Missional Discipleship Partners In Gods Redemptive Mission:

Missional Discipleship Mark A. Maddix, Jay Richard Akkerman, 2013-10-29 Where does discipleship end and evangelism begin How does one fit with the other Joining the two together properly is a challenge Both are important and both are necessary Missional Discipleship offers a holistic vision that effectively incorporates discipleship with evangelism Thoroughly Wesleyan in its emphasis on God's ever present grace and the possibility of human response this approach demonstrates that education and formation go hand in hand with mission and witness Written by a cadre of scholars and seasoned ministers this book is an accessible resource to assist pastors and leaders as they introduce to their churches and small groups the vision of mission discipleship With topics ranging from service and compassion to discipleship and the family this invaluable guide encapsulates what it means to engage a community of faith in embodying the gospel and equipping Christians to participate in the restorative and redemptive mission of God in the world

Missional Discipleship Mark A. Maddix, 2013 Where does discipleship end and evangelism begin How does one fit with the other Missional Discipleship offers a holistic vision that effectively incorporates discipleship with evangelism

Missional Discipleship After Christendom Andrew R. Hardy, Dan Yarnell, 2018-03-14 It is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding Christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the West It is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional disciple making which will shape current and future generations of followers of Jesus to express the values of the Kingdom today This book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post Christian context Missional discipleship allows the missio Dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow Jesus today

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel

Balanced Discipleship Justin Campbell, 2023-03-09 The data is in more and more people are leaving the church We've worked hard at creating better programs better music and better sermons but it's not enough This is in stark contrast to the global church that is growing exponentially What are they doing differently What can we learn In Matthew 28 Jesus does not ask us to go into the world and make great church services he tells us to go into the world and make disciples Campbell takes a deep dive into the Great Commission exploring Jesus balanced model of discipleship and giving us practical tools to apply to our local church

Renovating Holiness Thomas Jay Oord, Joshua Broward, 2015-02-03 This book is a call for change Even more it calls for open conversation about change For too long many in the Church of the Nazarene have considered the doctrine of holiness off limits a sacred cow impervious to all forces of cultural modification and theological renewal It s time for a real change because the church needs renovation These 100 essays from Millennial and Xer leaders explore how holiness might be understood and lived today

Understanding Faith Formation Mark A. Maddix, Jonathan H. Kim, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2020-10-27 Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives biblical theological pastoral practical and global They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship Bible study and mission They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions

The Contribution of Love, and Hate, to Organizational Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, Debra Comer, 2016-11-03 The latest volume of Research in Ethical Issues in Organizations examines a range of contemporary issues in applied and professional ethics and explores the unique role of organizational ethics in creating and sustaining a pluralistic free enterprise economy

Cultivating the Missional Church Randolph C.

Ferebee,2012-10 Written from a post Christendom emergent worldview this books was born of a singular question asked in hundreds of ways What do we do to be faithful in this changed and changing reality Whether shaped by anxiety a foretaste of coming changes excitement or energy at the prospects of witness and service the future holds the question remains the same and the answers elusive Part one addresses church functions under categories of governance modeling collaboration champion catalyst mission covenant disciple change and leadership Part two offers further explication of the functions including books recommended for in depth study application ideas and further exploration of themes Christian

Education Freddy Cardoza,2019-11-05 This introductory textbook solidly situates Christian education in the church and ministry context of the 21st century With over 20 years of ministry teaching and leadership experience Freddy Cardoza is uniquely qualified to bring together a wide range of Christian educators This volume features the expertise of 25 evangelical scholars of Christian education including diverse next generation voices in the field It provides balanced biblical theological and practical perspectives for church and parachurch leaders equipping them to meet the ever changing needs of our world Additional resources for professors and students are available through Textbook eSources Neuroscience and Christian Formation Mark A. Maddix,Dean G. Blevins,2016-10-01 Why a text on neuroscience and Christian formation Simply put we need one that represents the range of possible intersections for today and into the future In recent years neuroscience s various fields of study have influenced our understanding of the person memory learning development communal interaction and the practice of education The book serves as an introductory textbook for Christian education formation professors to use in Christian education or Christian formation courses at the College or Seminary level The book is designed to provide an overview of how current research in neuroscience is impacting how we view Christian education and formation with particular attention given to faith formation teaching development and worship The first four chapters discuss how neuroscience broadly influences Christian education and formation Chapters five through eight explore how neuroscience informs specific formational practices from personal meditation to intercultural encounter to congregational formation and worship The last four chapters explore various aspects of neuroscience along developmental lines The book also moves from conceptual overviews to more empirical studies late in the text Each chapter of this book can also be read and discussed individually Each author has provided both discussion topics suggestions for future reading within neuroscience and discussion questions at the end of the chapter The Missions and Missional Purpose of Ephesians Timothy A. van

Aarde,2023-01-12 The purpose of the letter to the Ephesians is unknown The book suggests that the purpose of Ephesians is about missions and being missional The author of Ephesians committed the task of missions to the church The author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of God The redemptive plan oikonomia of God consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of Israel the mission of Christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church The term missional has been used ambiguously The existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of Ephesians. The mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 1:3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 4:6. The author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church; this is the mission of the church. He intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community; this is expressed by the missional church. The mission of the church has been grounded in the Great Commission. The missional church is grounded in the values, morals, and lifestyle principles set out in Eph 4:6.

