Over Nine Waves A Of Irish Legends Paperback:

Over Nine Waves Marie Heaney,1995-07-13 These legends are the action packed stories of ancient heroes huge battles attempted invasions prophecies and spells clashes between the underworld and the real world abductions love affairs and feasts which have fascinated the Irish mind for more than 2 000 years Most of them have an extraordinary stark narrative sweep with a marvellous sense of detail Heaney writes directly and fluently with great tact and skill Sunday Times A Brief Guide to Celtic Myths and Legends Martyn Whittock,2013-10-03 A very readable guide which fills the gap between academic analysis and less critical retellings of the myths and legends Marytn Whittock provides an accessible overview while also assessing the current state of research regarding the origins and significance of the myths Since all records of the myths first occur in the early medieval period the focus is on the survival of pre Christian mythology and the interactions of the early Christian writers with these myths A wide ranging and enthralling introduction to Celtic mythology from the Irish gods before gods the Fomorians to the children of Llyr the sea deity from the hunter warrior Fionn mac Cumhaill whose exploits are chronicled in the Fenian Cycle to C Chulainn the Hound of Ulster and from the Welsh heroes of the Mabinogion to Arthur King of Britain though the mythical Welsh version who predates the medieval legends Cures of Ireland Cecily Gilligan,2025-03-04 Discover the enduring magic of ancient Irish folk remedies with Cures of Ireland a captivating journey into the heart of Ireland s healing traditions It s said that almost everyone in Ireland particularly in rural communities will know of someone with a cure It might be for the mumps a sty in the eye or a sprain Indeed the author of Cures of Ireland Cecily Gilligan was herself cured of jaundice and ringworm by a seventh son in her local Sligo during her childhood Cecily Gilligan has been researching the rich world of Irish folk cures for almost forty years and given the tradition has largely been an oral one has been interviewing a broad range of people from around the country who possess these mystical cures and those who have benefited from their gifts One has a cure for eczema that comprises herbal butter balls another buys warts from the sufferer with safety pins There are stories of clay from graves with precious healing properties and pieces of cords from potato bags being sent across the world to treat asthma While the Ireland of the twenty first century continues to develop at lightning speed there is something deeply comforting and reassuring in the fact that these ancient healing traditions while fewer in number do survive to this day Cures of Ireland is an exquisite book that will be treasured by many generations to come Geofeminism in Irish and Diasporic Culture Christin M. Mulligan,2019-06-12 Geofeminism in Irish and Diasporic Culture Intimate Cartographies demonstrates the ways in which contemporary feminist Irish and diasporic authors such as Nuala N Dhomhnaill and Tana French cross borders literally in terms of location ideologically in terms of syncretive politics and faiths figuratively in terms of conventions and canonicity and linguistically to develop an epistemological Fifth Space of cultural actualization beyond borders This book contextualizes their work with regard to events in Irish and diasporic history and considers these authors in relation to other more established counterparts such as

W B Yeats P H Pearse James Joyce and Mairt n Cadhain Exploring the intersections of postcolonial cultural geography transnational feminisms and various theologies Christin M Mulligan engages with media from the ninth century to present day and considers how these writer cartographers reshape Ireland both as real landscape and fantasy island traversed in order to negotiate place in terms of terrain and subjectivity both within and outside of history in the realm of desire The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, Stephen Butler, James Ward, Kevin De Ornellas, 2020-09-03 THE WILEY BLACKWELL COMPANION TO CONTEMPORARY BRITISH AND IRISH LITERATURE An insightful guide to the exploration of modern British and Irish literature The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature is a must have guide for anyone hoping to navigate the world of new British and Irish writing Including modern authors and poets from the 1960s through to the 21st century the Companion provides a thorough overview of contemporary poetry fiction and drama by some of the most prominent and noteworthy writers Seventy three comprehensive chapters focus on individual authors as well as such topics as Englishness and identity contemporary Science Fiction Black writing in Britain crime fiction and the influence of globalization on British and Irish Literature Written in four parts The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature includes comprehensive examinations of individual authors as well as a variety of themes that have come to define the contemporary period ethnicity gender nationality and more A thorough guide to the main figures and concepts in contemporary literature from Britain and Ireland this two volume set Includes studies of notable figures such as Seamus Heaney