Nice Relentless Inside Story Ladies Footballers:

Relentless Mary White, 2019-06-07 Relentless tells the story of the rise of Cork ladies football between 2005 and 2016. Having never won a senior title in the sport in 2004, by 2016 the team had won ten All Ireland titles in eleven years. Mary White takes the reader behind the scenes and shows what made the Cork ladies footballers one of the most successful teams ever in the history of Irish sport. The book was shortlisted for the 2015 Setanta Ireland Sports Book of the Year. This edition contains a new afterword from the author bringing the story up to the present day. It would have been disastrous if the best team in Irish sport had passed into history without their story being told. Luckily for them and for us, Mary White was there taking notes right from the beginning and can give an outsider's view with an insider's knowledge. It's not often that happens. A great insight into a truly great team. Malachy Clerkin, The Irish Times. Don't Get A Job, Build A Business Joanne Hession, Joan Baker, 2013-01-18. This book is full of the kind of information you need to run a small business successfully whether you are just starting out or you have an established business and you want to develop it and ensure its survival. Through a series of Killer Questions the authors highlight all the important things you need to think about to make your business a success and ensure you are heading in the right direction. The book is divided into three sections: the first deals with the business owner themselves, the second addresses other people involved in the business whether they are customers, suppliers, staff or consultants, and the third looks at the structure of and planning in the business. The informal approach and short chapters means that the book can either be read straight through or be dipped in and out of for easy reference. The authors have a combination of fifty years business experience between them and are both currently involved in business training and coaching.

Game Changer Cora Staunton, 2018-10-18. Cora Staunton is an iconic figure in the world of modern GAA. In this ground-breaking autobiography she reveals her extraordinary journey from teenage rookie to the highest scoring forward in the history of Ladies Gaelic Football. Since making her senior inter-county debut for Mayo at just thirteen years of age, Cora has become a feared and respected opponent on any pitch. Now for the first time she recounts the triumphs of her career and the personal struggles that have plagued it. In this refreshingly candid book, Cora recalls finding refuge in the game after the death of her mother but also speaks openly about the challenges and conflicts she and her teammates have experienced in the under-resourced world of female sport. She gives a fascinating insight into her move to a professional team in Sydney and how she coped with going from a veteran to a newcomer overnight. In the first ever autobiography of a female GAA star, Game Changer will take its place as one of the most influential and powerful sports books in recent years.

Trailblazing Story of Susan Alberti Stephanie Asher, 2018-10-29. The extraordinary story of Susan Alberti, a lady of many firsts. The woman from the working-class suburbs has battled boardrooms, cancer, diabetes, open heart surgery, and shed 59 kilos, half her body weight, on the road to recovery. She has stared down adversity and prevailed. When her first husband was killed by a truck, Susan took over their construction business. When her only child, Danielle, died from type 1 diabetes, she embarked on a global mission to find a cure When her beloved AFL club the Western Bulldogs was threatened with annihilation she worked tirelessly to bring home the 2016 premiership Confronted with the exclusion of women players from AFL she fought to open the game to all No tragedy no challenge has proved too hard for Susan Alberti The Trailblazing Story of Susan Alberti is a tale of determination and resilience Written to honour a promise made to Danielle two weeks before she died it will inspire you to take on the seemingly impossible and triumph Good Lookin' Out: Chapel Girl in Prison Christine Marallen, 2025-04-10 Prison bites Chaplain Christine Marallen can't wait to get there some days The United States criminal justice system has massive fan follows in our culture The millions of men and women who traverse the hallways of our jails and prisons invite curiosity and mass incarceration is big money with unusual bedfellows juggling both the blame and the solutions While legislators and glam celebrities arm wrestle for headlines and tax dollars Chaplain Christine Marallen convinces gang members not to off each other on the recreation yard She teaches men how to forgive themselves for their blackout meth benders and walks alongside women who regret selling their children's futures to keep a man around Inside three state prisons in Southwest Ohio Marallen unravels her own strongholds and blind spots while clarifying prison truth with a larger Truth such as despite the prison hierarchy selling the sexual favors of a cellie to pay a debt does not square with divine justice Good Lookin Out prison slang for strong work thanks captures the boots on the ground reality of what's possible with incarceration restoration and redemption told through the individuals and stories Marallen encounters as a prison chaplain and criminal justice college instructor Marallen has spent time with the incarcerated since 2002 trading a successful corporate career for the wooden pews of the prison chapel Over the last two decades she has been the ear and the voice for thousands of individuals inside the criminal justice system writing and facilitating programming for men and women of all faith backgrounds and security levels Her curriculum on trauma personal development and post release life planning have been offered in treatment facilities jails and maximum security prisons Currently Marallen is the Chief Strategy Officer for Damascus a nonprofit reentry organization she co founded in 2015 in Cincinnati She is the former director of prison ministries for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and past president of the American Catholic Correctional Chaplains Association Christine holds an M S Criminal Justice and M A Theology from Xavier University and is a trauma informed professional trained in the NeuroAffective Relational Model NARM Good Lookin Out is Marallen's first book on the topics of incarceration and ministry Sports Illustrated Great Football Writing Editors of Sports Illustrated, 2012-10-30 For more than 50 years Sports Illustrated has been the gold standard of sports writing and during that time football once a popular college pastime but only a rag tag professional game has moved to center stage taking its unquestioned place as America's most popular sport This book brings together dozens of football classics from the pages of SI featuring the work of such esteemed writers as John O Hara and Jack Kerouac Dan Jenkins and George Plimpton Don DeLillo and John Underwood and John Ed Bradley And of course the collection includes many of the longtime favorites of SI readers Frank Deford and Rick Reilly Steve

