The Other People C. J. Tudor, 2020-01-28 A gripping thriller about a man's quest for the daughter no one else believes is still alive from the acclaimed author of The Chalk Man and The Hiding Place An ID Book Club Selection C J Tudor is terrific I can't wait to see what she does next Harlan Coben 1 New York Times bestselling author Q Why are you called the Other People A We are people just like you People to whom terrible things have happened We've found solace not in forgiveness or forgetting But in helping each other find justice Driving home one night stuck behind a rusty old car Gabe sees a little girl's face appear in its rear window She mouths one word Daddy It's his five year old daughter Izzy He never sees her again Three years later Gabe spends his days and nights traveling up and down the highway searching for the car that took his daughter refusing to give up hope even though most people believe she's dead When the car that he saw escape with his little girl is found abandoned with a body inside Gabe must confront not just the day Izzy disappeared but the painful events from his past now dredged to the surface Q What sort of justice A That depends on the individual But our ethos is a punishment that fits the crime Fran and her daughter Alice also put in a lot of miles on the road Not searching Running Because Fran knows what really happened to Gabe's daughter She knows who is responsible And she knows what they will do if they ever catch up to her and Alice Q Can I request to have someone killed A If your Request is acceptable and unless there are exceptional circumstances we fulfill all Requests

The Political Bubble Mark Latham, 2014-08-01 Australians once trusted the democratic process While we got on with our lives we assumed our politicians had our best interests at heart Not anymore That trust has collapsed Mark Latham joined the Labor Party in the late 1970s hoping to improve people's lives through parliamentary service Twenty five years later the Opposition Leader ended up as disillusioned as the rest of us The scorching honesty of The Latham Diaries ensured he'd burned his political bridges but ostracism from the Canberra Club has its advantages In The Political Bubble Mark Latham is free to explore how parliamentary democracy has lost touch with the people it's supposed to represent As with most institutions at risk politics has become more tribal with left and right wing fanatics dominating formerly robust mainstream parties After the disappointment of the Rudd Gillard years Tony Abbott promised to restore trust in Australian politics but as with most of his promises it was dispensable The Political Bubble looks at the new government's policies how Abbott is adding to distrust not solving the problem What can be done about this democratic deficit Can our parliamentary system realign itself with community expectations or has politics become one long race to the bottom A brilliant analysis of Australia in the era of Tony Abbott and fanatical right wing politics ROBERT MANNE

The Race Is Not to the Swift Tu Ji Fun, 2019-11-14 Journey in real time with Steve a burned out Protestant minister as he babysits his daughter's classmate Adi Between the crowing of the school bell bookending the day spend six hours traveling with them on the written page or make your way to Vancouver and follow along by foot as they explore their neighborhood experiencing both the quotidian and fantastic By turns haunting and humorous The race is not to the swift is an original novel a moving meditation on the nature of time and memory and a playful experiment in durational realism each second in fictional time corresponding to a second in actual time Tu Ji Fun pushes the boundaries of what fiction can be and do in this incredibly inventive debut novel

The Fantastic Book of Everybody's Secrets Sophie Hannah, 2020-01-01 Everybody has their secrets and in Sophie Hannah's fantastic stories the curtains positively twitch with them Who for instance is the hooded figure hiding in the bushes outside a young man's house Why does the same stranger keep appearing in the background of a family's holiday photographs What makes a woman stand mesmerised by two children in a school playground children she's never met but whose names she knows well And which secret results in a former literary festival director sorting soiled laundry in a shabby hotel All will be revealed but at a cost As Sophie Hannah uncovers the dark
