Ovid Iv Metamorphoses S Ix Xv Loeb Classical Library No 43:

Medieval Mythography, Volume Two Jane Chance, 2019-11-15 The second volume in Jane Chance's study of the history of medieval mythography from the fifth through fifteenth centuries focuses on the time period in Western Europe between the School of Chartres and the papal court at Avignon. This examination of historical and philosophical developments in the story of mythography reflects the ever increasing importance of the subjectivity of the commentator. Through her vast and wide ranging familiarity with hitherto seldom studied primary texts spanning nearly one thousand years, Chance provides a guide to the assimilation of classical myth into the Christian Middle Ages. Rich in insight and example, dense in documentation and compelling in its interpretations, Medieval Mythography is an important tool for scholars of the classical tradition and for medievalists working in any language.

Sermons and Tracts from the Civil Wars (1646-1649) (Volume 18) John Owen, 2025-02-12 Edited for Modern Readers These Wartime Sermons from John Owen explore God's Judgment and Sovereignty. Regarded as one of the greatest theologians in history, 17th century pastor John Owen wrote extensively on holiness, Scripture, the Trinity, missions, and ecclesiology. His classic works, which have inspired Christian thinkers including Charles Spurgeon, J. I. Packer, and John Piper, remain influential but until now haven't been offered in an easy-to-read collection. The Complete Works of John Owen is a 40-volume project that brings together all of Owen's original theological writing, reformatted for modern readers. Volume 18 includes 5 sermons that Owen delivered at a time of civil war, addressing matters such as providence and toleration. Together, they outline his vision for a lasting settlement for both church and state. With extensive introductions by editor Martyn C. Cowan, this volume also includes outlines, footnotes, and other supporting resources. Edited and Formatted for Modern Readers. Presents Owen's original writing, newly typeset with insightful introductions, outlines, text breaks, headings, and footnotes. Part of the Complete Works of John Owen Project. This collection, which includes material not previously published, will release 40 hardcover volumes over a number of years. Perfect for Churches and Schools. Written for students, pastors, theologians, and those interested in the sermons of John Owen.

