Cultures of Taste/Theories of Appetite: Eating Romanticism T. Morton,2004-01-16 Cultures of Taste Theories of Appetite brings two major critical impulses within the field of Romanticism to bear upon an important and growing field of research appetite and its related discourses of taste and consumption As consumption in all its metaphorical variety comes to displace the body as a theoretical site for challenging the distinction between inside and outside food itself has attracted attention as a device to interrogate the rhetoric and politics of Romanticism In brief the volume initiates a dialogue between the cultural politics of food and eating and the philosophical implications of ingestion digestion and excretion The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch, Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 2006 The Longman Anthology of British Literature: The Middle Ages David Damrosch, 2003 The Longman Anthology of British Literature is the most comprehensive and thoughtfully arranged book on the market Approaching literature from a broad cultural perspective the anthology offers a rich selection of fiction drama and poetry by major British authors The second edition of The Longman Anthology of British Literature includes key major additions of important works an expanded illustration program and new translation of Beowulf Fresh and up to date introductions and notes are written by an editorial team whose members are all actively engaged in teaching and in current scholarship and one hundred illustrations show both artistic and cultural developments from the medieval period through the 18th Century Perspectives sections shed light on individual periods but are also positioned to link with surrounding works Companion readings provide additional context for and special insight into key readings For avid readers of British Literature An Anthology of Russian Folktales Jack V. Read My Plate Deborah R. Geis, 2019-05-29 Whether perusing a recipe or learning what a literary character eats readers approach a text differently when reading about food Read My Plate The Literature of Food explores what narrators and characters in fiction in performance and in the popular genre of the food memoir cook and eat Beat poet Allen Ginsberg the inmates of the Terezin concentration camp performance artist Karen Finley novelist Jhumpa Lahiri playwright Suzan Lori Parks and the celebrated chef turned travel journalist Anthony Bourdain are just a few examples of the writers whose works are discussed Close readings of the literal and figurative plates in these texts allow a unique form of intimate access to the speakers feelings and memories and help readers to understand more about how the dynamics of race ethnicity gender religion and social class affect what the narrators characters eat from tourtiere to collard greens to a school lunch bento box

Hannibal Lecter and Philosophy Joseph Westfall, 2015-12-15 Sixteen philosophers come at Hannibal the way he comes at his victims from unexpected angles and with plenty of surprises thrown in Hannibal is a revolting monster and yet a monster with whom we identify because of his intelligence artistry and personal magnetism The chapters in this book pose many questions and offer intriguing answers about the enigma of Hannibal Lecter What does the relationship between Hannibal and those who know him particularly FBI investigator Will Graham tell us about the nature of friendship and Hannibal's capacity for friendship Does Hannibal confer benefits on society by eliminating people who don't live up to his high aesthetic standards Can upsetting experiences in early childhood turn you into a serial killer Why are we enthralled by someone who exercises god like control over situations and people Does it make any difference morally that a killer eats his victims Can a murder be a work of art Several chapters look at the mind of this accomplished killer psychiatrist and gourmet cook Is he a sociopath or a psychopath or are these the same Is he lacking in empathy Apparently not since he has a quick understanding of what other people think and feel Maybe what he lacks is a conscience
