unable or unwilling to extend her privileges If England was similarly supreme if all rival powers were eclipsed by her or laid under her feet the Imperial tendencies which are as strongly marked in us as our love of liberty might lead us over the same course to the same end If there be one lesson which history clearly teaches it is this that free nations cannot govern subject provinces If they are unable or unwilling to admit their dependencies to share their own constitution the constitution itself will fall in pieces from mere incompetence for its duties