Ovid's Metamorphoses and the Environmental Imagination Giulia Sissa, Francesca Martelli, 2023-07-27 This book positions Ovid's Metamorphoses as a foundational text in the western history of environmental thought. The poem is about new bodies: stones, springs, plants, and animals materialize out of human origins to create a world of hybrid objects which retain varying degrees of human subjectivity while taking on new physical form. In bending the boundaries of known categories of being, these hybrid entities reveal both the porousness of human and other agencies as well as the dangers released by their fusion. Metamorphosis unsettles the category of the human within the complex ecologies that make up the world as we know it. Drawing on a range of modern environmental theorists and approaches, the contributors to this volume trace how the Metamorphoses models the relationship between humans and other life forms in ways that resonate with the preoccupations of contemporary eco-criticism. They make the case for seeing the worldview depicted in Ovid's poem as an exemplar of the premodern ecological mindset that contemporary environmental thought seeks to approximate They also highlight critical moments in the history of the poem's ecological reception including reflections by a contemporary poet as well as studies of Medieval and Renaissance responses to Ovid JACT Review, 1986 NAVIGATING CULTURAL IDENTITIES AND HISTORIES Alexandra BACALU, Andreea PARIS-POPA, 2025-01-01 This volume commemorates Mihaela Irimia a leading figure in British literature and cultural studies in Romania and a reputed professor at the University of Bucharest It puts together the most recent work of her frequent collaborators colleagues students and friends in a manner that reflects the fruitful territories areas of inquiry research questions and methodologies that her own work inspired the conversation between ancient and modern literary forms the complexities of the early English novel the paradoxes of Romantic poetics travel narratives city studies the history of ideas and its intersection s with cultural social and material history the fundamental paradigms of modernity and postmodernity and comparative studies The Enduring Legacy of Venetian Renaissance Art AndaleebBadiee Banta, 2017-07-05 Venetian artistic giants of the sixteenth century such as Giorgione Vittore Carpaccio Titian Jacopo Sansovino Jacopo Tintoretto Paolo Veronese and their contemporaries continued to shape artistic development tastes in collecting and modes of display long after their own practices ended The robust reverberation of the Venetian Renaissance spread far beyond the borders of the lagoon to inform and influence artists authors and collectors who spent very little or even no time in Venice proper The Enduring Legacy of Venetian Renaissance Art investigates the historical resonance of Venetian sixteenth century art and explores its afterlife and its reinvention by artists working in its shadow Despite being a frequently acknowledged truism the pervasive legacy of Venetian sixteenth century art has not received comprehensive treatment in recent publication history The broad scope of the topics covered in these essays from Titian's profound influence on the development of landscape painting to the effects of Carpaccio's historical paintings on early twentieth century fashion illustrates the persistence and adaptability of the Venetian Renaissance's legacy In addition to analyzing the effects of individual artists on each other this volume offers insight into the shifting characterizations and reception of Venice as a center for artistic innovation and inspiration throughout the early modern period providing a nuanced and multifaceted view of the singular lagoon city and its indelible imprint on the history of art The Journal of Hellenic Studies, 1985 Vols 1 8 1880 87 plates published separately and numbered I LXXXIII Joachim Wtewael Anne W. Lowenthal, 1995 The Dutch history painter Joachim Wtewael is widely admired for his astonishing small paintings on copper The Getty Museum's Mars and Venus Surprised by Vulcan is one of his finest works in this unusually demanding medium Though only eight inches high this Mannerist painting contains eleven figures in three different spaces captured in a dramatically charged moment from the famous story told by Ovid in his Metamorphoses The author's detailed analysis of Wtewael's painting also serves as a fine introduction to Dutch art of the Golden Age Illustrated with seventy reproductions of paintings drawings etchings and decorative objects Anne W Lowenthal's study ranges over the broad historical and cultural context in which Mars and Venus was created The War Trumpet Emiro Martínez-Osorio, Mercedes Blanco, 2023-03-30 The epic poems written during the rise of Portugal and Spain on the global stage often dealt with topics quite unimaginable to the likes of Virgil or Homer These poems reveal the astounding opportunities for upward social mobility and self promotion afforded by broader access to print and the vast amount of knowledge and material wealth accrued through maritime exploration Iberian poets of the period were quite cognizant of their ventures into uncharted territory and that awareness informed their literary journeys The War Trumpet features nine substantial essays that expand our understanding of Iberian Renaissance epic poetry by posing questions seldom raised in relation to poems such as La Araucana Os Lus adas Carlo famoso El Bernardo Arauco Domado Espejo de paciencia and Felicissima Victoria among others Particularly compelling are questions concerned with early modern understandings of the natural world the practice of poetic imitation the discipline of cartography or the reception of Petrarchism in the newly established viceroyalties of the New World Fostering a greater appreciation of the intersection between poetry war and exploration The War Trumpet sheds light on the transformative changes that took place during the period of Iberian expansion Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1980 Watermarks Leslie A. Geddes, 2020-08-25 An exploration of depictions and use of water within Renaissance Italy and especially in the work of polymath Leonardo da Vinci Both a practical necessity and a powerful symbol water presents one of the most challenging problems in visual art due to its formlessness clarity and mutability In Renaissance Italy it was a nearly inexhaustible subject of inquiry for artists engineers and architects alike it represented an element to be productively harnessed and a force of untamed nature Watermarks places the depiction and use of water within an intellectual history of early modern Italy examining the parallel technological and aesthetic challenges of mastering water and the scientific and artistic practices that emerged in response to them Focusing primarily on the wide ranging work of Leonardo da Vinci 1452 1519 at once an artist scientist and inventor Leslie Geddes shows how the deployment of artistic media such as ink and watercolor closely correlated with the engineering challenges of controlling water in the natural world For da Vinci and his peers she argues drawing was an essential form of visual thinking Geddes analyses a wide range of da Vinci s subject matter including machine drawings water management schemes and depictions of the natural landscape and demonstrates how drawing as an intellectual practice a form of scientific investigation and a visual representation constituted a distinct mode of problem solving integral to his understanding of the natural environment Throughout Geddes draws important connections between works by da Vinci that have long been overlooked the artistic and engineering practices of his day and critical questions about the nature of seeing and depicting the almost unseeable during the early modern period Library Catalog Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1960 Lectures on the Philosophy of Art Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel, 2014 Hegel gave lecture series on aesthetics or the philosophy of art in various university terms but never published a book of his own on this topic

His student H G Hotho compiled auditors transcripts from these separate lecture series and produced from them the three volumes on aesthetics in the standard edition of Hegel s collected works Annemarie Gethmann Siefert has now published one of these transcripts the Hotho transcript of the 1823 lecture series and accompanied it with a very extensive introductory essay treating many issues pertinent to a proper understanding of Hegel s views on art She persuasively argues that the evidence shows Hegel never finalized his views on the philosophy of art but modified them in significant ways from one lecture series to the next In addition she makes the case that Hotho s compilation not only concealed this circumstance by the harmony he created out of diverse source materials but also imposed some of his own views on aesthetics views that differ from Hegel s and that the ongoing interpretation of the aesthetics part of Hegel s philosophy has unfortunately taken to be Hegel s own This translation of the German volume which contains the first publication of the Hotho transcript and Gethmann Siefert s essay makes these important materials accessible to the English reader materials that should put the English speaking world s future understanding and interpretation of Hegel s philosophy of art on a sounder footing

Rhetoric, Hermeneutics, and Translation in the Middle Ages Rita Copeland, 1995-03-16 This book has a twofold purpose First it seeks to define the place of vernacular translation within the systems of rhetoric and hermeneutics in the Middle Ages Secondly it examines the way that rhetoric and hermeneutics in the Middle Ages define their status in relation to each other as critical practices introd