and Angela Carter as well as more recently influential writers such as Zadie Smith and Sarah Waters Covers topics such as LGBT fiction androgyny in contemporary British Literature and post Troubles Northern Irish Fiction Features a broad range of writers and topics covered by distinguished academics Includes an analysis of the interplay between individual authors and the major themes of the day and whether an examination of the latter enables us to appreciate the former The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature provides essential reading for students as well as academics seeking to learn more about the history and future direction of contemporary British and Irish Literature Ireland's Immortals Mark Williams, 2018-12-04 A sweeping history of Ireland s native gods from Iron Age cult and medieval saga to the Celtic Revival and contemporary fiction Ireland s Immortals tells the story of one of the world s great mythologies The first account of the gods of Irish myth to take in the whole sweep of Irish literature in both the nation s languages the book describes how Ireland s pagan divinities were transformed into literary characters in the medieval Christian era and how they were recast again during the Celtic Revival of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries A lively narrative of supernatural beings and their fascinating and sometimes bizarre stories Mark Williams s comprehensive history traces how these gods known as the T atha D Danann have shifted shape across the centuries We meet the Morr gan crow goddess of battle the fire goddess Brigit who moonlights as a Christian saint the fairies who inspired J R R Tolkien s elves and many others Ireland s Immortals illuminates why these mythical beings have loomed so large in the world's imagination for so long      The World Is a Waiting Lover Trebbe Johnson, 2011-02-08 Johnson explores the concept of the Beloved the elusive alluring force that beckons us forth to passionate engagement with the world and shows how our sense of love is often linked to something far greater than ourselves She explains that mistaking a human lover for the inner eternal Beloved is the first step in any romance yet the ability to distinguish between the two ultimately holds the key to our quest for personal freedom and fulfillment Steeped in Western and Eastern myth and romantic imagery The World is a Waiting Lover guides us through story and thought in order to discover passion Eros and our authentic selves It is a personal story and at the same time an invitation to explore our individual yearnings to live with fearless authenticity as we find more passion and meaning in our work relationships and view of the future      Wandering Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way Paul Clements, 2016-03-01 Following the spirit of the world's longest coastal driving route Paul Clements sets out to discover the real west of Ireland Along the way he encounters memorable characters living on the Atlantic edge and presents a unique portrait of their lives We meet the last man standing on a remote Galway island listen to the banter at Puck Fair and hear from a descendant of the original sixteenth century wild Atlantic woman Tagging along on his meandering journey is the swashbuckling presence of the Celtic sea god Manann n Mac Lir For his first travel book in 1991 Paul hitchhiked the same route Now retracing his steps along the Wild Atlantic Way this time by car and bike on horseback and on foot he looks at how Ireland has changed and realises everyone still has a story to tell Laced with wry humour and endless curiosity this is a distinctive mix of travel writing social history and nature Also by this author The Height of Nonsense The Ultimate Irish Road Trip Praise for this author Stacks of free copies should be sent to all our tourist desks abroad The Irish Times For sheer pleasure nothing I read beat Paul Clements The Height of Nonsense The Observer A compulsive educational laugh out loud read Sunday Independent A fascinating journey around the hidden corners of Ireland BBC Radio      Making Something Happen Michael Thurston, 2003-01-14 Poetry makes nothing happen wrote W H Auden in 1939 expressing a belief that came to dominate American literary institutions in the late 1940s the idea that good poetry cannot and should not be politically engaged By contrast Michael Thurston here looks back to the 1920s and 1930s to a generation of poets who wrote with the precise hope and the deep conviction that they would move their audiences to action He offers an engaging new look at the political poetry of Edwin Rolfe Langston Hughes Ezra Pound and Muriel Rukeyser Thurston combines close textual reading of the poems with research into their historical context to reveal how these four poets deployed the resources of tradition and experimentation to contest and redefine political common sense In the process he demonstrates that the aesthetic censure under which much partisan writing has labored needs dramatic revision Although each of these poets worked with different forms and toward different ends Thurston shows that their strategies succeed as poetry He argues that partisan poetry demands reflection not only on how we evaluate poems but also on what we value in poems and therefore which poems we elevate      Scottish