Modern Architecture In Czechoslovakia And Other Writings Texts And Documents:

Modern Architecture in Czechoslovakia and Other Writings Karel Teige, 2000 This series offers a range of heretofore unavailable writings in English translation on the subjects of art architecture and aesthetics Teige's principal work on modernism now in English for the first time is supplemented by a selection of his other writings on art and architecture

Adolf Loos Joseph Masheck, 2013-03-21 Widely regarded as one of the most significant prophets of modern architecture Adolf Loos was a celebrity in his own day His work was emblematic of the turn of the century generation that was torn between the traditional culture of the nineteenth century and the innovative modernism of the twentieth His essay Ornament and Crime equated superfluous ornament and decorative arts with tattooing in an attempt to tell modern Europeans that they should know better But the negation of ornament was supposed to reveal not negate good style and an incorrigible ironist has been taken too literally in denying architecture as a fine art Without normalizing his edgy radicality Masheck argues that Loos masterful astylistic architecture was an appreciation of tradition and utility and not as most architectural historians have argued a mere repudiation of the florid style of the Vienna Secession Masheck reads Loos as a witty ironic rhetorician who has all too often been taken at face value Far from being the anti architect of the modern era Masheck's Loos is an unruly yet integrally canonical artist architect He believed in culture comfort intimacy and privacy and advocated the evolution of artful architecture This is a brilliantly written revisionist reading of a perennially popular architect

Restaurants and Dining Rooms Franziska Bollerey, Christoph Grafe, 2019-03-26 According to urban academic myth the first restaurants emerged in the wake of the French Revolution From the very beginning in the elegant salons of the latter days of the Ancien R gime the design of restaurants has been closely related to ideas of how food should be presented and how it may be consumed in public The appearance and atmosphere created by restaurant owners reflects culturally embedded ideals of comfort sociability and the good life As a product of the modern metropolis the restaurant encapsulates and illustrates the profound change in how its patrons viewed themselves as individuals how they used their cities and how they met friends or business partners over a meal The architectural design of environments for the consumption of food necessarily involves an exploration and a manipulation of the human experience of space It reflects ideas about public and private behaviour for which the restaurant offers a stage Famous architects were commissioned to provide designs for restaurants in order to lure in an ever more demanding urban clientele The interior designs of restaurants were often employed to present this particular aspect in consciously evoking an imagery of sophisticated modernity This book presents the restaurant its cultural and typological history as it evolved over time In this unique combination it provides valuable knowledge for designers and students of design and for everyone interested in the cultural history of the modern metropolis

Bosnia and the Destruction of Cultural Heritage Helen Walasek, contributions by Richard Carlton, Amra

Hadžimuhamedović, Valery Perry, Tina Wik, 2016-03-03 The massive intentional destruction of cultural heritage during the 1992 1995 Bosnian War targeting a historically diverse identity provoked global condemnation and became a seminal marker in the discourse on cultural heritage It prompted an urgent reassessment of how cultural property could be protected in times of conflict and led to a more definitive recognition in international humanitarian law that destruction of a people s cultural heritage is an aspect of genocide Yet surprisingly little has been published on the subject This wide ranging book provides the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the destruction of Bosnia Herzegovina s cultural heritage and its far reaching impact Scrutinizing the responses of the international community during the war including bodies like UNESCO and the Council of Europe the volume also analyses how after the conflict ended external agendas impinged on heritage reconstruction to the detriment of the broader peace process and refugee return It assesses implementation of Annex 8 of the Dayton Peace Agreement a unique attempt to address the devastation to Bosnia s cultural heritage and examines the treatment of war crimes involving cultural property at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former
