New Visions For The Americas Religious Engagement And Social Transformation:

Postmodernity Paul Lakeland, 2010 More than a guidebook to the postmodernity debate Paul Lakeland's lively and novel volume clarifies the critical impulses behind the cultural intellectual and scientific expressions of postmodern thought He identifies the issues it presents for religion and for Christian theology Concentrating on God Church and Christ Lakeland outlines the church's mission to the postmodern world including a constructive theological apologetics

New Visions for the Americas David B. Batstone, 1993 At the approach of a new millennium profound economic social and geopolitical changes have transformed the global map and shaken the contours of liberation thinking North and South Although the overarching hemispheric issue remains justice it is more likely now to erupt in contexts of environment basic economic rights systems of adjudication the survival of indigenous peoples and the liberation of women worldwide To address this new context of liberation especially around structural issues of race class and gender this volume presents the views of fourteen of today's most incisive religious leaders and thinkers male and female North and South black and white theologians and activists

La Cosecha Eduardo C. Fernández, 2000 marks a new stage in the development of U S Hispanic Latino theology

The Spirit over the Earth Green et al, 2016 Though the global center of Christianity has been shifting south and east over the past few decades very few theological resources have dealt with the seismic changes afoot The Majority World Theology series seeks to remedy that lack by gathering well regarded Christian thinkers from around the world to discuss the significance of Christian teaching in their respective contexts The contributors to this volume reflect deeply on the role of the Holy Spirit in both the church and the world in dialogue with their respective contexts and cultures Taking African Asian and Latin American cultural contexts into account gives rise to fresh questions and insights regarding the Spirit's work as witnessed in the world and demonstrates how the theological heritage of the West is not adequate alone to address the theological necessities of communities worldwide

Injustice and the Care of Souls, Second Edition Sheryl A.

Kujawa-Holbrook, Karen B. Montagno, 2023 Injustice and the Care of Souls Second Edition explores injustices in church and society and their impact on pastoral caregiving The book offers pastoral and spiritual caregivers broader contexts knowledge and skills to respond effectively to marginalized people and to reflect on how their own social locations affect their work

Conceiving Peace and Violence Philip L. Tite, 2004 In this book Philip Tite explores the role of biblical texts in the promotion of peace and violence He begins by exploring the function of religious texts as ideological elements recognizing that the New Testament affects the social construction of realities or cultures within which people read and apply authoritative writings to ethical discussions Arguing that an engaged reading of these texts is central within moral discourse Dr Tite explores such issues as feminist challenges to biblical ethics Jewish Christian relations and gay and lesbian ethical disputes in Christianity

Beyond Control Shirley Paré, Vern Neufeld Redekop, 2010-02-05 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com What is refreshing about Beyond Control is the vision for the kind of society in which protestors and police recognize their mutual humanity as well as how both are needed for a democratic society to function well From the Foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu How can large protest crowds be better and more respectfully managed by police This topical book applies the principles of community based conflict resolution to the policing of large crowds suggesting a completely new approach that moves away from the discourse of rabble rousing mobs towards negotiated management and a paradigm of mutual respect for protesters as principled dissenters and for police as non repressive agents of public order Both are needed the authors argue in order for democracy to flourish Changing Conversations Sheila Davaney,Dwight N.

Hopkins,2014-04-04 Changing Conversations defines the crucial role of cultural studies in the articulation and practice of religious studies disciplines A decisive turn in the development of religious reflection this volume seeks to redefine disciplinary self understanding and to promote religion as an integral component of cultural studies Emphasizing a commitment to the marginalized perspectives i e those communities lacking the resources to determine a new vision of society and so struggle to carve out their own space which more clearly embodies their own idiom Changing Conversations presents insightful authoritative contributions which show how religion is both embedded in and expressive of concrete social relationships and local realities Featuring detailed cultural and political analyses flavored with historical and feminist theory Changing Conversations will inform every reader seeking to explore theology as a vital component of cultural studies

