David Lean Howard Maxford, 2014-10-30 Oscar winning director David Lean was responsible for some of the most enduring images in British cinema including the romantic clinches between Trevor Howard and Celia Johnson in Brief Encounter and Pip's memorable dash across the marshes in Great Expectations. Lean became renowned for his visual epics painting the cinematic screen in such films as The Bridge on the River Kwai, Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago. Yet despite the large canvas of these masterpieces Lean never lost sight of the human story within them. In his study of Lean's career Howard Maxford takes behind the scenes look at each of the director's films chronicling their making and their subsequent reception by both audiences and critics. Lean's early work as a film editor which led to his commission by Noel Coward to co-direct the landmark war drama In Which We Serve is examined along with Lean's self-imposed 14 year exile after a savage reception from critics to his penultimate film. His exile ended triumphantly with the release of A Passage to India. Lean the man away from the camera is also revealed including his six marriages and his strict Quaker upbringing. An informative critical guide this David Lean companion offers a detailed examination of the work of one of cinema's true greats.

Good Morning, Olive Robert Viagas, 2022-10-01 Hamlet calls death that undiscovered country from whose bourn no traveler returns. But he's wrong. Some do return. Each night after the applause dies the curtain falls the audience vanishes the cleaners dust and the lights are killed great theatres become dark and silent places. But not always quite empty. That's when the theatre ghosts make their entrance and strut and fret their hour upon the shadowed boards illuminated only by the ghost light the solitary lamp that is required to burn through the night on every Broadway stage. Many of Broadway's busiest theatres continue to be just as busily haunted by spirits some with well known names and histories. Good Morning Olive named for one of the most beautiful and temperamental of Broadway's ghosts is about the ghosts that haunt theatres in New York and around the world. Broadway is the playground of stars so it's probably not surprising to learn that even its ghosts are stars. Meet some of Broadway's best known and most active celebrity ghosts. Don't worry like Casper they tend to be friendly. For the most part there's something special about theatres something especially conducive and welcoming to ghosts. Charles J Adams III wrote By its very nature a theatre is a vault within which every human emotion is at once imprisoned impersonated imitated and elicited. Tangles of cords and ropes tall curtains and backdrops which fade into high darkness cubicles and trap doors and passageways. Good Morning Olive takes readers on a tour of that world. The Noel Coward Diaries Sheridan Morley, Graham Payn, 2022-11-17 A gold mine of gossip with a cast of thousands. GUARDIAN The unexpurgated diaries of one of the greatest most talented and wittily flamboyant characters of the 20th century with a new introduction by Stephen Fry. Compulsive reading. SUNDAY TIMES 19th February 1956 A.A. Milne has died. Lord Beaverbrook has not. Larry is going to make a movie of The Sleeping Prince with Marilyn Monroe which might conceivably drive him round the bend. 28th February 1960 Princess Margaret has announced her engagement to Tony Armstrong Jones. He looks quite pretty but whether or not the marriage is entirely suitable remains to be seen Noel Coward was a renowned actor dramatist director and star His incredible zest versatility and unrivalled wit are revealed in these diaries with a cast of characters ranging from The Beatles to the Queen Churchill to Marilyn Monroe Touching funny and revealing THE NOEL COWARD DIARIES is a superb account of one of the greatest entertainers of all time Bound to Happen Annie R