Football in Southeastern Europe John Hughson, Fiona Skillen, 2015-10-14 This volume draws together scholarship across a number of disciplines history sociology media and cultural studies political science Slavonic Studies to examine the significance of the sport of football within Southeastern Europe with an especial focus on countries of the former Yugoslavia The volume is timely as there is growing recognition inside and beyond the academy that football is a key cultural site in which the tensions within the region have and continue to be reflected Important issues such as resurgent nationalism ethno-religious identity construction and collective masculine identity are played out in relation to the sport of football The papers within the volume explore these and other themes in detailed case studies that will be of interest to academics and policy makers concerned with wanting to know more about how football should be considered within agendas focused on reconciliation and a socially inclusive future This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Sanctioned Savagery Michael Oriard, 2025-07-22 American football was a violent sport from its beginning as a college game in the 1870s and 1880s in part because learning how to deal with the pain and violence to take it made men out of college boys Michael Oriard former NFL linebacker and professor emeritus of English shows us that this fundamental belief persisted for more than a century until signs of chronic traumatic encephalopathy CTE were found in Pittsburgh Steelers center Mike Webster's brain Suddenly the cost of taking it could mean long term damage not just to the body but also to the brain Without anyone knowing it that risk had soared since the 1950s and 1960s when the hardshell plastic helmet became the primary weapon for blocking and tackling as taught by a new generation of college coaches led by the University of Alabama's Bear Bryant In this cultural history of football at nearly all levels high school college and pro Oriard traces the perennial tension between health and culture regarding football as reflected in what the public read in newspapers magazines and online Through examining how we once felt and how we now feel about the game Oriard challenges us to grapple with the possibility that football might be too violent in an intolerable way

The Lost Lionesses Gail Emms, 2024-09-26 Inspiring After reading this book I'm ready to run through a brick wall for these girls Karen Bardsley ex Lioness A captivating and moving account of the first England women's football team that took part in the 1971 World Cup detailing the injustice faced by those who took part and its effect on the women's game as a whole Told by the team themselves and written by the celebrity daughter of the main striker Don't laugh one day there may be a female Arsenal one headline read amidst the ridicule following the First Women's World Cup in 1971 The spotlight was on the original lionesses a diverse group of schoolgirls bank clerks and telephonists primarily hailing from Chiltern Valley football club run by a 60 year old multilingual bus driver called Harry These amateur girls emerged as England's first women's football team at the 1971 World Cup in Mexico only to face scorn once returned home They were mocked by the press and their achievements were undermined Players were banned for three months to two years if they tried to play with another team The heroes had been punished But the time has come to tell their truth Narrated by the daughter of one of the team members Janice Barton with unprecedented access to the secrets and insights of the first ever women's team this is a multi generational story celebrating the power of a group of women who refused to accept the status quo revealing how the events of 1971 shaped mother and daughter's lives both personally and professionally 50 years later Gail her mother and the rest of the team are ready to tell their story and share the legacy of the lost lionesses

You Throw Like a Girl Don McPherson, 2021-05-26 The former NFL quarterback examines the roots of masculinity gone awry and how it promotes violence against women In You Throw Like a Girl former Syracuse University quarterback and NFL veteran Don McPherson examines how the narrow definition of masculinity adversely impacts women and creates many blind spots that hinder the healthy development of men Dissecting the strict set of beliefs and behaviors that underpin our understanding of masculinity he contends that we don't raise boys to be men we raise them not to be women Using examples from his own life including his storied football career McPherson passionately argues that viewing violence against women as a women's issue not just ignores men's culpability but conflates the toxicity of men's violence with being male In You Throw Like a Girl McPherson leads us beyond the blind spots and toward solutions analyzing how we can engage men in a sustained dialogue with a new set of terms that are aspirational and more accurately representative of the emotional wholeness of men One of the most important books ever written by a former elite male athlete Jackson Katz author of The Macho Paradox An essential exploration of what's holding men and sports back and how to overcome it The Washington Post Don McPherson is a quarterback for a wider community Newsday A crucial read for anyone interested in learning more about how sports culture informs limited definitions of masculinity and how such definitions are destructive for boys and men and dangerous to girls and women The Undeclared A Can't Miss Book of 2019 The Bookman ,1911 Our Players' Gallery ,1901
