The Mid-Atlantic Almanack , Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars

Dario Fo Tony Mitchell, 2014-01-08 The first and only full length critical study of Dario Fo the 1997 Nobel Prize for Literature Winner This book now extensively rewritten and updated remains the only full length critical study to cover various phases of Dario Fo s theatrical career It looks at Fo s political influences and also the influence on his work of various theatrical motifs including the great clown traditions which stretch back to the middle ages The political work of Dario Fo and his wife collaborator Franca Rame is charted from the 1960s up to the present to give the reader clear insight into this playwright performer s unique literary and theatrical strengths Each of Fo s plays and productions is discussed at length and the author has included an extensive and updated bibliography which includes full production details quotes and writings about Fo Always a popular performer in his native Italy Fo has been one of the world s most performed dramatists In the author s words he is the people s court jester

We Won't Pay! We Won't Pay! and Other Plays Dario Fo, 2001 Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature In the words of his translator Ron Jenkins The Nobel committee s decision to honor Fo as a master of literature is a historic tribute to the theatre which is still viewed by many as literature s bastard child it is also the first time that the Nobel for the literary arts has been awarded to an actor This courageous and controversial choice indirectly expands the modern definition of literature to include the power of the spoken word Volume One includes We Won't Pay We Won't Pay Elizabeth Archangels Don't Play Pinball About Face American Theatre, 2006 Dario Fo Suzanne Cowan, 1978

Diverse Pursuits Javed Malick, 2021-07-07 The five essays in this book reflect many years of the author s sustained academic engagement with dramatic forms and traditions The opening essay traces the historical trajectory of modern drama in Europe from its bourgeois period through the period of the liberal dissent to the more recent periods of radical alternative The subsequent essays deal with certain specific examples of that drama in India and the West such as Shakespeare adaptations on the Parsi theatre stage Habib Tanvir and Samuel Beckett The author places each of these in a historical perspective This approach constitutes the theoretical underpinning of the book giving cohesion to this collection of diverse essays Although they were individually published in various journals and books in their earlier versions they have been substantially revived and updated by the author for this volume This book is co published with Aakar Books New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
