H. Bailey,2017-10-27 Excerpt from The Principles of Vegetable Gardening Market gardening is the growing of vegetables for sale The American term truck gardening is really synonymous although it is sometimes used in connec tion with the larger market gardening enterprises An arbitrary distinction between market gardening and truck gardening was made by J H Hale in the work for the Eleventh Census In Bulletin 41 of the Census Bureau truck gardening is understood as the business carried on in favored localities at a distance from market water and rail transportation being necessary while market gardening is conducted near local markets the grower of vegetables using his own team for transporting his products direct to either the retailer or consumer This distinction is not a fundamental one and is not the general understanding of the terms but it seemed to be necessary for statistical reasons to make the separation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
