Pennsylvania Politics Since 1960 Renée M. Lamis,2009-04-02 The political party system in the United States has periodically undergone major realignments at various critical junctures in the country s history The Civil War boosted the Republican Party s fortunes and catapulted it into majority status at the national level a status that was further solidified during the Populist realignment in the 1890s Starting in the 1930s however Roosevelt s New Deal reversed the parties fortunes bringing the Democratic Party back to national power and this realignment was further modified by the culture wars beginning in the mid 1960s Each of these realignments occasioned shifts in the electorate s support for the major parties and they were superimposed on each other in a way that did not negate entirely the consequences of the preceding realignments
 The story of realignment is further complicated by the variations that occurred within individual states whose own particular political legacies circumstances and personalities resulted in modulations and modifications of the patterns playing out at the national level In this book Ren e Lamis investigates how Pennsylvania experienced this series of realignments with special attention to the period since 1960 She uses a wealth of data from a wide variety of sources to produce an analysis that allows her to trace the evolution of electoral behavior in the Keystone State in a narrative that is accessible to a broad range of readers Her account helps explain why Senator Arlen Specter was reelected whereas Senator Rick Santorum was not and why Pennsylvania Republicans have been highly successful in major statewide elections in an era when Democratic presidential standard bearers have regularly carried the state Overall her book constitutes a gold mine of information and interpretation for political junkies as well as scholars who want to know more about how national level politics plays out within individual states New England Journal of Education ,1906 Year-book American Institute of Electrical
