No Other Gods Christian Belief In Dialogue With Buddhism Hinduism And Islam

Hisakazu Inagaki,J. Nelson Jennings

No Other Gods Christian Belief In Dialogue With Buddhism Hinduism And Islam:

No Other Gods H. M. Vroom, 1996 Christianity is no longer the dominant belief system in today's pluralistic culture. Eastern religions especially have attracted wide interest. Pressing the theological and dialogical dimensions of religious pluralism, Vroom offers a broad study of the views of Christianity, Buddhism, Hinduism, and Islam, especially their views on truth.

Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-12-09

Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin, 2002

Philosophical Theology and East-West Dialogue Hisakazu Inagaki, J. Nelson Jennings, 2021-10-25

Philosophical Theology and East West Dialogue is a unique philosophical and theological analysis of certain key interactions between Eastern and Western thinkers. The book, on the one hand, contrasts general traits of Eastern Buddhist thought and Western Greek thought. However, in doing so, it focuses on influential philosophers and theologians who manifest particular instances of wider issues. The result is a careful examination of basic questions that offers both broad implications and concrete specificity in its approach. The book itself is an instance of East-West dialogue. Independently of each other, both authors had previously engaged in serious cross-cultural studies. The Japanese Inagaki had researched Western science and philosophy, then written in Japanese comparative studies of Japanese thought. The North American Jennings had researched Japanese theology. They brought these backgrounds together, dialoguing with each other until the present study emerged. Several creative Japanese thinkers as well as important Westerners are taken up. The study follows the lead of many Eastern impulses but it also critically utilizes Western methods. Contemporary thinking on religious plurality is carefully examined. This new study is a must for those interested in philosophy and theology in general and East-West interaction in particular.

Theology between Church, University and Society N.F.M. Schreurs, Brinkman, Vroom, Wethmar, 2021-11-22

STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 6

Theology between Church, University and Society includes contributions to the international NOSTER conference Theology between Church, University and Society held in the Netherlands in June 2000. In the current academic world, theologians are often suspected of confessionalism, bias, and narrow-mindedness. They, in turn, try to regain respect by producing specialist historical, empirical, and analytical studies that are in line with other academic research. This retreat into neutrality renders them suspect in the eyes of their religious communities. Some churches react by reformulating their appointment policies and become more strict in order to secure the full loyalty of the theological staff of their institutions. Therefore, many theologians feel a conflict between loyalty to their tradition and loyalty to the academic world. Student populations have also changed considerably during the last few decades. Quite a number of students have a lively interest in religion but no religious affiliation at all. University teachers have to adapt to these new audiences, and faculties need to reorient themselves to reestablish their goals. This volume is concerned with these three challenges: academic, religious, and societal. In all of the contributions, the tension between descriptive research and normative theses or the relation between theology and society at large is discussed Not only are there descriptions of the structures of theological institutions in the Netherlands the USA and South Africa but also of the relations between churches and theological institutions and Vatican policy regarding theological faculties

The Non-Western Jesus M. E. Brinkman, Henry Jansen, Lucy Jansen, 2014-12-18 The centre of gravity of contemporary Christianity has shifted to the southern hemisphere where with the exception of Latin America almost all Christians are minorities in their home countries Christians in Asia live amongst Muslim Hindu Buddhist Shamanist or Taoist majorities and this context shapes the local Christian theology The same is true in Africa where traditional religions and beliefs influence African Christians Central to this change in both Africa and Asia is the creation of a new Jesus one who accretes local beliefs and concerns and who in that process is transformed The Non Western Jesus reveals how a new theology with its own images and concepts is coming into being A wide range of embodiments of Jesus is examined Jesus as Avatara and Guru in the Indian context as Bodhisattva in the Buddhist context and Jesus within Asian Chinese Japanese Korean African and Indonesian religious contexts

Christian Hospitality and Muslim Immigration in an Age of Fear Matthew Kaemingk, 2018-01-25 An alternative uniquely Christian response to the growing global challenges of deep religious difference In the last fifty years millions of Muslims have migrated to Europe and North America Their arrival has ignited a series of fierce public debates on both sides of the Atlantic about religious freedom and tolerance terrorism and security gender and race and much more How can Christians best respond to this situation In this book theologian and ethicist Matthew Kaemingk offers a thought provoking Christian perspective on the growing debates over Muslim presence in the West Rejecting both fearful nationalism and romantic multiculturalism Kaemingk makes the case for a third way a Christian pluralism that is committed to both the historic Christian faith and the public rights dignity and freedom of Islam

