Reader David Lincicum, Johannes Zachhuber, 2022-04-21 This reader of texts from the influential 19th century theologian Ferdinand Christian Baur 1792-1860 brings together a selection of texts in English translation from across Baur's wide range of exegetical historical philosophical and theological expertise In these excerpts including many translated for the first time readers gain a comprehensive overview of Baur's output and his remarkable role in the shaping of modern scholarly discourse in his fields Beginning with a full scholarly introduction and extensively annotated texts readers are introduced to Baur's bold and controversial historical hypotheses and encounter the variety of intellectual and stylistic registers he used from the purely scholarly to the sharply polemical The editors also explore the ways in which Baur was instrumental in some of the most fundamental intellectual paradigm shifts of the 19th century including the radical historicization of Christian theology and its interaction with Schelling Hegel and the German Idealist tradition Digital History and Hermeneutics

Andreas Fickers, Juliane Tatarinov, 2022-06-21 As a result of rapid advancements in computer science during recent decades there has been an increased use of digital tools methodologies and sources in the field of digital humanities While opening up new opportunities for scholarship many digital methods and tools now used for humanities research have nevertheless been developed by computer or data sciences and thus require a critical understanding of their mode of operation and functionality The novel field of digital hermeneutics is meant to provide such a critical and reflexive frame for digital humanities research by acquiring digital literacy and skills A new knowledge for the assessment of digital data research infrastructures analytical tools and interpretative methods is needed providing the humanities scholar with the necessary

munition for doing critical research The Doctoral Training Unit Digital History and Hermeneutics at the University of Luxembourg applies this analytical frame to 13 PhD projects By combining a hermeneutic reflection on the new digital practices of humanities scholarship with hands on experimentation with digital tools and methods new approaches and opportunities as well as limitations and flaws can be addressed The Inspiration and Truth of Scripture Aaron Pidel, Aaron Pidel, SJ, 2023-05-05 What does it mean to say that Scripture is God's Word And just how true is the Bible Though sometimes dismissed as fundamentalist concerns these questions also sent twentieth century Catholic theology searching for a new paradigm of biblical inspiration Theologians repeatedly attempted to reconcile the traditional conviction that the Bible shares in the omniscience of its divine author with scholarly findings that suggested otherwise Joseph Ratzinger contributed both negatively and positively to this project deconstructing the regnant manualist models of inspiration and constructing an alternative inspired by St Bonaventure The result is an ecclesial model of surprising comprehensiveness and balance Indeed The Inspiration and Truth of Scripture concludes that Ratzinger's alternative provides the least inadequate paradigm currently on offer today The Inspiration and Truth of Scripture breaks new ground in several ways First it situates Ratzinger within a broader Catholic quest for a theology of inspiration showing his model offers advantages even relative to those proposed by modern theology's most eminent minds John Henry Newman Pierre Benoit Karl Rahner and David Tracy Secondly this book shows how Ratzinger's paradigm generates tests for identifying the perennially valid affirmations of Scripture and thus an approach to resolving disputed biblical questions Must one who accepts the authority of Scripture believe in the Devil Are the Marian dogmas really in Scripture To what extent does Jesus's prohibition of divorce still apply in today's changed social circumstances Just how historical are Gospel narratives like the Last Supper intended to be The result is a book that bridges the gap between normative theology and historical exegesis Overall The Inspiration and Truth of Scripture presents Ratzinger not as an unimaginative enforcer of doctrinal conclusions but as a creatively faithful theologian whose reconfiguration of inspiration should serve as the point of departure for all future reflection on the subject

Remember Death Matthew McCullough, 2025-06-10 The Best Way to Find Meaning in Life Is to Get Honest About Death Life expectancy worldwide is twice what it was a hundred years ago And because of modern medicine many of us don't often see death up close That makes it easy to live as if death is someone else's problem Ignoring the certainty of death doesn't protect us from feeling its effects throughout the lives we're living now but it does hold us back from experiencing the powerful everyday relevance of Jesus's promises to us So long as death remains remote and unreal Jesus's promises will too But honesty about death brings hope to life That's the ironic claim at the heart of this book Cultivating death awareness helps us bring the promises of Jesus from the hazy clouds of some other world into the everyday realities of our world where they belong Insightful and Accessible Draws from many sources including research from science and psychology and examples from literature pop culture theology and Scripture Christ Centered Encouragement for Life and Loss Teaching

symbolism describes how biblical light motifs were taken up with energy in the early Church Kevin Duffy argues that living in a world of 24/7 illumination we need to reconnect with the sun and its light to appreciate the meaning of light in the Bible and Christian tradition With such a retrieval we can appreciate Pope Francis's insistence that like the moon the Church does not shine with its own light and assess the claim that the Eucharist is to be celebrated Ad Orientem that is towards the rising sun in the East Liturgy architecture poetry and the writings of saints and theologians such as Augustine Hildegard of Bingen Francis of Assisi and Thomas Traherne offer abundant resources for a much needed ressourcement While Christ was preached as the True Sun among sun worshipping Aztecs and the consecrated host was placed in a solar monstrance on Baroque altars in the modern era solar themes have been neglected In this accessible work the author suggests that we rebalance a spiritual symbolism that has over emphasised darkness and cloud at the expense of light and sun He proposes a creative retrieval of the traditional title of Christ as the Sun of Justice This title blends the personal the social and the cosmic ecological and speaks powerfully to a secularising era that contemporaries Friedrich Nietzsche and Thérèse of Lisieux both described as one where the sun does not shine
