory restrictions and military regulations for the news media from the ratification of the Bill of Rights in 1791 through the Gulf War of 1991 He concludes that the armed forces can justify refusal to divulge a narrow range of defense secrets but that imposing other restrictions is unwise unnecessary and unconstitutional In any event as electronic communication becomes almost impossible to constrain soldiers and journalists must learn how to respect each other's obligations in a democratic system

Photography in and out of Africa Kylie Thomas, Louise Green, 2018-02-02 This book offers a range of perspectives on photography in Africa bringing research on South African photography into conversation with work from several other places on the continent including Angola the DRC Kenya Mali Morocco Nigeria Ethiopia and Eritrea The collection engages with the history of photography and its role in colonial regulatory regimes with social documentary photography and practices of self representation and with the place of portraits in the production of subjectivities as well as contemporary and experimental photographic practices Through detailed analyses of particular photographs and photographic archives the chapters in this book trace how photographs have been used both to affirm colonial worldviews and to disrupt and critique such forms of power This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Dynamics

Through the Lens of the City, During the 1970s the National Endowment for the Arts Photography Surveys granted money to photograph American cities at the bicentennial and years that followed In Through the Lens of the City NEA Photography Surveys of the 1970s Mark Rice brings to light this long neglected photographic endeavor From 1976 to 1981 the NEA supported more than seventy projects that examined a wide range of people and places in America Artists involved included such well known photographers as Bruce Davidson Lee Friedlander and Joel Meyerowitz and many photographers who became widely known after their work with the surveys such as Robert Adams Joe Deal Terry Evans and Wendy Ewald Rice argues that the NEA Photographic Surveys drew from two wells a widespread sense of nostalgia and an intense public interest in photography Looking at the works from eight key cities Atlanta Buffalo Durham East Baltimore Galveston Long Beach Los Angeles and Venice the book uncovers marked differences as well as startling similarities in the concerns manifested by different photographers in far flung places Although the surveys are interesting both for their artistic merits and for their place in the history of American photography they are equally important as a documentation of bicentennial era America and a close examination of American cities A major shift in the ideals of civil engineering and urban planning was underway in the 1970s At the same time ideas and theories about photography were changing along with our notions of what the city could and should be These surveys capturing American cities in a fascinating period of flux show us American photographers matching artistry to subject matter in new and exciting ways Mark Rice is chair of the American studies department at St John Fisher College His work has been published in such periodicals as Exposure Explore and Reviews in American History
