Performance In Preaching Bringing The Sermon To Life Engaging Worship:

Performance in Preaching (Engaging Worship) Jana Childers, Clayton J. Schmit, 2008-11-01 This volume which launches the Engaging Worship series from Fuller Theological Seminary's Brehm Center for Worship Theology and the Arts offers a unique study of sermon delivery While many books offer advice on how to prepare write and preach a sermon this volume is distinctive in approaching the subject from the perspective of performance The authors who teach at a variety of seminaries and divinity schools across the nation examine how the sermon can bring God's word to life for the congregation In that sense they consider the idea of performance from a wide range of theological artistic and musical viewpoints These thoughtful essays will engage clergy and students with new ways of looking at the art of preaching Sent and Gathered (Engaging Worship) Clayton J. Schmit, 2009-10-01 Historic changes are occurring in the convergence of worship styles throughout the Christian church Christians across the theological spectrum are seeking to learn from their own tradition's roots and from the liturgical expressions of believers in other times and places Here worship expert Clayton Schmit examines worship in church settings around the globe and provides a practical manual for shaping liturgies that are informed by and relevant to contemporary missional contexts The book broadens current ecumenical worship conversations reveals insights drawn from the church at worship in the world and argues for a common understanding of a theology of worship

Preaching from Inside the Story Jeffrey W. Frymire, 2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle's foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching

Embodied Performance Sarah Agnew, 2020-09-22 Embodied Performance presents a methodology by which performer interpreters can bring their intuitive interpretations to the scholarly conversations about biblical compositions It may not be comfortable for scholarship is out of practice in listening to emotion and intuition It may not be the only way to bring the fullness of human meaning making into scholarly discussions It is a beginning as Sarah Agnew storyteller and scholar places herself as the subject and object under examination observing her practice as a biblical storyteller making meaning through embodied performance and develops a coherent method rigorously tested with an Embodied Performance Analysis of Romans Follow Sarah's story as she searches within Biblical Performance Criticism for such a method before determining the need to strike out in a new direction from within an already innovative field All biblical scholars are complex human beings making meaning through their embodiment their emotions their embeddedness in community Embodied Performance Analysis offers a way to attend to and incorporate the full range of human meaning making in our engagement with biblical compositions for richer discussion closer to the intent of the compositions themselves Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen, 2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life's contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort Digital Homiletics Sunggu A. Yang, 2024-04-30 Digital Homiletics demystifies the art of online preaching helping readers understand both the why and the how of engaging listeners via digital formats Sunggu Yang lays a concise and accessible theological foundation and then shares ten methods for effective digital preaching Readers will encounter concrete tips and advice for sharing God's word online whatever the dimensions of their electronic ministry Yang profiles each of the ten methods in Digital Homiletics with an eye toward general description homiletic theory practical tips final remarks and innovative attention to Details of the Style Who is involved Why might preachers employ this technique Where should it be practiced and when What content is best suited to each method The answers to these questions will help readers tailor their online delivery Throughout Yang helps us recognize the distinctive nature of the homiletical task when preaching to an online audience Nothing but the Best Hyveth Williams, 2018-01-15 US Senate Chaplain Barry C Black PhD Senate Chaplains Office S 332 The Capitol Washington DC 20510 He wrote I look forward to devouring your final chapters for I have been greatly blessed by what you had previously written I believe this will be a significant contribution to the homiletical literature combining scholarship and practicality as it is rarely seen helping to fill a void Dr Derek J Morris Director Hope Channel and former editor of Ministry Magazine published by the Seventh day Adventist Church and read by clergy of all faiths He responded This is the best work I have read by an Adventist author on preaching Its EXCELLENT Pastor Adrian Craig Australian church leader and internationally acclaimed preacher He said Here are a few preliminary comments about your excellent book on preaching In 321 pages you have packed full a comprehensive and detailed volume on the art of preaching One has to read and pause and absorb Your terse verse one liners and the illustrations are readily saleable Mummies dancing the description of the horse as it relates to the pace of preaching the Ravi illustration on page 99 and your

