Committee on Survey of Research on Crime and Criminal Justice, 1929 Formulating American Indian Policy in New York State, 1970-1986 Laurence M. Hauptman, 1988-01-01 This is the first descriptive analysis of how American Indian policies are made both at the statewide and at agency levels Pertinent to all states the study describes New York's historic policies and emphasizes that improving Indian lifestyles or attracting Indians to government employment is handicapped by their overall distrust of state intentions a distrust caused by the continued impasse on American Indian land claims Employing archival records never before used as well as a plethora of interviews with state officials and American Indians over a fifteen year period Hauptman concludes that critical policy changes are needed to build lasting trust Subject Catalog of the Institute of Governmental Studies Library, University of California, Berkeley University of California, Berkeley.
