Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun:

Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures

Essays in Architectural Criticism Alan Colquhoun, 1981 Preface by Kenneth Frampton Winner of the 1985 Architectural Critics Award for the best book published on architectural criticism over the past three years Since the early 1950s Alan Colquhoun's criticism and theory have acted as a conscience to a generation of architects His rigor and conceptual clarity have consistently stimulated debate and have served as an impetus for the pursuit of new directions in both theory and practice This collection of 17 of his essays marks a watershed in the development of architectural thinking over the past three decades comprising a virtual theory of Modernism in architecture In his earliest essays Colquhoun concentrated on themes that for him comprised the modernist attitude in architecture language typology and the structure of form His stance since then has consistently been to try to relate these issues to current practice and to analyze the nature of architectural expression in relation to culture Alan Colquhoun divides his time between England where he is a principal in the firm of Colquhoun Miller and the United States where he is Professor of Architecture at Princeton University An Oppositions Book

Modern Architecture Alan Harold Colquhoun, 2002 Collected Essays in Architectural Criticism Alan Colquhoun, 2009 Collected Essays in Architectural Criticism is an indispensable anthology of writing by one of the most important voices in architectural theory of the last 50 years Born in 1921 Colquhoun graduated from the Architectural Association in 1949 Currently Professor Emeritus of Architecture at Princeton University he has taught at the AA Cornell University and University College Dublin among many other schools of architecture He is the author of several books including the seminal Essays in Architectural Criticism 1981 Modernity and the Classical Tradition 1991 both republished here in their entirety and The Oxford History of Modern Architecture 2002 This book includes essays from throughout Colquhoun's distinguished career In his early writing Colquhoun subjects modern architecture to a far more thorough reading than was then customary His meticulous evaluation of Modernism raised the standard of architectural historiography and has influenced new directions in theory and practice ever since Collected Essays in Architectural Criticism encompasses the clarity of style and rigorous erudite analysis that Colquhoun has brought to bear on a diverse range of subjects including Le Corbusier Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown the Pompidou Centre Postmodernism and the design of museums

Tall Buildings Guy Nordenson, 2003 Accompanies an exhibition at MoMA QNS July 16 September 27 2004 Alan Colquhoun Tom Avermaete, Christoph Grafe, Hans Teerds, 2012 OASE 87 is dedicated to the thinking and the position of British architect Alan Colquhoun situated within today's debate on architecture criticism The issue presents not only the different themes that Colquhoun has addressed in his work but also the various positions that he has taken in his career scholar critic and practitioner Alan Colquhoun b 1921 has managed for decades to link his practical experiences with a particular way of thinking about architecture history and theory Colquhoun has been making his mark since the 1950s with constructive contributions to the discourse and the theorization of architecture He has written such trendsetting books as The Oxford History of Modern Architecture Essays in Architectural Criticism and Modernity and the Classical Tradition Colquhoun's work illustrates that architecture even today needs its own theory and cultural position Colquhounery Irina Davidovici, 2015 Colquhounery is a commemorative volume celebrating the life and work of the architect and architectural historian Alan Colquhoun who died in December 2012 Testimonials from friends colleagues and students are gathered together alongside original photographs sketches letter transcripts biographical and archival data tracing Colquhoun's career as an architect writer and educator on both sides of the Atlantic This anthology represents a collective effort to remember the work and the man responsible for some of the most penetrating and clear sighted architectural criticism of the last 60 years Texts by Mary McLeod Robert Maxwell Jacques Gubler Kenneth Frampton Edward Jones Tony Fretton Inderbir Singh Riar Stanislaus von Moos Barbara Weiss and others A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad, David Rifkind, 2016-12-05 1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects

Nelson Goodman and Modern Architecture Kasper Lægring, 2024-07-19 This book orchestrates a convergence of two discourses from the 1960s Nelson Goodman's aesthetic theory on one side and critiques of modern architecture articulated by figures like Peter Blake Charles Jencks and Robert Venturi Denise Scott Brown on the other Grounded in Goodman's aesthetic theory the book explores his conceptual framework within the context of modern architecture At the heart of the investigation lies Goodman's concept of exemplification While his notion of denotation pertains to representational elements often ornaments in architecture exemplification accentuates specific formal properties at the expense of others including color spatial orientation transparency seriality and the like Supplemented by findings from phenomenology the book traces these effects in buildings notably those by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Walter Gropius Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright all key figures in the critiques of modern architecture Employing Goodman's framework the book aims to address accusations of emptiness and alienation directed at modern architecture in the postwar era It illustrates that modern architecture symbolizes aesthetically in a fundamentally different way than architecture from earlier periods This book will be of interest to architects artists researchers and students in architecture architectural history theory cultural theory philosophy and aesthetics      After Modern Art 1945-2000 David Hopkins,2000-09-14 Following a clear timeline the author highlights key movements of modern art giving careful attention to the artists political and cultural worlds Styles include Abstract Expressionism Pop Art Minimalism Conceptualism Postmodernism and performance art 65 color illustrations 65 halftones      Modern Architecture and Climate Daniel A. Barber,2023-04-11 How climate influenced the design strategies of modernist architects Modern Architecture and Climate explores how leading architects of the twentieth century incorporated climate mediating strategies into their designs and shows how regional approaches to climate adaptability were essential to the development of modern architecture Focusing on the period surrounding World War II before fossil fuel powered air conditioning became widely available Daniel Barber brings to light a vibrant and dynamic architectural discussion involving design materials and shading systems as means of interior climate control He looks at projects by well known architects such as Richard Neutra Le Corbusier Lcio Costa Mies van der Rohe and Skidmore Owings and Merrill and the work of climate focused architects such as MMM Roberto Olgyay and Olgyay and Cliff May Drawing on the editorial projects of James Marston Fitch Elizabeth Gordon and others he demonstrates how images and diagrams produced by architects helped conceptualize climate knowledge alongside the work of meteorologists physicists engineers and social scientists Barber describes how this novel type of environmental media catalyzed new ways of thinking about climate and architectural design Extensively illustrated with archival material Modern Architecture and Climate provides global perspectives on modern architecture and its evolving relationship with a changing climate showcasing designs from Latin America Europe the United States the Middle East and Africa This timely and important book reconciles the cultural dynamism of architecture with the material realities of ever increasing carbon emissions from the mechanical cooling systems of buildings and offers a historical foundation for today s zero carbon design      Building Institution Kim Förster,2024-02-21 Building Institution chronicles the expansion of architecture as a profession and discipline in the postmodern era Kim Förster traces the compelling history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies which was active in New York from 1967 to 1985 Drawing on extensive archival research and oral histories he constructs a collective biography that details the Institute s diverse roles and the dynamic interplay between research and design education culture and publishing By exploring the transformation of cultural production into a practice as well as the culturalization and global postmodernization of architecture the volume contributes significantly to the institutional history of architecture      "Symbolic Essence" and Other Writings on Modern Architecture and American Culture William H. Jordy,University Professor of Art William H Jordy,Mardges Bacon,2005-01-01 The Symbolic Essence of Modern European Architecture of the Twenties and Its Continuing Influence this collection contains critical writings on works by Mies Corbusier Kahn and Venturi as well as one previously unpublished text Jordy leads readers to discover important connections of architecture with art literature intellectual history symbolic structures social purpose and community He significantly shaped the way we understand the character and meaning of modern architecture and American culture

Theorizing a New Agenda for Architecture: Kate Nesbitt, 1996-03 Theorizing a New Agenda for Architecture An Anthology of Architectural Theory collects in a single volume the most significant essays on architectural theory of the last thirty years A dynamic period of reexamination of the discipline the postmodern era produced widely divergent and radical viewpoints on issues of making meaning history and the city Among the paradigms presented are architectural postmodernism phenomenology semiotics poststructuralism deconstruction and feminism By gathering these influential articles from a vast array of books and journals into a comprehensive anthology Kate Nesbitt has created a resource of great value Indispensable to professors and students of architecture and architectural theory Theorizing a New Agenda also serves practitioners and the general public as Nesbitt provides an overview a thematic structure and a critical introduction to each essay The list of authors in Theorizing a New Agenda reads like a Who's Who of contemporary architectural thought Tadao Ando Giulio Carlo Argan Alan Colquhoun Jacques Derrida Peter Eisenman Marco Frascari Kenneth Frampton Diane Ghirardo Vittorio Gregotti Karsten Harries Rem Koolhaas Christian Norberg Schulz Aldo Rossi Colin Rowe Thomas Schumacher Ignasi de Sol Morales Rubi Bernard Tschumi Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown and Anthony Vidler A bibliography and notes on all the contributors are also included