Plenty Good Room Marcia Y. Riggs,2008-12-01 I offer this book as an outgrowth of my faith journey in the African American Church and as an ethicist who is deeply concerned about the distorted relationship between the professed theological and ethical beliefs and moral practices with respect to gender in that church I am concerned with the way that we interpret our beliefs about justice in particular in order to match our sexual gender oppressive practices while maintaining that we received such interpretation by way of the Bible and or church tradition Marcia Y Riggs In Plenty Good Room Women Versus Male Power in the Black Church Riggs discusses African American church life as a case study for ethical reflection about sexual ethics and clergy ethics the prevailing silence about sexuality in the black church as well as the fact that sexuality is generally a taboo in the Christian tradition The author feels that sexism has been perpetrated by misuse of the Scriptures and by circumscribing the role of women and seeks to transform current discourse about sexual behavior and clergy misconduct from a concentration on formulating policy to re train Riggs offers both descriptive analysis and normative proposals for transforming the moral life of the African American church the way of being and doing characteristic of the African American church in the areas of Sexual gender relations Clergy ethics Ministerial ethics Ecclesial practices Riggs begins each chapter with a scenario and ends each chapter with dialogue questions for further group reflection Applied Spirituality and Sustainable Development Policy Naresh Singh,Divya

Bhatnagar,2023-12-14 Rooted in both secular spirituality and scientific evidence this book articulates a new model of sustainable development that is not just based on narrow definitions of GDP and economic growth but that includes and even forefronts the social environmental and internal development of human beings Disrupting White Supremacy Jennifer Harvey, Karin A. Case, Robin Hawley Gorsline, 2008-05-13 Through careful thoughtful examination of the nature and workings of race racism and white supremacy the contributors an all white group of theologians ethicists teachers ministers and activists have provided a resource that will help white people do their own souls acknowledging its devastating effects on people of color and taking their own steps toward its abolishment A Reader in Ecclesiology Bryan P. Stone, 2016-03-16 This Reader presents a diverse and ecumenical cross section of ecclesiological statements from across the twenty centuries of the church's existence It builds on the foundations of early Christian writings illustrates significant medieval reformation and modern developments and provides a representative look at the robust attention to ecclesiology that characterizes the contemporary period This collection of readings offers an impressive overview of the multiple ways Christians have understood the church to be both the body of Christ and at the same time an imperfect social and historical institution constantly subject to change and reflective of the cultures in which it is found This comprehensive survey of historical ecclesiologies is helpful in pointing readers to the remarkable number of images and metaphors that Christians have relied upon in describing the church and to the various tensions that have characterized reflection on the church as both united and diverse community and institution visible and invisible triumphant and militant global and local one and many Students clergy and all interested in Christianity and the church will find this collection an invaluable resource A Companion to Postcolonial Studies Henry Schwarz, Sangeeta Ray, 2008-04-15 This volume examines the tumultuous changes that have occurred and are still occurring in the aftermath of European colonization of the globe from 1492 to 1947 Ranges widely over the major themes regions theories and practices of postcolonial study Presents original essays by the leading proponents of postcolonial study in the Americas Europe India Africa East and West Asia Provides clear introductions to the major social and political movements underlying colonization and decolonization accessible histories of the literature and culture and separate regions affected by European colonization Features introductory essays on the major thinkers and intellectual schools that have informed strategies of national liberation worldwide Offers an incisive summary of the long history and theory of modern European colonization in local detail and global scale Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence Rachel Starr, 2018-04-17 Domestic violence is a significant threat to women's survival But Christian understandings of marriage often prevent women from resisting abusive relationships Can the Church's teaching on marriage be reshaped so that it helps women to survive rather than encourage them to submit to their husband bear their cross or sacrifice themselves for the sake of their marriage Focusing on everyday practices of marriage in two very different contexts Argentina and England Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence considers how Christian understandings of marriage as a covenant or sacrament relate to the lived experience of marriage Drawing on