Literature Alan Riach, 2022-05-30 What do we mean by Scottish literature Why does it matter How do we engage with it Bringing infectious enthusiasm and a lifetime's experience to bear on this multi-faceted literary nation Alan Riach Professor of Scottish Literature at the University of Glasgow sets out to guide you through the varied and ever-evolving landscape of Scottish literature A comprehensive and extensive work designed not only for scholars but also for the generally curious Scottish Literature an introduction tells the tale of Scotland's many voices across the ages from Celtic pre-history to modern mass media Forsaking critical jargon Riach journeys chronologically through individual works and writers both the famed and the forgotten alongside broad overviews of cultural contexts which connect texts to their own times Expanding the restrictive canon of days gone by Riach also sets down a new core body of Scottish Literature key writers and works in English Scots and Gaelic Ranging across time and genre Scottish Literature an introduction invites you to hear Scotland through her own words      Saltwater People Nonie Sharp, 2002-01-01 In October of 2001 the Australian High Court confirmed aboriginal title to two thousand kilometres of ocean off the north coast The decision which was the result of a seven-year court battle highlighted aboriginal belief that the sea is a gift from the creator to be used for sustenance spirituality identity and community This evocative study of the people of northern coastal Australia and their sea worlds illuminates the power of human attachment to place Saltwater People The Waves of Memory offers a cross-disciplinary approach to native land claims that incorporates historical and contemporary case studies from not only Australia but also New Zealand Scandinavia the US and Canada Nonie Sharp discusses various issues of indigenous heritage including land claims concepts of public and private property poverty and the environment Despite dispossession the aboriginals of northern coastal Australia never faltered in their devotion to the sea illustrating how profoundly such bonds are preserved in memory Their moving story of surviving and winning a lengthy court battle provides valuable information for all countries dealing with similar issues of rights to tenure and natural resources Sharp provides the first book-length study of an integrated statement on the many defining qualities of the cultural relationship of aboriginals non-aboriginals and the concept of ownership over the sea and illustrates the wisdom that different traditions can offer one another      Internationalism in Children's Series K. Sands-O'Connor, M. Frank, 2014-04-08 Internationalism in Children's Series brings together international children's literature scholars who interpret internationalism through various cultural historical and theoretical lenses From imperialism to transnationalism from Tom Swift to Harry Potter this book addresses the unique ability of series to introduce children to the world      Galway Bay Folk Tales Rab Swannock Fulton, 2013-06-12 From the saints of the Dark Ages to modern-day sinners Galway Bay is the source of some of Ireland's most magical tales In this book local storyteller Rab Fulton takes the reader through Galway's past recalling the myths and legends that shaped the area's history from the quarrelsome giants who in their rage created the Aran Isles to the corpse that flew through the air at the very first Galway Arts Festival Also featuring tales of magic swans miraculous nuns a city beneath the waves and a cannibal king this is a great companion for any visit to the county for fascinating days out and finding exciting treasure on your doorstep Signifying Place Sheila Gaffey, 2017-11-28 Through a socio semiotic analysis of promotional materials used by both producers of quality products and their support organizations this book investigates the use of imagery especially images of place in three contrasting regions of Ireland It highlights the role of place particularly rural imagery in the promotion of handcrafts and rural tourism services and suggests some of the meanings which may be contacted through the use of such imagery Much of the research to date in this field has concentrated on the use of imagery to promote particular places rather than products and in an Irish context on the promotion of Ireland as a tourism destination This book focuses on the regional and local level to examine the creation and use of more micro place specific images both real and mythical by small and medium sized businesses and explores the extent to which the two industries borrow from and feed into firstly each other and secondly macro place myths and iconographies The Darkness Echoing Dr Gillian O'Brien, 2020-10-01 The Irish Times Top 10 Bestseller From war to revolution famine to emigration The Darkness Echoing travels around Ireland bringing its dark past to life It's no secret that the Irish are obsessed with misery suffering and death And no wonder for there is darkness everywhere you look in cemeteries and castles monuments and museums stories and songs In The Darkness Echoing Gillian O'Brien tours Ireland's most deliciously dark heritage sites delving into the stories behind them and asking what they reveal about the Irish Energetic