Reconstructing Postmodernism Jason L. Powell,Tim Owen,2007 There has been an array of literature on the notion of postmodernism in social science literature in recent years This exciting book focuses on three broad continuities one debunking the central theoretical tenets of postmodernism with reference to identity methodology governance and modernist theory two the book engages with current social issues and events in popular culture for example film professional power masculinity and terrorism three the book also rethinks postmodernism in light of under researched variables of analysis of time and ageing the body biology and choice New York School Journal ,1898 The Director as Collaborator Robert Knopf,2017-04-07 The Director as Collaborator teaches essential directing skills while emphasizing how directors and theater productions benefit from collaboration Good collaboration occurs when the director shares responsibility for the artistic creation with the entire production team including actors designers stage managers and technical staff Leadership does not preclude collaboration in theater these concepts can and should be complementary Students will develop their abilities by directing short scenes and plays and by participating in group exercises New to the second edition updated interviews exercises forms and appendices new chapter on technology including digital research previsualization and drafting programs and web sharing sites new chapter on devised and ensemble based works new chapter on immersive theater including material and exercises on environmental staging and audience performer interaction The Great Transformation Judith Bessant, 2018-04-17 While artificial intelligence AI robots bio technologies and digital media are transforming work culture and social life there is little understanding of or agreement about the scope and significance of this change This new interpretation of the great transformation uses history and evolutionary theory to highlight the momentous shift in human consciousness taking place Only by learning from recent crises and rejecting technological determinism will governments and communities redesign social arrangements that ensure we all benefit from the new and emerging technologies The book documents the transformations under way in financial markets entertainment and medicine affecting all aspects of work and social life It draws on historical sociology and co evolutionary theory arguing that the radical evolution of human consciousness and social life now under way is comparable with if not greater than the agrarian revolution 10000 BCE the explosion of science philosophy and religion in the Axial Age 600 BCE and the recent Industrial Revolution Turning to recent major socio economic crisis and asking what can be learnt from them the answer is we cannot afford this time around to repeat the failures of elites and theoretical systems such as economics to attend appropriately to radical change We need to think beyond the constraints of determinist and reductionist explanations and embrace the idea of deep freedom This book will appeal to educators social scientists policy makers business leaders and students It concludes with social design principles that can inform deliberative processes and new social arrangements that ensure everyone benefits from the affordances of the new and emerging technologies Good Furniture and Decoration ,1926