What is Mission? J. Andrew Kirk, How should today's Church shape its response to the Gospel How can we set about making disciples of all nations in our post Christian multifaith world What does mission mean in our times Here is a book that addresses these issues and many more with honesty and openness It strips mission of its old associations with colonialism and militarism It looks anew at the underlying theology reminding us that our task is God's mission not a human construct It explores key aspects of contemporary mission from the familiar such as the relation of mission to evangelism and to people of other faiths to the unusual and thought provoking such as mission and the environment justice for the poor and the overcoming of violence Students of mission and Christians who wish to engage with today's world to integrate faith and life will find here an inclusive comprehensive and lucid presentation of all the relevant discussions

Mythic Imagination Today Terry Marks-Tarlow, 2021-01-18 Mythic Imagination Today is an illustrated guide to the interpenetration of mythology and science throughout the ages This monograph brings alive our collective need for story to guide the rules roles and relationships of everyday life Whereas mythology is born primarily of perception and imagination science emerges from systematic observation and experimentation Both disciplines arise from endless curiosity about the workings of the Universe combined with creative urges to transform inner and outer worlds Both disciplines are located within open neural wiring that gives rise to uniquely human capacities for learning memory and metaphor Terry Marks Tarlow explores the origins of story within the social brain mythmakers and myths from multiple cultures and how contemporary sciences of chaos and complexity theories and fractal geometry dovetail with ancient wisdom The ancient Greek myth of Psyche and Eros is unpacked in detail origins of the very concepts of psyche and psychology Shaman and Sage Michael Horton,2024-05-28 The first volume of Michael Horton s magisterial intellectual history of spiritual but not religious as a phenomenon in Western culture Discussions of the rapidly increasing number of people identifying as spiritual but not religious tend to focus on the past century But the SBNR phenomenon and the values that underlie it may be older than Christianity itself Michael Horton reveals that the hallmarks of modern spirituality autonomy individualism utopianism and more have their foundations in Greek philosophical religion Horton makes the case that the development of the shaman figure in the Axial Age particularly its iteration among Orphists represented a divine self One must realize the divinity within the self to break free from physicality and become one with a panentheistic unity Time and time again this tradition of divinity hiding in nature has arisen as an alternative to monotheistic submission to a god who intervenes in creation This first volume traces the development of a utopian view of the human individual a divine soul longing to break free from all limits of body history and the social and natural world When the second and third volumes are complete students and scholars will consult The Divine Self as the authoritative guide to the spiritual but not religious tendency as a recurring theme in Western culture from antiquity to the present Theology within the Bounds of Language Garth L. Hallett,2012-01-02 In this wide ranging work Garth L Hallett offers a guided tour through fundamental issues regarding the use of language in theology His preliminary discussions on language and thought language and truth the authority of language making sense the relationship between sense and possibility prepare linguistic reflection on such topics as inference and argument universal factual and moral claims defining and saying what things are verbal versus nonverbal agreement and disagreement interfaith dialogue theological language and metaphor Hallett employs a wealth of distinctly Christian examples in these considerations including love faith God religion the Eucharist the afterlife divine law evil the Incarnation the Trinity the holy and many others In the course of this fascinating exploration readers should learn to find their way more surely in a vast complex terrain and mystery will emerge both diminished and deepened In addition at the end of each chapter Hallett provides a series of intriguing quotations that invite further reflection

Jesus Christ Donald G. Bloesch,2005-12-02 Focusing on the person and work of Jesus Donald G Bloesch goes beyond current reconstructions to probe issues of theological method models of salvation the plausibility of miracles the language of faith and the doctrine of sin John Hick's Pluralist Philosophy of World Religions Paul Rhodes Eddy,2020-08-26 This title was first published in 2002 One of the most fascinating and controversial interpretations of religious diversity is religious pluralism According to John Hick s model of religious pluralism all the world s great religions are equally valid ways of understanding and responding to the ultimate spiritual reality This book offers an exposition of and critical response to John Hick s model Introducing the various interpretations of religious diversity being discussed today this book presents constructive suggestions as to how things could be further developed to offer a more accurate less confusing presentation of the various options in theology of religions The standard threefold typology of responses to religious diversity exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism are explained and defended Hick s pluralist interpretation of religious diversity is traced culminating in a critical assessment of Hick s pluralistic model and an up to date summary of a variety of critiques directed toward Hick s proposal Paul Rhodes Eddy concludes that Hick s present model is ultimately unsuccessful in retaining both of his long cherished goals a robust religious realism and a consistent religious pluralism whilst overcoming the most difficult problem for the pluralist the fact that the world s religions understand the divine in often contradictory ways
