Culturally Responsive Teaching and Reflection in Higher Education Sharlene Voogd
Cochrane, Meenakshi Chhabra, Marjorie A. Jones, Deborah Spragg, 2017-02-03 Culturally Responsive Teaching and Reflection in Higher Education explores how postsecondary educators can develop their own cultural awareness and provide inclusive learning environments for all students. Discussing best practices from the Cultural Literacy Curriculum Institute at Lesley University, faculty and administrators who are committed to culturally responsive teaching reflect on how to create an inclusive environment and how educators can cultivate the skills, attitudes, and knowledge necessary for implementing culturally responsive curriculum and pedagogy. Rather than a list of right answers, essays in this important resource integrate discussion and individual reflection to support educators to enhance skills for responding effectively to racial, cultural, and social difference in their personal and professional contexts. This book is as an excellent starting point or further enrichment resource to accompany program or institutional diversity and inclusion efforts.

Evolving Multicultural Education for Global Classrooms Gordon, Richard Keith, Ahmed, Kawser, Hosoda, Miwako, 2021-06-18 Multicultural education is a construct that has been very useful for many years in harboring sensitivities teachers need in addressing diverse students. Now the discipline needs refreshing. In the global society, the idea of multicultural education, a decidedly Western formation, needs to expand its conceptual boundaries. Salient issues in multicultural education, such as individual identities, social justice, and equity, are bedrock concerns of multicultural educators. These concepts are considered necessary but not sufficient in shaping an evolving model of multicultural education. The complexity of humans and modern and emerging societies requires a broadened scope of the understanding of contemporary multicultural theory and practice. Evolving Multicultural Education for Global Classrooms addresses multicultural education from a comprehensive viewpoint that acknowledges the historical benefit of multicultural education and recognizes a need to inform the discipline with a broader viewpoint. As most knowledge on multicultural education comes from a Western perspective and the scholarship on the topic is weakening the chapters in this book present new practices and classroom applications that are internationally transferable Topics covered include teacher education social justice educational equity and inclusion online education and cultural sensitivities This book is ideally intended for teachers educational theorists sociologists of education inservice and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in a fresh global perspective on multicultural education

Reinventing Intercultural Education Neal Dreamson,2016-11-25 Most existing books in the fields of multicultural or intercultural education have been written based on anthropologists cultural dimensions which presume culture is a fixed entity Reinventing Intercultural Education is the first book to review multiple cultures and religions from a metaphysical understanding It argues that intercultural value interactions can be managed and taught in a way that facilitates individuals to reveal how they are metaphysically positioned within intercultural value networks This book proposes a metaphysical understanding of interculturality by reviewing popular cultural and religious narratives found in multicultural society By doing so it develops an alternative pedagogy for multicultural education founded on the concept of intercultural hermeneutics Beginning with a critical review of multicultural policies and existing models of multicultural education Dreamson advocates the necessity of an intercultural approach to multicultural education He then moves on to argue for the methodological aspects of interculturality by reviewing and adopting philosophical hermeneutics theories Throughout the book it is argued that values incarnated as a cultural framework are networked and interact via our minds to sustain our intercultural realities Furthermore when intercultural interactions transpire which is the goal of multicultural education we can see a larger part of the world that in turn helps us cultivate ourselves for further intercultural interactions The book should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of multicultural education the philosophy of education religious pluralism religious education cultural studies theology and indigenous education