Delivering from Memory William D. Shiell, 2011-09-16 When the New Testament was read publicly what effect did the performances have on the audience In Delivering from Memory William Shiell argues that these performances shaped early Christian paideia among communities of active engaged listeners Using Greco Roman rhetorical conventions Shiell's groundbreaking study suggests that lectors delivered from memory without memorizing the text verbatim and audiences listened with their memories in a collaborative process with the performer The text functioned as a starting place for emotion paraphrase correction and instruction In the process the performances trained and shaped the character of the reader and the formation of the audience The lector's performance functioned as a mirror for the audience to examine themselves as children of God These conventions shaped the ways lectors performed Jesus Just as the New Testament reflects many titles for Jesus so the canonical form of the Gospels offers many ways Jesus was performed in the ancient world By interpreting through the eyes of performance we join a conversation that has existed since the formative stages of the Christian movement By performing with the ancient audience we shape the character of reader and audience through the emotions rhetorical figures and memories in the text We raise new questions about audiences in the ancient world and interpret stories through the ears of performance

Timing Grace Johan Cilliers, 2019-08-12 In this companion volume to A Space for Grace Johan Cilliers delves into some of the most profound theological underpinnings of preaching Drawing on his extraordinary depth and breadth of scholarship Cilliers examines the aesthetic qualitative and relational dimensions of sermonic time Faithful preaching he argues is an art of speaking the now of grace which is inextricably linked to past and future but is simultaneously a dynamic event filled with the revelatory presence of God Along with helpful reflections on pieces of visual art Cilliers provides numerous sample sermons as well as several detailed sermon analyses

Unspeakable Sarah Travis, 2021-06-09 Unspeakable probes the relationship between trauma theory and Christian theology in order to support preachers in the task of crafting sermons that adequately respond to trauma in the pews and the world at large How might sermons contribute to resiliency and the repairing of wounds caused by traumatic experiences This book seeks to provide a theological lens for preachers who wonder how their beautiful words can address suffering amid traumatic wounding Preaching is a healing discourse that proclaims gospel or good news Gospel is a complicated reality especially in the face of trauma Drawing on various theologies and insights from trauma theory Unspeakable challenges the notion of a triumphant gospel seeking an in between perspective that honors both resurrection and the trauma that remains despite our desire to get to the good news It builds on images of the preacher as witness and midwife in order to develop homiletical practices that acknowledge the limitations of language and imagination experienced by traumatized individuals

Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, Deborah F. Sawyer, 2008 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neo pagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focussed snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies

True Worship Justin Miller,2020-05-05 How is God to be worshipped In our modern context there are so many approaches people take to the worship of God both corporately as well as individually The greatest issue the evangelical church faces in our time is not the decline in the morality of our society or even the secularization of our Western context rather it is the forsaking of the true worship of God It is the neglect of living out a cherished doctrine of the reformation Sola Scriptura God is the object and consumer of worship Therefore his word given to us governs us in our worship of him The people of Israel are told by Moses in Deut 12 32 Whatever I command you you shall be careful to do you shall not add to nor take away from it The Lord Jesus told the Samaritan women in John 4 24 God is spirit and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth God spells out with crystal clarity how his redeemed are to worship him In True Worship we will explore what biblical worship of the triune God is and why it is crucial in our time and for all time

The Apostolic Congregation Dr. George G. Hunter III,2010-09-01 A church in the heart of Manhattan and a congregation among the Inuit people of Northern Canada would seem to have little in common with one another Yet in one way they are surprisingly similar They are both apostolic congregations churches whose every program exists for the purpose of presenting the gospel to non Christians and making disciples of Jesus Christ What is the secret of churches like these how have they learned to make evangelism central to everything they do In studying apostolic congregations around the world George G Hunter III has discovered a set of perspectives and practices that they all share With the passion and insight for which he is so well known Hunter demonstrates how your congregation can learn to focus on the one thing that most matters bringing people into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ The Christian Life ,1882
