People Need Know Confronting Counterpoints:

Introduction to a Negative Approach to Argumentation Julio Cabrera, 2019-10-25 This work deals with argumentation in philosophy In the affirmative view of argumentation each party thinks it is right while all other positions are wrong argumentation is seen as guided by a set of rules that should lead to the resolution of the dispute in favor of one party This book advances a critique of such an approach proposing instead a negative one the central idea of which is that each party organizes the elements of the problem concerning the definition of terms the assumptions to be accepted and the types of logical resources being used The negative approach attempts to modify the ethics of philosophical discussions moving towards pluralism a diversity of perspectives and the capacity to adopt a panoramic view where one's own posture appears only as one among others Argumentation is a ubiquitous matter professionals of all areas will have to argue to support their positions in diplomacy medicine or religion and in everyday life In any of these contexts the distinction between an affirmative and a negative approach to argumentation matters The book will particularly appeal to graduate and postgraduate students in philosophy psychology pedagogy and communication as well as the general reader interested in philosophy

Facing the Fiend Eva Marta Baillie, 2014-02-04 Satan is not a theological concept but a literary character Systematic and pastoral theology struggles with the existence of Satan and at the same time the devil inspires authors poets artists and musicians his true nature in art seems to be creative even though he is usually associated with destruction If we want to believe William Blake the true poet is of the devil's party without knowing it The various accounts of the devil in literature and art would certainly promote the theory that Satan himself is working on the side of the artist While the biblical canon leaves us with many open questions about Satan the literary canon gives more than enough definitions and interpretations of the devil Satan is a powerful literary figure the eternal adversary object and subject of the story Without any real substance he exists in the realm of the narrative being at the same time destroyer and creator Satan lends a face to what we experience as evil the absence of relation the exile of the soul the loss of identity the destruction of the other and the self

Counterpoint: A Memoir of Bach and Mourning

Philip Kennicott, 2020-02-18 A Pulitzer Prize winning critic's lyrical and haunting Alex Ross The New Yorker reflection on the meaning and emotional impact of a Bach masterwork As his mother was dying Philip Kennicott began to listen to the music of Bach obsessively It was the only music that didn't seem trivial or irrelevant and it enabled him to both experience her death and remove himself from it For him Bach's music held the elements of both joy and despair life and its inevitable end He spent the next five years trying to learn one of the composer's greatest keyboard masterpieces the Goldberg Variations In Counterpoint he recounts his efforts to rise to the challenge and to fight through his grief by coming to terms with his memories of a difficult complicated childhood He describes the joys of mastering some of the piano pieces the frustrations that plague his understanding of others the technical challenges they pose and the surpassing beauty of the melodies harmonies and counterpoint that distinguish them While exploring Bach's compositions he sketches a cultural history of playing the piano in the twentieth century And he raises two questions that become increasingly interrelated not unlike a contrapuntal passage in one of the variations itself What does it mean to know a piece of music What does it mean to know another human being

