Design and the Social Imagination Matthew DelSesto,2022-09-22 How can social theory help us all design solutions to address the social political and ecological challenges that confront us and build more sustainable communities Design professions have typically been associated with intervention and action while social science has long been associated with thought and reflection Design and social thought are too frequently considered distinct in terms of how

Public Space Unbound Sabine Knierbein, Tihomir Viderman, 2018-03-15 Through an exploration of emancipation in recent processes of capitalist urbanization this book argues

the political is enacted through the everyday practices of publics producing space This suggests democracy is a spatial practice rather than an abstract professional field organized by institutions politicians and movements Public Space Unbound brings together a cross disciplinary group of scholars to examine spaces conditions and circumstances in which emancipatory practices impact the everyday life of citizens We ask How do emancipatory practices relate with public space under post political conditions In a time when democracy solidarity and utopias are in crisis we argue that productive emancipatory claims already exist in the lived space of everyday life rather than in the expectation of urban revolution and future progress

Living Politics in the City Marion Hohlfeldt , Carmen Popescu, 2023-03-15 Public space and performativity from the perspective of architecture In recent decades architecture has been seen as a field of practice that contributes greatly to the performativity of public space In spite of the explosion of virtual communities through social media and the limitations imposed by pandemics architecture today still holds an active role in literally building our societies Bearing in mind its acute politicisation in past years Living Politics in the City looks at public space from the perspective of architecture and its effective contribution not as a prop but as an actual catalyst for embodying politics The essays gathered here span five continents activating various disciplinary approaches to architecture and examining it in different contexts from a Palestinian refugee camp to the most vibrant urban axis in Sao Paulo from the numerous city squares around the world crowded with rebellious populations to the proximal politics of housing in Australia Contributors Endriana Audisho University of Technology Sydney Maja Babic Charles University Alexandra Biehler Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Marseille Tracey Bowen University of Toronto Mississauga Etienne Delprat Rennes 2 University Claudia Faraone IUAV Venice School of Architecture ETICity Caterina Frisone Oxford Brookes University Catherine Grout ENSAPL Lille Pavel Kunysz University of Liège Flavia Marcello Swinburne University of Technology Eric Le Coguiec University of Liège Tova Lubinsky University of Technology Sydney Giovanna Muzzi IUAV Venice School of Architecture ETICity Can Onaner Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Bretagne Shadi Saleh KU Leuven Frédéric Sotinel Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Bretagne Karolina Wilczynska Adam Mickiewicz University Ian Woodcock Swinburne University of Technology This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content The Ethics of a Potential Urbanism Camillo Boano, 2016-11-25 The Ethics of a Potential Urbanism explores the possible and potential relevance of Giorgio Agamben's political thoughts and writings for the theory and the practice of architecture and urban design It sketches out the potentiality of Agamben's politics which can affect change in current architectural and design discourses The book investigates the possibility of an inoperative architecture as an ethical shift for a different practice just a little bit different but able to deactivate the sociospatial dispositive and mobilize a new theory and a new project for the urban now to come This particular reading from Agamben's oeuvre suggests a destituent mode of both thinking and practicing of architecture and urbanism that could possibly redeem them from their social emptiness cultural irrelevance economic reductionism and proto avant garde extravagance contributing to a renewed critical encounter with architecture's aesthetic political function Informality through Sustainability Antonino Di Raimo, Steffen Lehmann, Alessandro Melis, 2020-12-30 Informality through Sustainability explores the phenomenon of informality within urban settlements and aims to unravel the subtle links between informal settlements and sustainability Penetrating its global profile and considering urban informality through an understanding of local implications the authors collectively reveal specific correlations between sites and their local inhabitants The book opposes simplistic calls to legalise informal settlements or to view them as problems to be solved It comes at a time when common notions of informality are being increasingly challenged In 25 chapters the book presents contributions from well known scholars and practitioners whose theoretical or practical work addresses informality and sustainability at various levels from city planning and urban design to public space and architectural education Whilst previous studies on informal settlements have mainly focused on cases in developing countries approaching the topic through social cultural and material dimensions the book explores the concept across a range of contexts including former

Communist countries and those in the so called Global North Contributions also explore understandings of informality at various scalar levels region precinct neighbourhood and individual building Thus this work helps reposition informality as a relational concept at various scales of urbanisation This book will be of great benefit to planners architects researchers and policymakers interested in the interplay between informality and sustainability Walkscapes Francesco Careri, 2017-12-25 Walkscapes deals with strolling as an architecture of landscape Walking as an autonomous form of art a primary act in the symbolic transformation of the territory an aesthetic instrument of knowledge and a physical transformation of the negotiated space which is converted into an urban intervention From primitive nomadism to Dada and Surrealism from the Lettrist to the Situationist International and from Minimalism to Land Art this book narrates the perception of landscape through a history of the traversed city
