Great Soul of Siberia Sooyong Park, 2015 In The Great Soul of Siberia renowned tiger researcher Sooyong Park tracks three generations of Siberian tigers living in remote southeastern Russia Reminiscent of the way Timothy Treadwell the so called Grizzly Man immersed himself in the lives of bears Park sets up underground bunkers to observe the tigers living thrillingly close to these beautiful but dangerous apex predators At the same time he draws from twenty years of experience and research to focus on the Siberian tigers losing battle against poaching and diminishing habitat Over the two years of his harrowing stakeout Park's poignant and poetic observations of the tigers draw a fiercely compassionate portrait of these elusive endangered creatures

From the Mist Patrick Walter Herzog, 2017-09 For years the trail of his life led through dense marshes high mountain forests and steamy jungles Then it stopped with just one word Cancer For the next seven years Pat Herzog was pursued by chronic leukemia until undergoing life threatening experimental treatment Thereafter he was relentlessly bushwhacked by fatigue and brain fog skirting the edges of depression Only by regaining his passion for nature was he finally able to overcome his fear of living More than an authentic tale of illness From the Mist A Life Restored By Nature is a story of hardiness faith and renewal And it is tangible proof of the undeniable healing powers of nature

Thurston,2016-05-06 Addressing one of the most controversial and emotive issues of American history this book presents a thorough reexamination of the background dynamics and decline of American lynching It argues that collective homicide in the US can only be partly understood through a discussion of the unsettled southern political situation after 1865 but must also be seen in the context of a global conversation about changing cultural meanings of race A deeper comprehension of the course of mob murder and the dynamics that drove it emerges through comparing the situation in the US with violence that was and still is happening around the world Drawing on a variety of approaches historical anthropological and literary the study shows how concepts of imperialism gender sexuality and civilization profoundly affected the course of mob murder in the US Lynching provides thought provoking analyses of cases where race was and was not a factor The book is constructed as a series of case studies grouped into three thematic sections Part I Understanding Lynching starts with accounts of mob murder around the world Part II Lynching and Cultural Change examines shifting concepts of race gender and sexuality by drawing first on the romantic travel and adventure fiction of the era 1880-1920 from authors such as H Rider Haggard and Edgar Rice Burroughs Changing images of black and white bodies form another major focus of this section Part III Blood Debate and Redemption in Georgia follows the story of American collective murder and growing opposition to it in Georgia a key site of lynching in the early twentieth century By situating American mob murder in a wide international context and viewing the phenomenon as more than simply a tool of racial control this book presents a reappraisal of one of the most unpleasant yet important periods of America's history one that remains crucial for understanding race relations and collective violence around the world The New Yorker, 1977

Narratives of Annihilation, Confinement, and Survival Anja Tippner, Anna Artwińska, 2019-05-20 The concept of camp narratives rather than Holocaust narratives or Gulag narratives is based on the assumption that literary accounts of camp experiences share common traits aesthetically as well as thematically The book presents readings of camp literature that underscore the similarities between texts about Soviet gulag camps Nazi camps and about other camp experiences While literature about Nazi concentration camps still serves as a point of reference for camp narratives in the same way that the Holocaust serves as a point of reference for other genocidal operations socialist labor and penal camps have become transnational lieux de mémoire in their own right since 1989 This volume intends to provide a theoretical frame as well as an overview of several important European camp literatures and case studies of iconic camp narratives and to take a comparative and transnational perspective on the genre of the camp narrative The Opera of the Twentieth Century

William Schoell, 2015-01-24 In the late 1500s in Florence aristocrats of the Renaissance renovated classical Greek dramas into dramatic musicals and gave birth to the first operas After centuries of transformation the opera is still appreciated as a historically dynamic paradigm of the fine arts Composers of the twentieth century have worked hard to fashion a voice distinct from the romantic composers of the nineteenth century and the traditions that preceded them and this volume explores the extent of their success Beginning with a thorough introduction to the history of operatic forms and transformation this book presents a comprehensive discussion of twentieth century opera Giving ear to many composers and many styles romantic and modern and assorted variations the discussion includes such globally renowned composers as Strauss Puccini Prokofiev and Mascagni as well as the esoteric works of less famous composers Spanning as it does from Puccini's Tosca and Charpentier's Louise to Heggie's Dead Man Walking and Corigliano's The Ghosts of Versailles twentieth century operatic form has something for every taste The discussion is therefore structured chronologically and directed at exploring this complex diversity and ingenuity of twentieth century styles Examples from across the globe and firsthand commentary from contemporary operatic professionals complement the discussion Concluding chapters comment upon the operatic presence in the twenty first century and the future of operatic forms This War is the Passion Caryl

Houselander, 1941 Forum and Column Review, 1915 Forum, 1915 The Forum Loretta Sutton Metcalf, Walter Hines Page, Joseph Mayer Rice, Frederic Taber Cooper, Arthur Hooley, George Henry Payne, Henry Goddard Leach, 1915 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements

The Nation and Athenæum, 1912 Ivory, Apes and Peacocks James Huneker, 2022-05-28 In Ivory Apes and Peacocks James Gibbons Huneker provides a perspicacious anthology of critiques on the most influential artistic landmarks which flourished in the latter half of the 19th century With a vivid narrative style that threads academic scrutiny with rich anecdotal contours Huneker brings to life the cultural tapestry of the era The book delves into the life and works of a pantheon of artistic luminaries including Whitman's profound impact on poetry, Lieberman's innovation in painting, Dostoyevsky's existential storytelling, Zola's contributions to naturalism, and Maupassant's narrative prowess. Huneker's cogent examination situates these individuals within the broader currents of their time, providing readers with an immersive journey through the epoch's aesthetic achievements. A prominent figure in early 20th-century criticism, James Huneker's expertise was bolstered by a deeply ingrained passion for the arts and an eclectic scholarly background. His intentions with this compendium were to bestow upon the American audience an informed and comprehensive understanding of an array of artistic genius.
