Gender Violence in Late Antiquity Jennifer Barry, 2025 Gender Violence in Late Antiquity confronts the violent ideological frameworks underpinning the early Christian imagination arguing that gender based violence is not peripheral but is fundamental to understanding early Christian history By analyzing hagiographical and doctrinal writings Jennifer Barry reveals how male authors used portrayals of feminized suffering to shape ideals of sanctity and power exploiting themes of domestic abuse martyrdom and sexualized violence to reinforce their visions of piety The study first traces the roots of gendered violence within the Greco Roman and early Christian imagination and then explores the disturbing role of male fantasies and dreams in hagiographical traditions Barry draws on womanist scholarship and engages with trauma studies and feminist horror theory in order to challenge traditional readings of Christian texts offering new perspectives for understanding how narratives of violence continue to shape contemporary interpretations of gender and power

Treasure in Heaven Peter R. Brown, 2016-03-08 The holy poor have long maintained an elite status within Christianity Differing from the real poor these clergymen teachers and ascetics have historically been viewed by their fellow Christians as persons who should receive material support in exchange for offering immeasurable immaterial benefits teaching preaching and prayer Supporting them quite as much as supporting the real poor has been a way to accumulate eventual treasure in heaven Yet from the rise of Christian monasticism in Egypt and Syria to present day Christians have argued fiercely about whether monks should work to support themselves In Treasure in Heaven renowned historian Peter Brown shifts attention from Western to Eastern Christianity introducing us to this smoldering debate that took place across the entire Middle East from the Euphrates to the Nile Seen against the backdrop of Asia Christianity might have opted for a Buddhist model by which holy monks lived by begging alone Instead the monks of Egypt upheld an alternative model that linked the monk to humanity and the monastery to society through acceptance of the common human bond of work This model of Third World Christianity a Christianity that we all too easily associate with the West eventually became the basis for the monasticism of western Europe as well as for modern Western attitudes to charity and labor In Treasure in Heaven Brown shows how and why we are still living at times uncomfortably with that choice

Animals in the New Testament Justin David Strong, Ruben Zimmermann, 2025-08-07 This volume explores the ubiquity of animals and the remarkable density of animal language in the New Testament and its contemporary world By situating the New Testament amid ancient discourses and incorporating understanding from the emerging field of Animal Studies the contributors explore the insights that emerge when non human animals and notions of animality take centre stage By analysing the Classical contexts of the New Testament the gospels the writings of Peter Paul and John and extra canonical Christian contexts the volume identifies and explores the myriad ways in which humans find themselves and others to be like animals addressing basic notions of human and animal nature and highlighting traits such as sentience subjectivity and intentionality Ranging from the intense discussions regarding animal souls and their place in contemporary narratives to their various roles in the teachings of Jesus their depictions in the writing of the apostles and their symbolic and ethical significance in early Christianity this highly original and methodologically diverse collection introduces an unfamiliar paradigm that offers new perspectives and insights into the New Testament and its contemporary world Forgotten
