LITERARY CRITICISM

Literary criticism

- is the comparison, analysis, interpretation, and/or evaluation of works of literature.
- is essentially an opinion, supported by evidence, relating to theme, style, setting or historical or political context.
- includes discussion of the work's content and integrates your ideas with other insights gained from research.
- may have a positive or a negative bias and may be a study of an individual piece of literature or an author's body of work.

Although criticism may include some of the following elements in order to support an idea, literary criticism is NOT a plot summary, a biography of the author, or simply finding fault with the literature.

Researching, reading, and writing works of literary criticism will help you to make better sense of the work, form judgments about literature, study ideas from different points of view, and determine on an individual level whether a literary work is worth reading.

Examples of some types of literary criticism are:

- Biographical
- Comparative
- Ethical
- Expressive
- Feminist
- Historical
- Mimetic
- Pragmatic
- Psychological
- Social
- Textual
- Theoretical

The Digital Future of English Simone Murray, 2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book s imminent demise presented a simplistic either or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline s founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help

English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology s impact on the underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely needed optimism to the question of literary studies digital future      2012 Guide to Professional Services for Writers Robert Lee

Jungian Literary Criticism Susan Rowland,2018-10-04 In Jungian Literary Criticism the essential guide Susan Rowland demonstrates how ideas such as archetypes the anima and animus the unconscious and synchronicity can be applied to the analysis of literature Jung s emphasis on creativity was central to his own work and here Rowland illustrates how his concepts can be applied to novels poetry myth and epic allowing a reader to see their personal psychological and historical contribution This multidisciplinary and transdisciplinary approach challenges the notion that Jungian ideas cannot be applied to literary studies exploring Jungian themes in canonical texts by authors including Shakespeare Jane Austen and W B Yeats as well as works by twenty first century writers such as in digital literary art Rowland argues that Jung s works encapsulate realities beyond narrow definitions of what a single academic discipline ought to do and through using case studies alongside Jung s work she demonstrates how both disciplines find a home in one another Interweaving Jungian analysis with literature Jungian Literary Criticism explores concepts from the shadow to contemporary issues of ecocriticism and climate change in relation to literary works and emphasises the importance of a reciprocal relationship Each chapter concludes with key definitions themes and further reading and the book encourages the reader to examine how worldviews change when disciplines combine The accessible approach of Jungian Literary Criticism the essential guide will appeal to academics and students of literary studies Jungian and post Jungian studies literary theory environmental humanities and ecocentrism It will also be of interest to Jungian analysts and therapists in training and in practice Shakespeare: The Tragedies Nicolas
