abstracted concepts of bodies and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology The Faithful Librarian Garrett B. Trott, 2019-09-06 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper's lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith's notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith's work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship The Routledge Dictionary of Performance and Contemporary Theatre Patrice Pavis, 2016-04-28 the ideal follow on to and development from his previous Dictionary of the theatre 1999 provides access to a wide range of theoretical terms which feature at HE the perfect match of big name and comprehensive student reference Children, Citizenship and Environment Bronwyn Hayward, 2020-10-05 In this significantly revised second edition of Bronwyn Hayward's acclaimed book Children Citizenship and Environment she examines how students with teachers parents and other activists can learn to take effective action to confront the complex drivers of the current climate crisis including economic and social injustice colonialism and racism The global school strikes demand adults governments and businesses take far reaching action in response to our climate crisis The school strikes also remind us why this important youthful activism urgently needs the support of all generations The SchoolStrike edition of Children Citizenship and Environment includes all new contributions by youth indigenous and disability activists researchers and educators Raven Cretney Mehedi Hasan Sylvia Nissen Jocelyn Papprell Kate Prendergast Kera Sherwood O Regan Mia Sutherland Amanda Thomas Sara Tolbert Sarah Thomson Josiah Tualamali i and Amelia Woods As controversial yet ultimately hopeful as it was when first published Bronwyn Hayward develops her SEEDS model of strong ecological citizenship for a school strike generation The SEEDS of citizenship education encourage students to develop skills for Social agency Environmental education Embedded justice Decentred deliberation and Self transcendence This approach to citizenship supports young citizens democratic imagination and develops their handprint for social justice This ground breaking book will be of interest to a wide audience in particular teachers and professionals who work in Environmental Citizenship Education as well as students and community activists with an interest in environmental change democracy and intergenerational justice Latinxs, the Bible, and Migration Efraín Agosto, Jacqueline M. Hidalgo, 2018-10-27 This book examines the conjunction between migration and biblical texts with a focus on Latinx histories and experiences Essays reflect upon Latinxs the Bible and migration in different ways some consider how the Bible is used in the midst of or in response to Latinx experiences and histories of migration some use Latinx histories and experiences of migration to examine Biblical texts in both First and Second Testaments some consider the Bible as a phenomenological set of texts that respond to and or compel migration Cultural literary and postcolonial theories inform the analysis as does the exploration of how migrant groups themselves scripturalize their biblical and cultural texts Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one's faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike Night and Darkness in Ancient Mesoamerica Nancy Gonlin, David Millard Reed, 2021-12-01 Night and Darkness in Ancient Mesoamerica is the first volume to explicitly incorporate how nocturnal aspects of the natural world were imbued with deep cultural meanings and expressed by different peoples from various time periods in Mexico and Central America Material culture iconography epigraphy art history ethnohistory ethnographies and anthropological theory are deftly used to illuminate dimensions of darkness and the night that are often neglected in reconstructions of the past The anthropological study of night and darkness enriches and strengthens the understanding of human behavior power economy and the supernatural In eleven case studies featuring the residents of Teotihuacan the Classic period Maya inhabitants of Rio Ul a and the Aztecs the authors challenge archaeologists to consider the influence of the ignored dimension of the night and the role and expression of darkness on ancient behavior Chapters examine the significance of eclipses burials tombs and natural phenomena considered to be portals to the underworld animals hunted at twilight the use and ritual meaning of blindfolds night blooming plants nocturnal foodways fuel sources and lighting technology and other connected practices Night and Darkness in Ancient Mesoamerica expands the scope of published research and media on the archaeology of the night The book will be of interest to those who study the humanistic anthropological and archaeological aspects of the Aztec Maya Teotihuacanos and southeastern Mesoamericans as well as sensory archaeology art history material culture studies anthropological archaeology paleonutrition socioeconomics sociopolitics epigraphy mortuary studies volcanology and paleoethnobotany Contributors Jeremy Coltman Christine Dixon Rachel Egan Kirby Farah Carolyn Freiwald Nancy Gonlin Julia Hendon Cecelia Klein Jeanne Lopiparo Brian McKee Jan Marie Olson David M Reed Payson Sheets Venicia Slotten Michael Thomason Randolph Widmer W Scott Zeleznik     Decolonizing Social Work Dr Tiani Hetherington, Professor John Coates, Professor Mel Gray, Professor Michael Yellow Bird, 2013-07-28 Riding on the success of Indigenous Social Work Around the World this book provides case studies to further scholarship on decolonization a major analytical and activist paradigm among many of the world s Indigenous Peoples including educators tribal leaders activists scholars politicians and citizens at the grassroots level Decolonization seeks to weaken the effects of colonialism and create opportunities to promote traditional practices in contemporary settings Establishing language and cultural programs honouring land claims teaching Indigenous history science and ways of knowing self esteem programs celebrating ceremonies restoring traditional parenting approaches tribal rites of passage traditional foods and helping and healing using tribal approaches are central to decolonization These insights are brought to the arena of international social work still dominated by western based approaches Decolonization draws attention to the effects of globalization and the universalization of education methods of practice and international development that fail to embrace and recognize local knowledges and methods In this volume Indigenous and non Indigenous social work scholars examine local cultures beliefs values and practices as central to decolonization Supported by a growing interest in spirituality and ecological awareness in international social work they interrogate trends issues and debates in Indigenous social work theory practice methods and education models including a section on Indigenous research approaches The diversity of perspectives decolonizing methodologies and the shared struggle to provide effective professional social work interventions is reflected in the international nature of the subject matter and in the mix of contributors who write from their contexts in different countries and cultures including Australia Canada Cuba

Japan Jordan Mexico New Zealand South Africa and the USA      Living Word™ 2020-2021 Various Authors including Julie Dienno-Demarest and Aires Patulot, 2020-02-04 The Living Word helps youth ministers parish catechists and high school religion teachers to meet teens where they are and guide them to a deeper understanding of the Gospel's role in their lives. This model of liturgical catechesis through Lectionary readings enhances the liturgical preparation, liturgical participation and liturgical living of teens.
