All God's People Leslie J. Francis, Anne Faulkner, 1997. Will Our Children Have Faith? John H. Westerhoff, 2012-08-01. This classic critique of Christian education is revised, expanded and includes Westerhoff's overview on the state of Christian education over the past forty years. According to Westerhoff, instead of guiding faith formation within the family, the church and the school, we relegate religious education to Sunday morning classes. There, children learn the facts about religion but how will they learn or experience faith? How can we nourish and nurture the faith of children instead of only teaching the facts?

Studebaker, 2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America's decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation Multi-Faith Activity Assemblies Elizabeth Peirce, 2003-12-16 Packed with ideas for the primary school teacher this book includes stories songs and drama activities from six major world religions Christianity Buddhism Hinduism Islam Judaism and Sikhism The book is helpfully split into topic areas which include New Beginnings Places of Worship Friends Festivals Rites of Passage Water Themes Animals and Birds Inspirational Leaders There is also a useful section on background information with pronunciation guides for teachers for the different world religions featured Multi faith Activity Assemblies combines Elizabeth Peirce's previous books Activity Assemblies for Christian Collective Worship 5 11 and Activity Assemblies for Multi racial Schools 5 11 Taking the best ideas from both and adding new material it will be invaluable to headteachers deputy headteachers primary school teachers or any trainee teacher who is looking for a collection of assembly ideas that promotes tolerance and understanding of the multi faith society in which we live Seasonal Activities Gwen Costello, 2004 Children learn best when they are fully involved with the lesson With this in mind Gwen Costello provides brief to the point and creative activities for each season of the school year
