learning literature including emerging approaches on intersectional pedagogies All authors are practitioners engaged in teaching in college and several have previous high school teaching experience They openly discuss challenges related to teaching in diverse classrooms and suggest pedagogical strategies to thrive in diverse environments

Evolution of a Movement Tracy E. Perkins, 2022-04-05 Despite living and working in California one of the country's most environmentally progressive states environmental justice activists have spent decades fighting for clean air to breathe clean water to drink and safe healthy communities Evolution of a Movement tells their story from the often raucous protests of the 1980s and 1990s to activists growing presence inside the halls of the state capitol in the 2000s and 2010s Tracy E Perkins traces how shifting political contexts combined with activists own efforts to institutionalize their work within nonprofits and state structures By revealing these struggles and transformations Perkins offers a new lens for understanding environmental justice activism in California Drawing on case studies and 125 interviews with activists from Sacramento to the California Mexico border Perkins explores the successes and failures of the environmental justice movement in California She shows why some activists have moved away from the disruptive outsider political tactics common in the movement's early days and embraced traditional political channels of policy advocacy electoral politics and working from within the state's political system to enact change Although some see these changes as a sign of the growing sophistication of the environmental justice movement others point to the potential of such changes to blunt grassroots power At a time when environmental justice scholars and activists face pressing questions about the best route for effecting meaningful change this book provides insight into the strengths and limitations of social movement institutionalization

Same Family, Different Colors Lori L. Tharps, 2017-10-03 Weaving together personal stories history and analysis Same Family Different Colors explores the myriad ways skin color politics affect family dynamics in the United States Colorism and color bias the preference for or presumed superiority of people based on the color of their skin is a pervasive and damaging but rarely openly discussed phenomenon In this unprecedented book Lori L Tharps explores the issue in African American Latino Asian American and mixed race families and communities by weaving together personal stories history and analysis The result is a compelling portrait of the myriad ways skin color politics affect family dynamics in the United States Tharps the mother of three mixed race children with three distinct skin colors uses her own family as a starting point to investigate how skin color difference is dealt with Her journey takes her across the country and into the lives of dozens of diverse individuals all of whom have grappled with skin color politics and speak candidly about experiences that sometimes scarred them From a Latina woman who was told she couldn't be in her best friend's wedding photos because her dark skin would spoil the pictures to a light skinned African American man who spent his entire childhood trying to be Black Tharps illuminates the complex and multifaceted ways that colorism affects our self esteem and shapes our lives and relationships Along with intimate and revealing stories Tharps adds a historical overview and a contemporary cultural critique to contextualize how various communities and individuals navigate skin color politics Groundbreaking and urgent Same Family Different Colors is a solution seeking journey to the heart of identity politics so that this more subtle cousin to racism in the author s words will be exposed and confronted The War Before the War Andrew Delbanco,2018 The story of how fugitive slaves drove the nation to Civil War cProvided by publisher Constructing a Nervous System Margo Jefferson,2022-04-12 A NEW YORK TIMES BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR From one of our most nuanced thinkers on the intersections of race class and feminism Cathy Park Hong New York Times bestselling author of Minor Feelings comes a memoir as electric as the title suggests Maggie Nelson author of On Freedom A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR The New York Times TIME Magazine Oprah Daily The New Yorker Washington Post Vulture BuzzFeed Publishers Weekly The Pulitzer Prize winning critic and memoirist Margo Jefferson has lived in the thrall of a cast of others her parents and maternal grandmother jazz luminaries writers artists athletes and stars These are the figures who thrill and trouble her and who have made up her sense of self as a person and as a writer In her much anticipated follow up to Negroland Jefferson brings these figures to life in a memoir of stunning originality a performance of the elements that comprise and occupy the mind of one of our foremost critics In Constructing a Nervous System Jefferson shatters her self into pieces and recombines them into a new and vital apparatus on the page fusing the criticism that she is known for fragments of the family members she grieves for and signal moments from her life as well as the words of those who have peopled her past and accompanied her in her solitude dramatized here like never before Bing Crosby and Ike Turner are among the author s alter egos The sounds of a jazz LP emerge as the intimate and instructive sounds of a parent s voice W E B Du Bois and George Eliot meet illicitly The muscles and movements of a ballerina are spliced with those of an Olympic runner becoming a template for what a black female body can be The result is a wildly innovative work of depth and stirring beauty It is defined by fractures and dissonance longing and ecstasy and a persistent searching Jefferson interrogates her own self as well as the act of writing memoir and probes the fissures at the center of American cultural life On Michael Jackson Margo Jefferson,2007-01-09 The renowned Pulitzer Prize winning cultural critic brilliantly unravels the complexities of one of the most enigmatic figures of our time in this passionate incisive and bracing work of cultural analysis Who is Michael Jackson and what does it mean to call him a What Is It What do P T Barnum Peter Pan and Edgar Allan Poe have to do with our fascination with Jackson How did his curious Victorian upbringing and his tenure as a child prodigy on the chitlin circuit inform his character and multiplicity of selves How is Michael Jackson s celebrity related to the outrageous popularity of nineteenth century minstrelsy What is the perverse appeal of child stars for grown ups and what is the price of such stardom for these children and for us What uncanniness provoked Michael Jackson to become Alone of All His Race Alone of All Her Sex while establishing himself as an undeniably great performer with neo Gothic dandy proclivities and a producer of visionary music videos What do we find so unnerving about Michael Jackson s presumed monstrosity In short how are we all of us implicated In this stunning book Margo Jefferson gives us the incontrovertible lowdown on call him what you wish she
