Controversies in Contemporary Religion Paul Hedges, 2014-09-09 Religious or spiritual beliefs underpin many controversies and conflicts in the contemporary world Written by a range of scholarly contributors this three volume set provides contextual background information and detailed explanations of religious controversies across the globe

Controversies in Contemporary Religion Education Law Politics Society and Spirituality is a three volume set that addresses a wide variety of current religious issues analyzing religion s role in the rise of fundamentalism censorship human rights environmentalism and sustainability sexuality bioethics and other questions of widespread interest Providing in depth context and analysis far beyond what s available in the news or online this work will enable readers to understand the nature of and reasons for controversies in current headlines The first volume covers theoretical and academic debates the second looks at debates in the public square and ethical issues while the third examines specific issues and case studies These volumes bring detailed and careful debate of a range of controversies together in one place including topics not often covered for example how religions promote or hinder social cohesion and peace the relationship of religions to human rights and the intersection of Buddhism and violence Written by a range of experts that includes both established and emerging scholars the text explains key debates in ways that are accessible and easy to understand for lay readers as well as undergraduate students researching particular issues or global religious trends

Family Engagement in Black Students' Academic Success Vilma Seeberg, 2021-03-15 This timely volume presents powerful stories told by Black families and students who have successfully negotiated a racially fraught affluent and diverse suburban school district in America to illustrate how they have strategically contested sanctioned racist practices and forged a path for students to achieve a high quality education Drawing on rich qualitative data collected through interviews and interactions with parents and kin students community activists and educators Family Engagement in Black Students Academic Success chronicles how pride in Black American family history and values students personal capabilities and their often collective proactive challenges to systemic and personal racism shape students academic engagement Familial and collective cultural wealth of the Black community emerges as a central driver in students successful achievement Finally the text puts forward key recommendations to demonstrate how incorporating the knowledge and voices of Black families in school decision making remaining critically conscious of race and racial history in everyday actions and longer term policy and pursuing collective strategies for social justice in education will help eliminate current opportunity gaps and will counteract the master narrative of underachievement ever present in America This volume will be of interest to students scholars and academics with an interest in matters of social justice equity and equality of opportunity in education for Black Americans In addition the text offers key insights for school authorities in building effective working relationships with Black American families to support the high achievement of Black students in K 12 education

Reproductive Medicine and the Life Sciences in the Contemporary Economy Alexander Styhre, 2016-04-08 In Reproductive Medicine and the Life Sciences in the Contemporary Economy Alexander Styhre and Rebecka Arman illuminate issues that have given rise to terms such as the bioeconomy and the baby business The life sciences play an increasing role in providing services and commodities consumed by businesses and the public Based on an in depth study of clinics offering assisted fertilization in Sweden this book is the first to examine the commercialization and commodification of know how derived from the life sciences from the point of view of organization theory In the field of reproductive medicine there has been significant growth of both public and private clinical work Clinics are places where individual interests and concerns and social and institutional arrangements intersect With a front office where patients encounter various professional groups and a back office comprising the laboratories wherein human reproductive materials are handled and stored they are more than just places in which medicine is applied in a clinical setting Clinicians in this field actively influence policy making and the regulatory frameworks that monitor and set the boundaries for their work These are places where social and cultural interests and concerns are translated into policies and practice The clinics are open social systems responding to and influencing discussions This book combines organization theory sociological theory gender theory science and technology studies and philosophy It emphasises the critical importance of a sociomaterial perspective on organization stressing how material and social resources are always of necessity folded into each other in day to day organizing

A Biographical Encyclopedia of Contemporary Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, 2012-07-06 This book documents the devastating effects of genocide in the world's most destructive human environments since the end of World War II and explores why such events still occur A Biographical Encyclopedia of Contemporary Genocide Portraits of Evil and Good is a unique study of humanity's most reprehensible actions It documents genocides that have occurred after World War II a period that was supposed to be the fulfillment of the promise never again by providing biographies rather than extensive historical narratives The entries describe the personal backgrounds careers and relationship to genocidal events humanitarian actions or international initiatives relevant to each person in the book Beyond examining the genocidaires who played key roles in mass murder individuals who contributed to efforts to stop genocide are also profiled By adopting a biographical approach to post World War II genocide the author sheds light on why people behave the way they do toward their fellow human beings and provides vital insights into the extremes of human positivity and negativity that have characterized this period of history Serving as a vital tool for scholars and students of genocide as well as compelling reading for general audiences the book highlights individual human behaviors motivations backgrounds and intentions that can form a platform from which to raise and discuss issues of morality and ethics in the modern world

Queer Muslim diasporas in contemporary literature and film Alberto Fernández Carbajal, 2019-07-04 This book explores the representation of queer migrant Muslims in international literature and film from the 1980s to the present day Bringing together a variety of contemporary writers and filmmakers of Muslim heritage engaged in vindicating same sex desire the book approaches queer Muslims in the diaspora as figures forced to negotiate their identities according to the expectations of the West and of their migrant Muslim communities The book examines 3 main themes the depiction of queer desire across racial and national borders the negotiation of Islamic femininities and masculinities and the positioning of the queer Muslim self in time and place This study will be of interest to scholars as well as to advanced general readers and postgraduate students interested in Muslims queerness diaspora and postcolonialism It brings nuance and complexity to an often simplified and controversial topic

Feminist Posthumanism in Contemporary Science Fiction Film and Media Julia A. Empey, Russell J.A. Kilbourn, 2023-08-24 Feminist Posthumanism in Contemporary Science Fiction Film and Media From Annihilation to High Life and Beyond places posthumanism and feminist theory into dialogue with contemporary science fiction film and media This essay collection is intimately invested in the debates around the posthuman and the critical posthumanities within a feminist critical theoretical framework In this posthumanist light science fiction as a genre allows for new imaginings of human technological relations while it can also be the site of a critique of human exceptionalism and essentialism In this way science fiction affords unique opportunities for the scholarly investigation of the relevance and relative applicability of specific posthumanist themes and questions in a particularly rich and wide ranging popular cultural field of production One of the reasons for this suitability is the genre's historically longstanding relationship with the critical investigation of gender specifically the position and relative empowerment of women The original analyses presented here pay close attention to audiovisual style including game mechanics facilitating the critical interrogation of the issues and questions around posthumanism Where typically the mention of SF in the posthumanist context calls to mind a whole set of often clichéd tropes the cyborg technologically augmented bodies AI subjectivities etc this volume's thirteen chapters analyze specific examples of contemporary SF cinema that engage in meaningful ways with the burgeoning field of critical posthumanism and that utilize such films to interrogate posthumanist and feminist as well as humanistic ideas