Convergence: An Architectural Agenda for Energy Kiel Moe, 2013-07-31 Convergence is based on the thermodynamic premise that architecture should maximize its ecological and architectural power No matter how paradoxical it might initially seem architects should maximize energy intake maximize energy use and maximize energy feedback and reinforcement This presumes that the necessary excess of architecture is in fact an architect's greatest asset when it comes to an agenda for energy not a liability But how do we start to understand the full range of eco thermodynamic principles which need to be engaged with in order to achieve this Kiel Moe explicates three factors materials energy systems and amortization When these three factors converge through design the resulting buildings begin to perform in complex if not subtle ways By drawing on a range of architectural thermodynamic and ecological sources as well as illustrated and well designed case studies the author shows what architecture stands to gain by simultaneously maximizing the architectural and ecological power of buildings

Complexity Andrea Gleiniger, Georg Vrachliotis, 2012-11-05 Digitalization has transformed the discourse of architecture that discourse is now defined by a wealth of new terms and concepts that previously either had no meaning or had different meanings in the context of architectural theory and design Its concepts and strategies are increasingly shaped by influences emerging at the intersection with scientific and cultural notions from modern information technology The series Context Architecture seeks to take a critical selection of concepts that play a vital role in the current discourse and put them up for discussion When Vitruvius described the architect as a uomo universale he gave rise to the architect's conception of him or herself as a generalist who shapes a complex reality The architectural concept of complexity however failed to keep pace with industrial and social reality becoming instead an increasingly formal and superficial notion that could ultimately be applied to almost anything Against it architectural modernism set the watchword of simplification less is more In this situation Robert Venturi reintroduced the notion of complexity into architectural discourse his goal was not just to restore the complexity of architectonic forms and their history but also to explore the concrete reality of the existing built environment Today it is complexity studies with their starting point in physics that define the current approach to the concept of complexity They have established a new connection between the natural sciences and information technology and have thus become a central premise of computer based approaches to design Echo's Chambers Joseph L.

Clarke,2021-06-08 A room s acoustic character seems at once the most technical and the most mystical of concerns Since the early Enlightenment European architects have systematically endeavored to represent and control the propagation of sound in large interior spaces Their work has been informed by the science of sound but has also been entangled with debates on style visualization techniques performance practices and the expansion of the listening public Echo s Chambers explores how architectural experimentation from the seventeenth through the mid twentieth centuries laid the groundwork for concepts of acoustic space that are widely embraced in contemporary culture It focuses on the role of echo and reverberation in the architecture of Pierre Patte Claude Nicolas Ledoux Carl Ferdinand Langhans and Le Corbusier as well as the influential acoustic ideas of Athanasius Kircher Richard Wagner and Marshall McLuhan Drawing on interdisciplinary theories of media and auditory culture Joseph L Clarke reveals how architecture has impacted the ways we continue to listen to talk about and creatively manipulate sound in the physical environment Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06

How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice _ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Nineteenth-century American Art Barbara S. Groseclose,2000 Many well known artists including

Thomas Eakins and Winslow Homer and lesser known artists like Harriet Hosmer are closely examined as is the art world of the time In addition to discussing the free movement of American visual culture between high and low Barbara Groseclose interweaves nineteenth century art criticism with current art history to create a fascinating insight into the changing interpretations of American art of this period BOOK JACKET The Architect as Magician Albert C. Smith,Kendra Schank Smith,2020-05-07 The Architect as Magician explores the connection between magic and architecture There is a belief that a greater understanding of the meaning of magic provides insights about architecture and architects design processes Architects influence the effects of nature through the making of their buildings In an analogous condition magicians perform rituals in an attempt to influence the forces of nature This book argues that architects could gain much by incorporating ideas from magic into their design process The book demonstrates through historical and current examples the important influence magic has had on the practice of architecture The authors explain how magic helps us to understand the way we infuse architecture with meaning and how magic affects and inspires architectural creation Aimed at architects students scholars and researchers The Architect as Magician helps readers discover the ambiguous and spiritual elements in their design process