illuminating and surprisingly funny The Darkness Echoing challenges old accepted narratives about Ireland and asks intriguing questions about Ireland's past present and future My history book of the year Ryan Tubridy As thought provoking as it is informative and entertaining Irish Times Hugely enjoyable thought provoking and informative An essential read History Ireland Dingle and its Hinterland Felicity Hayes-McCoy, Wilf Judd, 2017-05-31 The tip of the Dingle Peninsula at the westernmost edge of Europe is one of Ireland's most isolated regions For millennia it has also been a hub for foreign visitors its position made it a medieval centre for traders and the wildness of its remote landscape has been the setting for spiritual pilgrimage This seeming paradox is what makes Dingle and its western hinterland unique the ancient native culture has been preserved while also being influenced by the world at large This rich heritage is best understood by chatting with the people who live and work here But how many visitors get that opportunity Starting with Dingle town Felicity Hayes McCoy takes us on an insiders tour of the region interviewing locals along the way ranging from farmers postmasters and boatmen to museum curators radio presenters and sean nos singers A resident for the last twenty years Felicity offers practical information and advice as well as cultural insights that will give any visitor a deeper understanding of this special place Iceland - Ireland, 2022-02-07 Iceland and Ireland two North Atlantic islands on the periphery of Europe share a long history that reaches back to the ninth century Direct contact between the islands has ebbed and flowed like their shared Atlantic tides over the subsequent millennium with long blanks and periods of apparently very little exchange transit or contact These relational and regularly ruptured histories discontinuities and dispossessions are discussed here less to cover again the well trodden ground of our national traditions Rather this volume productively illuminates how a variety of memory modes expressed in trans cultural productions and globalized genre forms such as museums cultures crime novels the lyric poem the medieval codex or historical fiction operate in multi directional ways as fluid transnational agents of change in and between the two islands At the same time there is an alertness to the ways in which physical political and linguistic isolation and exposure have also made these islands places of forgetting Stepping through Origins Jefferson Holdridge,2022-01-19 Since the eighteenth century landscape has played complex psychological and political roles in the narrative of Irishness entailing questions of memory family home exile and forgiveness In Stepping through Origins Holdridge explores the interplay of these concepts in literature For Irish writers from Swift to Heaney the Irish landscape has remained not only a reflection of Irish troubles but much like aesthetic experience a space in which the bitterness of family or national life can be understood if not entirely overcome Through deft analysis of works by leading Irish writers including Lady Morgan Yeats Joyce Louis MacNeice and Elizabeth Bowen Holdridge expands and enriches our understanding of how landscape has served as a palimpsest for both family and country connecting personal with collective memory localized places with their regions and individual with national identity A Study Guide for Eavan Boland's "Outside History" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study Guide for Eavan Boland's Outside History excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs The Globalization of God Dara Molloy,2015-11-10 Roman Catholicism was the first multinational corporation Preaching was the forerunner of advertising Roman Catholicism created the template for the spread of commercial globalisation through multinational corporations For global Christianity to succeed all local expressions of Christianity had to be suppressed These included Celtic Christianity For 800 years the Roman church tried to break the independent spirit of Celtic Christianity Despite being defeated in 1014 at the Battle of Clontarf the Irish Vikings through their urban bishops were key actors in the imposition of Roman episcopal structures of church throughout Ireland in the 12th century There was an invasion of Norman monks to Ireland which began in 1142 twenty five years before the military invasion in 1167 The ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland meant that a Roman episcopal and diocesan structure replaced the Celtic monastic structure Norman colonisers destroyed Celtic monasteries and replaced them with imported European religious orders Cistercian monasteries in Ireland were required to have French abbots and sometimes these were imposed by force no Irishman was allowed to become a bishop or attain any ecclesiastical high office St Malachy of Armagh betrayed his own Celtic heritage and was a key figure in bringing about the ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland Monotheism is the mythical container for globalization Humans will fail to return to a sustainable way of living on this planet until the mythological container of monotheism is replaced by new bioregional spiritualities that go beyond both monotheism and

polytheism
