Mediterranean Art and Education John Baldacchino, Raphael Vella, 2013-11-19 The Mediterranean is a multifaceted conglomeration of parts that cannot be assembled into a whole Its various histories characterised by imperial and nationalistic aspirations imbalances of power and economies political struggles diverse cultural religious and linguistic realities as well as the countless myths spawned by people over the ages all contribute to the world's fascination with this region and simultaneously make it difficult for anyone to speak sensibly about it without resorting to the plural form the Mediterraneans So can we speak of a Mediterranean pedagogy of the arts The authors in this volume argue in different ways that the answer to this question cannot be carved out of a singular monolithic interpretation of the region Instead we need to look for provisional answers in the region s dynamic developments historic and contemporary exchanges of ideas and cultural codes and in the shifting nature of a sea that invites journeying inquisitive people to discover new routes The cover image La fen tre int rieur e is by the French photographer S bastien Cailleux and shows a multiple exposure portrait of a child and her drawing created during a workshop called Dessine moi la M diterran e organised by L cole d Art au Village Edaav at the Museum of Illumination Miniatures and Calligraphy at the Casbah in Algiers Art Book News Annual, volume 4: 2008Art Book News Annual, volume 4: 2008 ,

Modernism Between Benjamin and Goethe Matthew Charles,2019-12-12 Widely regarded as one of the foremost cultural critics of the last century Walter Benjamin s relation to Modernism has largely been understood in the context of his reception of the aesthetic theories of Early German Romanticism and his associated interest in avant garde Surrealism But this Romantic understanding only gives half the picture Running through Benjamin s thought is also a critique of Romanticism developed in conjunction with a positive engagement with the philosophical artistic and historical writings of J W von Goethe In demonstrating the significance of these Goethean elements this book challenges the dominant understanding of Benjamin s philosophy as essentially Romantic and instead proposes that Goethe s Classicism conceived as the counterpoint to Romanticism permits a corrective to the latter s deficiencies Benjamin s Modernist concept of criticism it is argued is constituted in the movement between these polarities of Romanticism and Classicism Conversely placing Goethe s Classicism in relation to Benjamin s practice of literary criticism reveals historical tensions with Romanticism that constitute the untimely indeed it will be argued cinematic Modernism of his work Adopting a transcritical approach this book alternates between Benjamin and Goethe in relation to the experiences of colour language and technology assembling a constellation of philosophical and artistic figures between them including the writings of Kant Nietzsche Cohen Deleuze Koselleck Klages and the work of Gr newald Mar es Klee Turner Hulme Eisenstein Tretyakov and Murnau Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art Simonetta Moro,2021-07-29 Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art defines a new cartographic aesthetic or what Simonetta Moro calls carto aesthetics as a key to interpreting specific phenomena in modern and contemporary art through the concept of poetic cartography The problem of mapping although indebted to the spatial turn of poststructuralist philosophy is reconstructed as hermeneutics while exposing the nexus between topology space time and memory The book posits that the emergence of mapping as a ubiquitous theme in contemporary art can be attributed to the power of the cartographic model to constitute multiple worldviews that can be seen as paradigmatic of the post modern and contemporary condition This book will be of particular interest to scholars in art history art theory aesthetics and cartography The Making of Modern Muslim Selves through Architecture Farhan S. Karim,Patricia Blessing,2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation citizenship cities and architecture It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora Essays in this book seeks to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define enable obstruct accumulate and or control flows able to disrupt bounded territories or identities More generally the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series timely reassessment of some of the most daring projects of abstraction from South America Emphasizing the open ended and self critical nature of the projects of abstraction in South America from the 1930s through the mid 1960s this important new volume focuses on the artistic practices of Joaquín Torres García Tomás Maldonado Alejandro Otero and Lygia Clark Megan A Sullivan positions the adoption of modernist abstraction by South American artists as part of a larger critique of the economic and social transformations caused by Latin America's state led programs of rapid industrialization Sullivan thoughtfully explores the diverse ways this skepticism of modernization and social and political change was expressed Ultimately the book makes it clear that abstraction in South America was understood not as an artistic style to be followed but as a means to imagine a universalist mode of art a catalyst for individual and collective agency and a way to express a vision of a better future for South American society

Italian Modern Art in the Age of Fascism Anthony White, 2019-07-30 This book examines the work of several modern artists including Fortunato Depero Scipione and Mario Radice who were working in Italy during the time of Benito Mussolini's rise and fall It provides a new history of the relationship between modern art and fascism The study begins from the premise that Italian artists belonging to avant garde art movements such as futurism expressionism and abstraction could produce works that were perfectly amenable to the ideologies of Mussolini's regime A particular focus of the book is the precise relationship between ideas of history and modernity encountered in the art and politics of the time and how compatible these truly were
