Copyright Office, 1952 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, 1904 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries Comparing the Geological and Fossil Records Alistair McGowan, Andrew B. Smith, 2011 The past decade has witnessed a major revival in attempts to separate biodiversity signals from biases imposed by sampling and the architecture of the rock record How large a problem this poses to our understanding of biodiversity patterns remains debatable and new approaches are being developed to investigate this question Here palaeobiologists with widely differing approaches and interests explore the problems of extracting reliable information on biodiversity change from an imperfect geological record Topics covered range from the application of information theoretic approaches that identify directional causal relationships to an in depth study of how geological biases could influence our understanding of dinosaur evolution The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1878 The Anthropology of Modern Human Teeth G. Richard Scott, Christy G. Turner II, Grant C. Townsend, María Martín-Torres, 2018-03-15 All humans share certain components of tooth structure but show variation in size and morphology around this shared pattern This book presents a worldwide synthesis of the global variation in tooth morphology in recent populations Research has advanced on many fronts since the publication of the first edition which has become a seminal work on the subject This revised and updated edition introduces new ideas in dental genetics and ontogeny and summarizes major historical problems addressed by dental morphology The detailed descriptions of 29 dental variables are fully updated with current data and include details of a new web based application for using crown and root morphology to evaluate ancestry in forensic cases A new chapter describes what constitutes a modern human dentition in the context of the hominin fossil record Academic Films for the Classroom Geoff Alexander, 2014-01-10 Exploring a realm of film often dismissed as campy or contrived this book traces the history of classroom educational films from the silent era through the 1980s when film finally began to lose ground to video based and digital media It profiles 35 individual academic filmmakers who played a role in bringing these roughly 100 000 16mm films to classrooms across North America paying particular attention to auteur John Barnes and his largely neglected body of work Other topics include the production companies contributing to the growth and development of the academic film genre the complex history of post Sputnik federally funded educational initiatives which influenced the growth of the academic film genre and the denouement of the genre in classrooms and its resurgence on the Internet
