Savelsberg,2021-03-30 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of the University of Minnesota Learn more at the TOME website available at openmonographs.org How do victims and perpetrators generate conflicting knowledge about genocide Using a sociology of knowledge approach Savelsberg answers this question for the Armenian genocide committed in the context of the First World War Focusing on Armenians and Turks he examines strategies of silencing denial and acknowledgment in everyday interaction public rituals law and politics Drawing on interviews ethnographic accounts documents and eyewitness testimony

Savelsberg illuminates the social processes that drive dueling versions of history. He reveals counterproductive consequences of denial in an age of human rights hegemony with implications for populist disinformation campaigns against overwhelming evidence.

Julian Barnes from the Margins Vanessa Guignery, 2020-03-05 Exploring the archives of the Man Booker prize winning novelist Julian Barnes including notebooks, drafts, typescripts and publishing correspondence, this book is an extraordinary in-depth study of the creative practice of a major contemporary novelist. In Julian Barnes from the Margins, Vanessa Guignery charts the genesis and publication history of all of Barnes's major novels from his debut with Metroland through Flaubert's Parrot and A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters to The Sense of an Ending. Organic Supplements

Miriam Jacobson, Julie Park, 2020-11-11 From the hair of a famous dead poet to botanical ornaments and meat pies, the subjects of this book are dynamic organic artifacts. A cross-disciplinary collection of essays, Organic Supplements examines the interlaced relationships between natural things and human beings in early modern and eighteenth-century Europe. The material qualities of things as living organisms and things that originate from living organisms enabled a range of critical actions and experiences to take place for the people who wore, used, consumed or perceived them. Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro, 2020-05-11 In this book, Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation. He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation-building heritage projects in South Africa during the post-apartheid period. The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative, changing sensory worlds. Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses. Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials; how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state-sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria; how smell memories of apartheid-era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal; how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day; and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status. This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and, with its focus on aesthetics and material culture, is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities.

Letter & Spirit, Volume 3 Scott Hahn, 2007-09 This is the third annual volume of the remarkably popular journal of biblical theology edited by Dr. Scott Hahn. This volume features important contributions by Pope Benedict XVI, Cardinal Christoph Schönborn and Cardinal Avery Dulles. Also included are original and thought-provoking contributions on such topics as the biblical basis of indulgences, feminine and maternal images of the Holy Spirit in early Christianity and the image of God doctrine in St. Thomas Aquinas' writings. Hahn contributes a deep exploration of how the Gospel of Luke portrays Christ as the Davidic Messiah and the Church as the restoration of the Davidic kingdom.
