

BASICS OF THE ONLINE PENNY AUCTIONS

1. Penny auctions are a kind of gambling game, much like poker or blackjack.
2. Penny auctions are not like an EBAY auction in any way.
3. You have to place bids on items that are up for auctions.
4. Bids DO COST MONEY.
5. If you lose an auction, you still lose the bids you placed during that auction.
6. Placing a bid IS spending money.
7. An auction price of $1.00 means that 100 bids have been placed on that item. (100 pennies = $1.00)
8. Using a good strategy increases you winning potential.
9. You place bids to try and win the chance of being the final bidder during an auction.

COMMONLY MADE MISTAKES IN PENNY AUCTIONS

1. Not understanding how penny auctions work is the number one mistake made by beginners. It is not simply placing a bid and winning the product. It does not work like that. Make sure you understand exactly how these sites work BEFORE you start bidding.
2. Don't choose just any auction site! Make sure you choose a site that has a GOOD reputation. We recommend only shopping from the sites in our list. The top three sites are reserved for our members.
3. Another common mistake is blind bidding. Be sure to compare your opponents and their bids to yours before bidding on any auction. Blind bidding can be a very costly mistake. (Blind bidding means simply bidding because you want the product and not paying attention to whether or not you stand a chance at winning.)
4. Emotional bidding is much like blind bidding, someone gets it in their head that they want an item and stays in the auction even when they know they will not win. If you can't win get out!
5. Set a budget for your bids. Make it low enough to be affordable to you but high enough to be competitive.
6. Stay away from POWER BIDDERS. Getting in a bid war with a power bidder will simply wipe you out. Power bidders do not have limits on their bids and have endless money in their wallets to spend. If you come up against a power bidder, get out of the auction as fast as you can.