The Core of the Christian Faith Michael W. Goheen, 2025-06-17. Discover a powerful approach to Christian formation and missional living. Internationally renowned author and speaker Michael Goheen offers a roadmap for Christian discipleship in today's complex world. In this accessible and transformative book, Goheen provides church leaders, pastors, and Christians with a comprehensive framework to reclaim the full power of the Gospel, understand the Bible as a unified narrative of God's redemptive plan, develop a deep missional identity, navigate cultural challenges with biblical wisdom. Drawing from years of speaking and writing experience, Goheen unpacks four critical components of Christian formation that equip believers to stand firm against cultural pressures, embrace their unique role in God's kingdom, and live out a holistic faith. Accompanying videos make this book ideal for group study and personal reflection. Whether you're a new believer or a seasoned Christian, The Core of the Christian Faith will challenge and inspire you to live out your faith with renewed purpose and conviction.

What Is the Mission of the Church? Kevin DeYoung, Greg Gilbert, 2011-09-08. Social justice and mission are hot topics today; there's a wonderful resurgence of motivated Christians passionate about spreading the gospel and caring for the needs of others. But in our zeal to get sharing and serving, many are unclear on gospel and mission. Yes, we are called to spend ourselves for the sake of others, but what is the church's unique priority as it engages the world? DeYoung and Gilbert write to help Christians articulate and live out their views on the mission of the church in ways that are theologically faithful, exegetically careful, and personally sustainable. Looking at the Bible's teaching on evangelism, social justice, and shalom, they explore the what, why, and how of the church's mission. From defining mission to examining key passages on social justice and their application to setting our efforts in the context of God's rule, DeYoung and Gilbert bring a wise, studied perspective to the missional conversation. Readers in all spheres of ministry will grow in their understanding of the mission of the church and gain a renewed sense of urgency for Jesus' call to preach the Word and make disciples.

Lessons from Laodicea Ross A. Lockhart, 2016-04-08. I'm rich and I don't need a thing, bragged the early Christians in the big city of Laodicea. The Apostle John, however, saw their affluence and arrogance through a theological lens. He declared them to be bankrupt, lukewarm Christians whom God would gladly gargle and spit out. Today, the mainline church in the West finds itself in a dominant culture of Laodicean affluence where even faith is a commodity to be consumed. While the gospel spreads and thrives in the global South and East, the Western mainline church looks longingly back at Christendom and forward in fear. As Christians living in a North American culture that highly prizes the unholy Trinity of individualism consumerism and secularism we require a new kind of missional leadership to pay attention to what God is doing in the world around us This book names the challenges and promises inherent in partnering with the Holy Spirit in order to offer missional leadership in a culture of affluence It is about both living in Laodicea and leaving it behind We are no longer in a Babylonian captivity but a Laodicean one This work helps chart a course for Christians who long to let go of country club religion and instead belong to a community that helps equip missionary disciples resistant to the dominant culture and resplendent in the love of our triune God Making Disciples in a World Parish

Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Missional Acts

Daniel McGinnis, 2022-01-14 What is Luke's main purpose in writing the book of Acts In this close study of the entire Acts narrative McGinnis analyzes Luke's story of the first Christians in light of ancient rhetorical conventions concluding that Luke presents his stories to strengthen the missional commitment and practice of his readers Missional Acts approaches a vast amount of varied mission content systematically dividing it into rhetorical instruction about missional stimuli structures strategies and suffering while using a body analogy to provide coherence Even the enigmatic ending of Acts intentionally advances Luke's rhetorical purposes Luke's teaching finds its culmination in the ministry of his archetypal missionary the apostle Paul whose missionary journeys are a Lukan masterclass in mission strategy with much to teach about ministry that transforms whole regions McGinnis rejects the traditional dichotomy that Paul is either a missionary or a prisoner and shows that throughout his work Luke depicts suffering as an integral part of the mission seeking to prepare his readers to face opposition of various kinds Missional Acts will help readers approach Acts in innovative ways by reading it through a primary missional lens The Missional Church in Perspective (The Missional Network) Craig Van Gelder, Dwight J

Zscheile, 2011-05-01 In this book two leading ministry experts place the missional church conversation in historical perspective and offer fresh insights for its further development. They begin by providing a helpful review of the genesis of the missional church and offering an insightful critique of the Gospel and Our Culture Network's seminal book Missional Church, which set the conversation in motion. They map the diverse paths this discussion has taken over the past decade, identifying four primary branches and ten sub-branches of the conversation and placing over one hundred published titles and websites into this framework. The authors then utilize recent developments in biblical and theological perspectives to strengthen and extend the conversation about missional theology, the church's interaction with culture and cultures, and church organization and leadership in relation to the formation of believers as disciples. Professors, students, and church leaders will value this comprehensive overview of the missional movement. It includes a foreword by Alan J. Roxburgh.
