Palestinian Collective Memory And National Identity:

Palestinian Collective Memory and National Identity M. Litvak, 2009-05-25 This book analyzes the evolution and cultivation of modern Palestinian collective memory and its role in shaping Palestinian national identity from its inception in the 1920s to the 2006 Palestinian elections Small-State Mediation in International Conflicts Jacob Eriksson, 2015-08-19 The Israeli Palestinian conflict is one of the most prolonged contentious and divisive in the modern era But despite the volatile nature of the conflict which frequently flares up in armed confrontations between the two there have been advancements towards a settlement through an admittedly protracted peace process In this book Jacob Eriksson argues that the impact of small states such as Sweden or Norway should not be ignored when it comes to the ongoing efforts to negotiate between Israel and Palestine Although small states lack coercive power the talks they have sponsored in this particular instance such as the Norwegian mediated Oslo Accords have transformed both the conflict and the conceptions of a solution to it Of course the diplomatic and financial power of larger states such as the USA is undoubtedly central to a negotiated solution But by looking at conflict resolution from the perspective of the small state Eriksson offers a unique analysis of power and diplomacy in the context of negotiations and efforts towards peace settlements Collective Memory, National Identity Michelle Mathew, 2012 Transitional Justice for Israel/Palestine Jeremie Bracka, 2022-01-01 This book applies the dynamic field of transitional justice to conflict resolution in Israel Palestine Around the globe diverse societies have pursued truth telling restorative justice and reconciliation to end conflict yet the language of transitional justice has been all but absent in Israel Palestine This volume squarely addresses how transitional justice could contribute to conflict transformation and accountability incorporating the questions of collective justice memory and human rights It covers the most important historical and legal issues facing Israel Palestine with a focus on civil societies in South Africa Northern Ireland and Latin America Ultimately the book proposes an unofficial Israeli Palestinian Truth and Empathy Commission IPTEC to address gross human rights abuses committed by both nations Transitional Justice for Israel Palestine will be of interest to researchers NGOs and policy makers working in transitional justice and societies with ongoing conflict June 1967 in Personal Stories of Palestinians and Israelis Regina F. Knowledge, Power, and Migration Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Mireille Paquet, Ethel Tungohan, 2025-06-17 As the field of migration studies has grown the asymmetrical relationship between researchers in the Global North and in the South has produced a body of work that centres the concerns of the former Those from the Global North and wealthier countries continue to produce the greater portion of this research while research from Global South scholars with lived experiences as migrants is received as anecdotal or too niche to have universal application Knowledge Power and Migration assembles researchers from across the divide to question the ways in which research practices can change the conversation on immigration It encourages a necessary curiosity about how scholarship in the field can shape global social and epistemic justice Migration is a constant in human history but the sharp decline in permanent resettlement options increasingly selective criteria and violent enforcement measures of the twenty first century constitute a crisis of immigration policy Only by redressing the inequalities it shares with global governance structures can the discipline confront this historic challenge Research on immigration can occasion reflections and practices that challenge epistemic injustices Knowledge Power and Migration contributes to this ongoing project while offering insights on the practical organization of new forms of dialogue on migration in a largely unequal world
