

The background of the entire image is a still life painting. It features a patterned cloth with a repeating diamond and floral motif in shades of yellow and brown. On the cloth are several pieces of fruit: a large, round, yellowish-orange fruit (possibly a pear or apple) in the foreground, and several smaller, round fruits (possibly lemons or oranges) in the background. The lighting is soft, creating gentle shadows and highlights on the fruit's surfaces.

[-6.] ,1791 Adult Leader ,1928 Nautilus Magazine of New Thought Elizabeth Jones Towne,1927 Biblical Theology of the Old and New Testaments Brevard S. Childs,1993-04

This monumental work is the first comprehensive biblical theology to appear in many years and is the culmination of Brevard Child's lifelong commitment to constructing a biblical theology that surmounts objections to the discipline raised over the past generation. Child's rejects any approaches that overstress either the continuity or discontinuity between the Old and New Testaments. He refuses to follow the common pattern in Christian thought of identifying biblical theology with the New Testament's interest in the Old. Rather, Child's maps out an approach that reflects on the whole Christian Bible with its two very different voices, each of which retains continuing integrity and is heard on its own terms.
