Garvan, 2022-09-15 This is a wonderful and insightful collection of stories and reflections of mothers on the connection with their own mother after becoming a mother themselves The chapters are primarily autobiographical and are told through a range of lens be it a graphic chapter or the more literary An author outlines Anishinaabeg ceremonial practices that honour and represent maternal connections and others demonstrate how art and craft can both assist in working through and carry forward maternal stories Two further pieces use a combination of literary critique feminist theory and post Freudian psychoanalysis to interpret varied texts and another highlights findings from a series of interviews with women reflecting on the attributes and practices they will carry forward or discard from their experience of being mothered Mothering

Rhetorics Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, 2020-03-03 Once only a topic among women in the private sphere motherhood and mothering have become important intellectual topics across academic disciplines Even so no book has yet devoted a sustained look at how exploring mothering rhetorics the rhetorics of reproduction rhetorics about the reproductive function of women mothers and reproducing rhetorics the rhetorical reproduction of ideological systems and logics of contemporary culture expand our understanding of mothering motherhood communication and gender Mothering Rhetorics begins to fill this gap for scholars and teachers interested in the study of mothering rhetorics in their historical and contemporary permutations The contributions explore the racialized rhetorical contexts of maternity how fixing food is thought to fix families while also regulating maternal activities and identity how Black female breastfeeding activists resisted the exploitation of African American mothers in Detroit how women in pink collar occupations both adhere to and challenge maternity leave discourses by rhetorically positioning their leaves as time off and disability identifying verbal and nonverbal shaming practices related to unwed motherhood during the mid twentieth century and redefining alternative postpartum placenta practices This book was originally published as a special issue of Women s Studies in Communication The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature Narrative Performances of Mothering in South Asian Diasporic Fiction

Sarah Knor, 2022-12-30 Examining a range of South Asian Anglophone diasporic fiction and poetry this monograph opens a new dialogue between diaspora studies and gender studies It shows how discourses of diaspora benefit from re examining their own critical relation to concepts of the maternal and the motherland Rather than considering maternity as a fixed or naturally given category it challenges essentialist conceptions and explores mothering as a performative practice which actively produces discursive meaning This innovative approach also involves an investigation of central metaphors in nationalist and diasporic rhetorics bringing critical attention to the strategies they employ and the unique aesthetic forms they produce Contemporary Indian English Literature Cecile Sandten, Indrani Karmakar, Oliver von Knebel Doeberitz, 2024-02-12 Contemporary Indian English Literature focuses on the recent history of Indian literature in English since the publication of Salman Rushdie s novel Midnight s Children 1981 a watershed moment for Indian writing in English in the global literary landscape The chapters in this volume consider a wide range of poets novelists short fiction writers and dramatists who have notably contributed to the proliferation of Indian literature in English from the late 20th century to the present The volume provides an introduction to current developments in Indian English literature and explains general ideas as well as the specific features and styles of selected writers from this wide spectrum It addresses students working in this field at university level and includes thorough reading lists and study questions to encourage students to read reflect on and write about Indian English literature critically The SAGE Handbook of Family Communication Lynn H.
