Consuming Books Stephen Brown, 2006-04-18 Big name contributors such as Malcolm McDonald Julia Kirby and Morris Holbrook First book to focus on marketing in the publishing industry Stephen Brown is a well known name in this sphere of marketing Selfishness and Selflessness Linda L. Layne, 2020-04-09 We are said to be suffering a narcissism epidemic when the need for collective action seems more pressing than ever The traits of Selfishness and selflessness address the proper and improper relationship between one's self and others The work they do during periods of social instability and cultural change is probed in this original interdisciplinary collection Contributions range from an examination of how these concepts animated the eighteenth century anti slavery campaigners to a dissection of the way middle class mothers experiences illustrate gendered struggles over how much and to whom one is morally obliged to give White Feminists and Contemporary Maternity D. Hallstein, 2010-03-29 This work explores matrophobia the fear not of one's mother or of motherhood but of becoming one's mother in past and present white feminist analyses of motherhood and mothering By tracing white second wave feminism's strategic choice to organize first as sisters then as daughters O'Brien Hallstein argues matrophobia became embedded in past and continues to linger in contemporary feminist analyses As a result contemporary analyses reveal crucially important but limited understandings of contemporary motherhood and mothering This important work concludes that matrophobia can be reduced and eliminated by reorienting analyses to mutual responsiveness between sisters and daughters second and third wave feminists The Maternal Tug: Ambivalence, Identity, and Agency Adams Sarah LaChance, 2020-02-01 While the existence of maternal ambivalence has been evident for centuries it has only recently been recognized as central to the lived experience of mothering This accessible yet intellectually rigorous interdisciplinary collection demonstrates its presence and meaning in relation to numerous topics such as pregnancy birth Caesarean sections sleep self estrangement helicopter parenting poverty environmental degradation depression anxiety queer mothering disability neglect filicide and war rape Its authors deny the assumption that mothers who experience ambivalence are bad

evil unnatural or insane Moreover historical records and cross cultural narratives indicate that maternal ambivalence appears in a wide range of circumstances but that it becomes unmanageable in circumstances of inequity deprivation and violence From this premise the authors in this collection raise imperative ethical social and political questions suggesting possibilities for vital cultural transformations These candid explorations demand we rethink our basic assumptions about how mothering is experienced in everyday life Birthered in Prayer Kim Barker, Leigh Harrison, Linda de Meillon, 2016-03-01 A hopeful grace filled companion for the 9 months of pregnancy Birthered in Prayer uniquely addresses and supports the spiritual journey of mothers to be As the authors moms say it s the book they longed to read but never found while they were pregnant Filled with lively thoughtful honest and been there stories this book deals with not only the emotional and physical facets of this overwhelming life experience but also the spiritual needs From the moment you know you re pregnant you enter a time of transition a time of waiting and preparing as you anticipate the arrival of the new little person who will share your life Pregnancy can be a God given stopping point an opportunity to reflect on our lives values and relationships to reevaluate our choices and priorities and to make some adjustments write authors Barker de Meillon and Harrison Even more importantly pregnancy can offer an occasion to draw closer to God and encounter God in a new way Each chapter includes honest humorous and touching stories questions to think about journaling prompts and prayer exercises Birthered in Prayer gives you a safe place to acknowledge your thoughts and feelings as you read wisdom from scripture and stories from mother sages It focuses not just on preparing for childbirth but also motherhood The authors invite you on a journey of awareness and growth that will build a strong foundation for your life and your family As Barker de Meillon and Harrison say it takes courage to become aware to encounter and be encountered by God And it takes courage to be a mother Phenomenology

Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed

Midlife Crisis at 30 Lia Macko, Kerry Rubin, 2004-03-18 At 30 Former vice presidential candidate Geraldine Ferraro was a stay at home mother Founder and CEO of Oxygen Media Geraldine Laybourne was working at a public interest think tank for teachers Political strategist Mary Matalin was a first year law student and about to drop out And months prior to her thirtieth birthday financial strategist and bestselling author Suze Orman was working as a waitress making 400 a month Decades later these Boomer women and many others have reached the pinnacles of their professions So why do Gen X Y women feel such pressure to have the perfect career body husband and kids by the time they are at or around 30 Why has 30 become such a make or break moment As the generation that came of age after the most visible glass ceilings had been broken Gen X Y women were raised to believe in futures without limitations Yet as journalists

Lia Macko and Kerry Rubin reveal in their fascinating investigation many women have distorted the well intentioned empowerment messages of their youth and are quietly blaming themselves when they fail to overcome the very real obstacles that still exist in our society Though many Gen X Y women are hitting the same roadblocks at the same time instead of questioning what s wrong with the system as Boomer women did in their twenties they re questioning their own choices Searching for solutions Macko and Rubin have enlisted the aid of the New Girls Club a group of successful satisfied women who ve lived through their own crossroads moments earned their battle scars and now share their stories and strategies While today s young women may indeed be a generation in the middle of a Midlife Crisis at 30 they now have a dream team of mentors to help guide them through it

Understanding Postpartum Psychosis Teresa M. Twomey,2009-03-20 Offering an understanding of postpartum psychosis this riveting book explains what happens and why during this temporary and dangerous disorder that develops for some women rapidly after childbirth Most of us are familiar with the baby blues a passing sadness that strikes 50 to 75 percent of new mothers after delivery And most of us understand postpartum depression a sadness post delivery that lingers for weeks or months for an estimated one in every 10 new mothers But a more serious form of disorder that strikes up to one in every 500 is postpartum psychosis triggering severe agitation confusion insomnia hallucinations delusions mania and possible thoughts of suicide or murder Every year women in the United States and around the world kill their babies children and themselves as a result of this mental illness Here author Twomey an official with Postpartum Support International gives us insight into the psychological personal medical legal and historical perspectives on this little understood mental illness which is both preventable and treatable While most women who suffer postpartum psychosis eventually recover without harming anyone they most often do so in silence Paranoia is a common symptom explains Twomey and that moves women to hide their symptoms from everyone around them The woman can hence appear normal but be putting both herself and her baby at risk We can prevent and treat this but we need to recognize it by better screening of women postpartum says Twomey

Confronting Postmaternal Thinking Julie Stephens,2012-03-20 There is a deep cultural anxiety around public expressions of maternalism and the application of maternal values to society as a whole Julie Stephens examines why postmaternal thinking has become so influential in recent decades and why there has been a growing unease with maternal forms of subjectivity and maternalist perspectives In moving beyond policy definitions which emphasize the priority given to women s claims as employees over their political claims as mothers Stephens details an elaborate process of cultural forgetting that has accompanied this repudiation of the maternal Reclaiming an alternative feminist position through an investigation of oral history life narratives Web blogs and other rich and varied sources Stephens confronts the core claims of postmaternal thought and challenges dominant representations of feminism as having forgotten motherhood Deploying the interpretive framework of memory studies she examines the political structures of forgetting surrounding the maternal and the weakening of nurture and care in the public domain She views the promotion of an illusory self sufficient individualism as a form of social unmothering that is profoundly connected to this ethos In rejecting both traditional maternalism and the new postmaternalism Stephens challenges prevailing paradigms and makes way for an alternative feminist maternalism centering on a politics of care