Ut pictura amor Walter Melion, Michael Zell, Joanna Woodall, 2017-11-06 Ut pictura amor The Reflexive Imagery of Love in Artistic Theory and Practice 1500 1700 examines the related themes of lovemaking and image making in the visual arts of Europe China Japan and Persia The term reflexive is here used to refer to images that invite reflection not only on their form function and meaning but also on their genesis and mode of production Early modern artists often fashioned reflexive images and effigies of this kind that appraise love by exploring the lineaments of the pictorial or sculptural image and complementarily appraise the pictorial or sculptural image by exploring the nature of love Hence the book s epigraph ut pictura amor as is a picture so is love

The Paradoxes of Posterity Benjamin Hoffmann, 2020-05-11 The impetus for literary creation has often been explained as an attempt to transcend the mortality of the human condition through a work addressed to future generations Failing to obtain literal immortality or to turn their hope toward the spiritual immortality promised by religious systems literary creators seek a symbolic form of perpetuity granted to the intellectual side of their person in the memory of those not yet born while they write In this book Benjamin Hoffmann illuminates the paradoxes inherent in the search for symbolic immortality arguing that the time has come to find a new answer to a perennial question Why do people write Exploring the fields of digital humanities and book history Hoffmann describes posterity as a network of interconnected memories that constantly evolves by reserving a variable and continuously renegotiated place for works and authors of the past In other words the perpetual safeguarding of texts is delegated to a collectivity that is nonexistent at the moment when a writer addresses it one whose nature is characterized by impermanence and instability Focusing on key works by Denis Diderot tienne Maurice Falconet Giacomo Casanova Fran ois Ren de Chateaubriand and Jean Paul Sartre Hoffmann considers the authors representations of posterity the representation of authors by posterity and how to register and preserve works in the network of memories In doing so Hoffmann reveals the three great paradoxes in the quest for symbolic immortality the paradoxes of belief of identity and of mediation Theoretically sophisticated and convincingly argued this book contends that there is only one truly serious literary problem the transmission of texts to posterity It will appeal to specialists in literature in particular eighteenth century French literature as well as scholars and students of philosophy and book history Singing by Herself Amelia

Worsley,2024-08-15 Singing by Herself reinterprets the rise of literary loneliness by foregrounding the female and feminized figures who have been overlooked in previous histories of solitude Many of the earliest records of the terms lonely and loneliness in British literature describe solitaires whose songs positioned them within the tradition of female complaint Amelia Worsley shows how these feminized solitaires for whom loneliness was both a space of danger and a space of productive retreat helped to make loneliness attractive to future lonely poets despite the sense of suspicion it evoked Although loneliness today is often associated with states of atomized interiority soliloquy and self enclosure this study of eighteenth century poetry disrupts the presumed association between isolation singular speech and bounded models of poetic subjectivity In five chapters focused on lonely poet figures in the works of John Milton Anne Finch Alexander Pope Thomas Gray and Charlotte Smith which also take account of the wider eighteenth century fascination with literary loneliness Singing by Herself shows how poets increasingly associated the new literary mode of being alone with states of disembodiment dispersal and echoic self doubling Seemingly solitary lonely voices often dissolve into polyvocal allusive community Worsley argues when in dialogue with each other and also with classical figures of feminized lament such as Sappho Echo and Philomela The book s provocative reflections on lyric mean that it will have a broad appeal to scholars interested in the history of poetry and poetics as well as to those who study the literary history of gender affect and emotion

The Life of Lambert Lombard (1565); and Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries (1572)

Dominicus Lampsonius,2021-11-23 Among the earliest written texts on the history and theory of Netherlandish art these two key writings are now available together in an English translation Dominicus Lampsonius s The Life of Lambert Lombard 1565 is the earliest published biography of a Netherlandish artist This neo Latin account of the life of the painter architect and draftsman Lambert Lombard of Li ge offers a theoretical exposition on the nature and ideal practice of Netherlandish art emphasizing Lombard s intellectual curiosity interest in antiquity attentive study of the human body and exemplary generosity as a teacher This volume offers the first English edition of The Life of Lambert Lombard complemented by a new translation of the inscriptions Lampsonius composed to accompany the Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries 1572 a cycle of twenty three engraved portraits of Netherlandish artists developed in collaboration with the print

publisher Hieronymus Cock Together The Life of Lambert Lombard and the Effigies established frameworks for a distinctly Netherlandish history of art Responding to a growing sense of Netherlandish cultural and political identity on the eve of the Dutch Revolt these texts proposed a critical alternative to Giorgio Vasari s Lives of the Artists and its Italian model of art historical development celebrating local ingenuity and skill They remain the starting point for any history of the northern Renaissance

Renaissance Miniature Painters & Classical Imagery Lilian Armstrong, 1981 This book is a contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in Northern Italy It is principally concerned with the work of two unnamed miniature painters active in Venice in the 1470s and 1480s a time of transition from manuscript illumination to the decoration of printed books in the classicizing style of the Renaissance
