Watt, P. Smets, 2014-08-29 Contemporary city and suburban dwellers are constantly on the move Does this mean they lack a sense of belonging to their neighbourhoods or does enhanced mobility co exist with feelings of community and belonging This collection examines these questions through a unique series of neighbourhood based global case studies

The Everydayness of Cities in Transition Sonja Lakić, Patrícia Pereira, Graça Índias Cordeiro, 2024-09-06 Building on the notion of everyday ness as a conceptual tool and a study object in urban research this book presents 10 case studies describing and questioning how cities and urban spaces are lived experienced interpreted self produced and or appropriated The chapter authors Raffael Beier Patrícia Pereira Frédéric Vidal Elisa Lopes da Silva Priscilla Santos Graça Cordeiro Andrzej Bukowski Rianne Flock Sophie Zviadadze Rita Cachado and Sonja Laki analyse the dynamic interchangeable relationship between material and social dimensions of urban change through thought provoking ethnographic narratives Exploring the Transnational Neighbourhood Stephan Ehrig, Britta C. Jung, Gad Schaffer, 2022-10-13 Urban neighbourhoods have come to occupy the public imagination as a litmus test of migration with some areas hailed as multicultural success stories while others are framed as ghettos In an attempt to break down this dichotomy Exploring the Transnational Neighbourhood filters these debates through the lenses of geography anthropology and literary and cultural studies By establishing the interdisciplinary concept of the transnational neighbourhood it presents these localities whether Clichy sous Bois Belfast El Segundo Barrio or Williamsburg as densely packed contact zones where disparate cultures meet in often highly asymmetrical relations producing a constantly shifting local and cultural knowledge about identity belonging and familiarity Exploring the Transnational Neighbourhood offers a pivotal response to one of the key questions of our time How do people create a sense of community within an exceedingly globalised context By focusing on the neighbourhood as a central space of transcultural everyday experience within three different levels of discourse i.e. the virtual the physical local and the transnational global the multidisciplinary contributions explore bottom up practices of community building alongside cultural social economic and historical barriers Suburban Socialism Oly Durose, 2022-01-11 Reflecting on his own landslide loss in conservative suburbia Oly Durose asks how we can transform the urban outskirts of the status quo into centres of transformative change In December 2019 Oly Durose lost by over 25 000 votes as the Labour Party Parliamentary Candidate for Brentwood Ongar Revealing what it's like to stand on a socialist platform in one of the safest Conservative seats in the UK this book makes the case for socialism in the suburbs unveils the challenges of its electoral realisation and proposes a strategic revolution required to win Suburban Socialism asks what it would be like to bring white picket fences under collective control instead To convince suburbanites of this radical alternative inside the electoral arena this book argues that we must revolutionise our strategy outside of it From the aftermath of the Industrial Revolution to the shockwaves of the metropolitan youthquake socialism has predominantly been framed as an urban struggle Identifying the possibilities for suburban resistance this book offers a more geographically inclusive invitation to the socialist struggle revealing why the suburban struggle is global in scale Turning a suburb that shares from a hopeless fantasy into an electoral reality Suburban Socialism illustrates why the path to socialism around the world is through the heterogenous suburban terrain

Cohen and Watt consider the lessons that can be learnt from the London experience and aptly apply them to other host cities specifically Rio 2016 and Tokyo 2020. The Olympics are often described as a mega event in a way that assumes the host cities have no other existence outside before or beyond the contexts imposed by the Games themselves. In terms of regeneration the London 2012 Olympics promised to trigger a mega regeneration project that was different to what had come before. This time the mistakes of other large scale projects like London Docklands and Canary Wharf would be put right. Top down planning would be replaced by civic participation, communication and the local. This edited collection questions how far the 2012 London legacy really is different. In so doing it brings fresh evidence, original insights and new perspectives to bear on the post Olympics debate. A detailed and well researched study, this book will be of great interest to scholars of urban geography, sociology, urban planning and sports studies. The State Vivienne E. Cree, 2015-06-30 Many of the individual and social problems that are characterised as moral panics are in reality illustrations of a breakdown in the legitimacy of the state. This book picks up a number of case study examples: internet pornography, internet radicalisation, the Tottenham riots, patient safety and explores each through the lens of moral panic ideas, with an appraisal of the work of Stuart Hall, one of the key thinkers in moral panics. Reflexivity in Criminological Research Aaron Winter, 2014-10-06 This comprehensive collection contributes to advances and consolidates discussions of the range of research methods in criminology through the presentation of diverse international case studies in which contributors reflect upon their experiences with powerless and powerful individuals or groups
