Curriculum Studies Guidebooks Marla Morris, 2016 Curriculum Studies Guidebooks treat the Post reconceptualization of curriculum studies This volume is about the intersections among curriculum studies history politics multiculturalism gender studies and literary studies This interdisciplinary book will be of interest to students studying history politics multiculturalism gender and literary studies as well Subjectivity, Curriculum, and Society Tero Autio, 2012-12-14 In this book Tero Autio traces not only the key philosophical currents that structure traditional Anglo American instrumental curriculum theory and Didaktik theories of curriculum which are lesser known in the U S but also the divide between them and implicitly the opportunities for traversing this divide Using careful historical and theoretical exposition to work through the tension between the two intellectual traditions he describes a different perspective one that counters the current move toward politicization and commodification Autio's articulation of the complexity intellectual honesty and educational value of theoretical breakthroughs over the past few decades especially in the American field of curriculum studies leads to a better understanding of the complicated nature of curriculum work as contrasted with the simplified demands of actual curriculum theory policy and practice worldwide This original work of great intellectual power and theoretical significance is an essential text for scholars in the fields curriculum studies philosophy of education and comparative education and for graduate level courses in these areas Provoking Curriculum Encounters Across Educational Experience Teresa

Strong-Wilson, Christian Ehret, Sandra Chang-Kredl, David Lewkowich, 2020 This book collects recent and creative theorizing emerging in the fields of curriculum studies and curriculum theory through an emphasis on provoking encounters Drawn from a return to foundational texts the emphasis on an encountering curriculum highlights the often overlooked pre conceptual aspects of the educational experience these aspects include the physical emotional and spiritual dimensions of teaching and learning The book highlights that immediate components of one's encounters with education across formal and informal settings comprise a large part of the teaching and learning processes Chapters offer both close readings of specific work from the curriculum theory archive as well as engagements with cutting edge conceptual issues across disciplinary lines with contributions from leading and emerging scholars across the field of curriculum studies This book will be of great interest to researchers academics and post graduate students in the fields of curriculum studies and curriculum theory