Augustine's notion of the goods of marriage and on belief in the saving power of marriage this book suggests that only when the wellbeing of bodies is central to a marriage can it have the power to save Justice as Equality Anna Kasafi Perkins, 2010 Justice as Equality makes a unique contribution to the philosophical and intellectual tradition of the English speaking Caribbean by exploring the theory of justice underpinning the life work and writings of former Prime Minister of Jamaica and renowned Third World Statesman the late Michael Manley 1924-1997 Manley's singular Caribbean vision of justice was forged in a post colonial context that he described as being too radically disfigured by inequalities to be improved by mere tinkering This book posits that equality has become unfashionable in social analysis and contemporary politics in part due to the increased significance of values such as identity diversity and difference in tandem with a misunderstanding of the concept of equality It argues for a reclaiming of a multi faceted and complex way of understanding equality in light of Manley's thought Through an engagement with the norms of justice developed within the Catholic social teaching tradition this book examines clarifies and deepens Manley's Caribbean account of justice as equality Manley's theory is a deeply relational theory one of justice and equality that roots fundamental human equality in the relationship to divine transcendence It calls for the dismantling of all relationships of oppression and domination that result when the fundamental equality of all human beings is disregarded It takes account of the multiple dimensions of the human person and calls a society just when it allows for the flourishing of every member specifically through full participation in the life of the society

Centering Hope as a Sustainable Decolonial Practice Yara González-Justiniano, 2022-09-23 Where is the hope What does it look like Is the Christian church providing a hope that materializes in the grounding of people's thriving These questions posed the catalysts of this work where the author sets up a journey that parses the definition of hope within Christian theology as an ontological category of the human experience Through ethnographic research and ecclesial study of diverse congregations in Puerto Rico the work moves from an articulation of context hope practice and future to reveal its aim of liberation through a hope that can be sustainable in time and space She analyzes the operations of political systems that suppress hope in the island Weaving the theme of a theology of hope with the fields of ecclesiology memory studies postcolonial and decolonial theory liberation theology and the study of social movements she builds a model that puts hope at the center of socio economic practices and moves toward a recipe for a hope that is sustainable in practice Unveiling Empire Wes Howard-Brook, Anthony Gwyther, 1999 Confused by end of the world readings or put off by the dense and mysterious imagery many readers hesitate to explore the Book of Revelation Unveiling Empire offers a new entree into this troubling and controversial book of the Bible by examining the roots and social purposes of apocalyptic literature and Revelations own use of traditional imagery In this way the authors provide readers with the tools for deciphering the texts message and its urgent applications for Christians today living amidst a new kind of empire Toward a Womanist Ethic of Incarnation Eboni Marshall Turman, 2013-12-18 The Black Church is an institution that emerged in rebellion against injustice perpetrated upon black bodies How is it then that black women s oppression persists in black churches This book engages the Chalcedonian Definition as the starting point for exploring the body as a moral dilemma Alternatives Unincorporated George Zachariah,2015-01-30 The victims of environmental destruction are often sidelined in eco theology and environmental discourse Movements for ecological justice fail to take into account the voice of those at the grassroots Alternatives Unincorporated presents an environmental ethics that begins with those on the margins Using the key example of the Narmada Dam in India and the popular resistance movement which built up against the project the book examines the collective action of subaltern communities in caring for their local environment The book frames these movements as theological texts that inform a life affirming earth ethics The aim of the book is to challenge prevailing social and ecological dynamics and to affirm the interconnectedness of social justice and environmental action Goddesses and the Divine Feminine Rosemary Ruether,2006-11-20 Gender and the problem of prehistory Goddesses and world renewal in the ancient mediterranean The Hebrew God and gender Savior goddesses in the mystery religions and gnosticism The spiritual feminine in New Testament and patristic Christianity Feminine symbols in medieval religious literature Tonantzin Guadalupe the meeting of Aztec and Christian female symbols in Mexico Mary and wisdom in protestant mystical millennialism Contested gender status and imagining ancient matriarchy The return of the goddess