In Counterpoint Kristine Suna-Koro,2017-05-01 What does postcoloniality have to do with sacramentality How do diasporic lives and imaginaries shape the course of postcolonial sacramental theology Neither postcolonial theorists nor sacramental theologians have hitherto sought to engage in a sustained dialogue with one another In this trailblazing volume Kristine Suna Koro brings postcolonialism diaspora discourse and Christian sacramental theology into a mutually critical and constructive transdisciplinary conversation Dialoguing with thinkers as diverse as Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak as well as Francis D S J Martin Luther Mayra Rivera and John Chryssavgis the author offers a postcolonial retrieval of sacramentality through a robust theological engagement with the postcolonial notions of hybridity contrapuntality planetarity and Third Space While exploring the methodological potential of diasporic imaginary in theology this innovative book advances the notion of sacramental pluriverse and of Christ as its paradigmatic crescendo within the sacramental economy of creation and redemptive transformation In the context of ecological degradation In Counterpoint argues that it is vital for the postcolonial sacramental renewal to be rooted in ethics as a uniquely postcolonial fundamental theology Facing Postmodernity Max Silverman,2012-10-12 Facing Postmodernity explains French cultural theory by grounding it in the politics of the issues facing France today such as the breaking of the city racism the crisis of culture new citizenship It discusses some of the major responses to postmodernity by contemporary French thinkers both the very well known Lyotard Levinas Derrida and those who will be less familiar to a non French audience In doing so it addresses the questions central to the postmodern debate whatever country it takes place in questions of history of representation identity and community The Dynamics of Cultural Counterpoint in Asian Studies David Jones,Michele Marion,2014-02-19 Contributors give contemporary presence to Asian studies through a variety of themes and topics in this multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary volume In an era of globalization scholars trained in Western traditions increasingly see the need to add materials and perspectives that have been lacking in the past Accessibly written and void of jargon this work provides an adaptable entrance to Asia for the integration of topics into courses in the humanities social sciences cultural studies and global studies Guiding principles developed at the East West Center include noting uncommon differences the interplay among Asian societies and traditions the erosion of authenticity and cultural tradition as an Asian phenomenon as well as a Western one and the possibilities Asian concepts offer for conceiving culture outside Asian contexts The work ranges from South to Southeast to East Asia Essays deal with art aesthetics popular culture religion geopolitical realities geography history and contemporary times Facing the Other: Novel Theories and Methods in Face Perception Research Davide Rivolta,Aina Puce,Mark A Williams,2016-04-08 We rely heavily on faces during social interactions Humans possess the ability to recognise thousands of people very quickly and accurately without effort The serious social difficulties that follow abnormalities of the face recognition system i e prosopagnosia strongly underline the importance of typical face skills in our everyday life Over the last fifty years research on prosopagnosia along with research in the healthy population has provided insights into the cognitive and neural features behind typical face recognition This has also been achieved thanks to non invasive neuroimaging techniques such as functional Magnetic Resonance Imaging fMRI Electroencephalography EEG Magnetoencephalography MEG Diffusion Tensor Imaging DTI and Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation TMS However there is still much debate about the cognitive and neural mechanisms of face perception In the current Research Topic we plan to gather experimental works opinions commentaries mini reviews and reviews that focus on new or novel theories and methods in face perception research Where is the field at the moment Do we need to re think the experimental procedures we have adopted so far Again what kind of techniques or combination of them and analysis methods will be important in the future From the experimental point of view we encourage both behavioural and neuroimaging contributions e g fMRI EEG MEG DTI and TMS Despite the main emphasis on face perception memory and identification we will also consider original works that focus on other aspects of face processing such as expression recognition attractiveness judgments and face imagery In addition animal investigations and experimental manipulations that alter face recognition abilities in typical human subjects e g hypnosis are also welcome Overall we are proposing a Research Topic that looks at face processing using different perspectives and welcome contributions from different domains such as psychology neurology neuroscience cognitive science and philosophy The current Research Topic evolved over the desire to acknowledge the relatively recent loss of three giants in the field Drs Shlomo Bentin Truett Allison and Andy Calder We dedicate this Research Topic to them and their pioneering studies

Unfinished Music Richard Kramer, 2008-04-16 Unfinished Music draws its inspiration from the riddling aphorism by Walter Benjamin that serves as its epigraph the work is the death mask of its conception The work in its finished perfected state conceals the enlivening process engaged in its creation An opening chapter of this book examines some explosive ideas from the mind of J G Hamann eccentric figure of the anti rationalist Enlightenment on the place of language at the seat of thought These ideas are pursued as an entry into the no less radical mind of Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach whose bold idiosyncrasies like Hamann's disrupted the discourse of Enlightenment aesthetics Bach is a central player here his late music the subject of fresh inquiry In several chapters on the late music of Beethoven Bach reappears now something of a spiritual alter ego in the search for a new voice The improvisatory as a mode of thought figures prominently here and then inspires a new hearing of the envisioning of Chaos at the outset of Haydn's Creation aligned with Herder's efforts to come to an understanding of logos at the origin of thought The improvisatory is at the heart of a chapter on Beethoven's brazen cadenzas for the Concerto in D minor by Mozart another ghost in Beethoven's machine Music seductively unfinished is the topic of other chapters on some unstudied late sketches finally rejected for a famous quartet movement by Beethoven on the enigmas set loose in several remarkable Mozart fragments and on the romanticizing of fragment and its bearing on two important sonatas that Schubert left incomplete In a final coming to terms with the imponderables of musical intuition the author returns to Benjamin's epigraph drawing together his foundational essay on Goethe's Elective Affinities with Thomas Mann's Death in Venice and with a draft for a famous passage in the andantino of Schubert's Sonata in A 1828 Unfinished Music explores with subtle insight the uneasy relationship between the finished work and the elusive provocative traces of the profound labors buried in its past The book will have broad appeal to the community of music scholars theorists and performers and to all those for whom music is

Agustín-Aquino, Julien Junod, Guerino Mazzola, 2015-07-08 The mathematical theory of counterpoint was originally aimed at simulating the composition rules described in Johann Joseph Fux s Gradus ad Parnassum It soon became apparent that the algebraic apparatus used in this model could also serve to define entirely new systems of rules for composition generated by new choices of consonances and dissonances which in turn lead to new restrictions governing the succession of intervals This is the first book bringing together recent developments and perspectives on mathematical counterpoint theory in detail The authors include recent theoretical results on counterpoint worlds the extension of counterpoint to microtonal pitch systems the singular homology of counterpoint models and the software implementation of contrapuntal models The book is suitable for graduates and researchers A good command of algebra is a prerequisite for understanding the construction of the model
