Mirror To The Church Resurrecting Faith After Genocide In Rwanda:

Mirror to the Church Emmanuel Katongole, Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove, 2009-01 In 1994 the most Christianized country in Africa became the site of its worst genocide The tragedy was in Rwanda but what happened was a mirror reflecting the deep brokenness of the church in the West Yet by looking at what happened and why we can find hope for the global body of Christ

Reinventing Theology in Post-Genocide Rwanda Marcel Uwineza, Elisée Rutagambwa, Michel Segatagara Kamanzi, 2023 In the year 2019 Rwanda marked twenty five years after the genocide against the Tutsi Sadly Catholic priests and nuns were complicit or even participated in the killing of an estimated 800 000 ethnic Tutsis Thousands of people were slaughtered in Catholic Churches where they took refuge For example 5000 people are estimated to have been killed at the Ntarama Catholic Church in August 1994 In March of 2017 Pope Francis issued an apology remarking that the sins and failings of the Church and its members had disfigured the face of Catholicism This statement recognized that the Catholic Church's role in the genocide has implicated the entire Church and is an invitation to reimagine the very essence of the meaning of the Church theology in its multiple dimensions the missionary enterprise the mission of the Church and the place of human dignity in the Catholic faith The task of rethinking what it means to be the Church and restoring fraternal identity as Christians in post genocide Rwanda is thus crucial if theology is to make sense again This is particularly imperative in as much as theology is compelled to reflect upon the very evils that have disfigured the Church's image and people's identity namely the evils of sin suffering the indifference of bystanders the increasing number of genocide deniers the complexity of memory the lack of credible and prophetic leadership that invites a new way of thinking about theology This book brings together bishops theologians historians and other scholars to reflect on how the Rwandan Catholic Church can restore fundamental peace and rebuild lasting reconciliation

Being Christian After the Desolation of Gaza Bruce Norman Fisk, J. Ross Wagner, 2025-08-12 What explains the fervent support among America's Christians for Israel's murderous assault on Gaza's Palestinians Dying children cry beneath the rubble doctors testify to atrocities journalists and medics face sniper fire experts cry genocide Jewish Americans decry Israel's ethnic cleansing protesting college students jeopardize their careers Yet millions of Americans who profess allegiance to Jesus continue defending the desolation of Gaza or refuse to speak against it In these essays you will read stories and hear cries from Christians American Latin American Jewish Palestinian who have spent years listening laboring and praying for a durable equitable peace between Palestinians and their Jewish neighbors Their perspectives have formed over years in the land through lingering encounters hard conversations and troubling personal experiences Disagree with them if you must but first hear them out and consider why so many of Israel's Christian partisans have confused a love for the Jewish people with a defense of the apocalypse Israel has unleashed since October 7 2023 It may be too late to save Gaza's millions from starvation amputation displacement and death Is it too late to repent of our complicity Too late to save our own souls How should we be Christian after the desolation of Gaza Chapter

The Bible and the Ballot Tremper Longman, 2020-01-14 How to read the Bible on matters of public policy Christians affirm the Bible as our standard of faith and practice We turn to it to hear God's voice But what relevance does the Bible have for the contentious public policy issues we face today Although the Bible does not always speak explicitly to modern issues it does give us guiding principles as we think about how we might vote or act as political figures ourselves The Bible and the Ballot demonstrates the proper use of Scripture in contemporary political discussions Christians regularly invoke the Bible to support their positions on many controversial political topics gay marriage poverty war religious liberty immigration the environment taxes etc and this book will help facilitate those conversations Tremper Longman provides a hermeneutical approach to using the Bible in this manner then proceeds topic by topic citing important Scriptures to be taken into consideration in each case and offering an evangelical interpretation Longman is careful to suggest levels of confidence in interpretation and acknowledges that often there are a range of possible applications Each chapter includes questions to provoke further thought in individuals minds or for group discussion The Bible and the Ballot is a ready guide to understanding the Bible on issues that American Christians face today as we live within a pluralistic society

Blessed Are the Peacemakers Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2019-03-02 This book is a contribution to the Christian ethics of war and peace It advances peacebuilding as a needed challenge to and expansion of the traditional framework of just war theory and pacifism It builds on a critical reading of historical landmarks from the Bible through Augustine Aquinas the Reformers Christian peace movements and key modern figures like Dietrich Bonhoeffer Reinhold Niebuhr and recent popes Similar to just war theory peacebuilding is committed to social change and social justice but includes some theorists and practitioners who accept the use of force in extreme cases of self defense or humanitarian intervention Unlike just war theorists they do not see the justification of war as part of the Christian mission Unlike traditional pacifists they do see social change as necessary and possible and as such requiring Christian participation in public efforts Cahill argues that transformative Christian social participation is demanded by the gospel and the example of Jesus and can produce the avoidance resolution or reduction of conflicts And yet obstacles are significant and expectations must be realistic Decisions to use armed force against injustice even when they meet the criteria of just war will be ambiguous and tragic from a Christian perspective Regarding war and peace the focus of Christian theology ethics and practice should not be on justifying war but on practical and hopeful interreligious peacebuilding

Compelling Convictions Terry L. Brensinger, Jennifer Lancaster, Alan Robinson, 2024-06-25 A fresh look at our core values In the twenty years since a group of Brethren in Christ pastors educators administrators and laypeople first met to identify ten core values for the North American church much has changed including the continuing decline of the church in the west dynamic social movements for racial gender and economic justice vast advances in technology and a worldwide pandemic With so much happening on both the national and international stages it seems vital that we as Brethren in Christ prayerfully reflect not only on our core values and their application but on how those values might help our churches engage a dramatically new social context Are these values merely sentimental slogans Or do they constitute compelling convictions genuine guiding lights orienting us and motivating our mission in a rapidly changing world The answer to that all important question depends largely on how we use them In this forward looking book essays from Brethren in Christ pastors and leaders from across the globe call us into the future of the church to unleash our creative energies roll up our sleeves and put these core values to good use Prophetic Lament

Soong-Chan Rah,2015-09-03 The American church avoids lament but lament is a missing essential component of Christian faith Soong Chan Rah s prophetic exposition of the book of Lamentations provides a biblical and theological lens for examining the church s relationship with a suffering world Hear the prophet s lament as the necessary corrective for Christianity s future Trading Justice for Peace? Sigríður Guðmarsdóttir,Paulette Regan,Demaine Solomons,2022-03-01

Conflict in its various manifestations continues to be a defining feature in many places throughout the world In an attempt to address such conflict various forms of a Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC have been introduced to facilitate the transition from social conflict to a new dispensation The introduction and subsequent proceedings of TRCs in South Africa Canada and Norway are widely regarded as good examples of this approach Against this background a number of researchers from VID Specialized University and the University of the Western Cape had an exploratory meeting in Oslo in 2018 where the possibility for a joint research project under the broad theme of discourses on reconciliation was first discussed This led to two further research symposia in Cape Town and Troms in 2019 With the inclusion of specialists working on the Canadian Truth and Reconciliation process these meetings demonstrated common ground and a shared understanding of the issues at stake Moreover it pointed to the differences between the South African Canadian and Norwegian Commissions In comparing the South African Canadian and Norwegian experiences researchers identified that these countries were in fact at different stages of their respective truth and reconciliation processes This has prompted scholars to revisit and problematise these processes in relation to ongoing societal challenges In all cases it is quite apparent that reconciliation between individuals and groups remains a significant challenge Raw Spirituality Tom
