El péndulo de la fortuna Fernando Moreno, 2016-01-01

Desde algún lugar de América del Sur pasando por la jungla amazónica y luego por el viejo continente, "El Péndulo de la Fortuna" es una especie de periplo imaginario en busca de un complicado espejismo. Una frenética carrera detrás de una simple ilusión que a la manera de viaje iniciático termina por cambiar las más elementales percepciones de la realidad. Una simple y entretenida fábula donde la ilusión, el amor, la guerra y el infortunio son los ingredientes principales de una aventura que no posee más pretensiones que el entretenimiento. Ambientada en los años 30 en algún lugar perdido de Sudamérica, "El Péndulo de la Fortuna" relata las peripecias de un muchacho arrancado a su tierra natal y llevado a recorrer un largo camino en busca de los espejismos que pueblan el imaginario de ilusos y soñadores. De la mano de su padre viaja sin rumbo alguno hasta que el destino los pone en la ruta de un mítico amuleto el que guiará sus pasos en busca de la fortuna hacia lo más profundo de la jungla amazónica. Años más tarde, luego de una complicada seguidilla de desafortunados eventos y de haber soportado un largo conflicto armado, el personaje principal se ve obligado a dejar la jungla para huir de la nefasta influencia de aquel caprichoso objeto y aventurarse en un nuevo mundo sin poder ponerse al abrigo de sus supuestos maliciosos designios. La revolución que germinaba en su nueva destinación lo hace emprender una vez más la ruta, poniéndose en pleno camino del avance de las milicias franquistas en la distante España antes de decidirse a emprender el camino que lo llevará a seguir su propio destino.
