Keepers Ali Power, 2016 Poetry Ali Power's A POEM FOR RECORD KEEPERS is a long poem made of short poems that comes on like a deadpan phalanx system unlearning itself while crashing resignation into the boards and pulling the rug out from under certainty line by line But certainty is not simply replaced by uncertainty an angular witty openness accumulates across Power's poem making it excellent company That openness also lends itself to the poem's capacity to build the kind of necessarily enigmatic space love requires to fend off the grinding mob vacuum that is contemporary American life these days Anselm Berrigan You could compare the way A POEM FOR RECORD KEEPERS works to the ways other things work locked groove records Lorine Niedecker's calendar poems waves but never for too long As much as Ali Power's poetry delights in forward motion and real speaking it also teaches you how to remain still and listen This is an ingenious biting elegant book To enter it is to feel squeezed by time and even if you want to as I did by hope Everything is just beginning It is and it does Then everything begins again right here Mark Bibbins The poet as one who maintains a history of one's activities The poem as record as in ledger one entry per every other line record as something we replay when it's a favorite These lines now live in my head They are strange enough to keep me on my toes familiar enough to seem like they are talking about me and everyone I know In fact I do want to hang out with this new book and its author Stacy Szymaszek How to Paint
