The Art of War for Executives Donald G. Krause, 2005 Newly revised a comprehensive interpretation of Sun Tzu's The Art of War combines the original classic's advice on leadership strategy organization competition and cooperation with the ideas of contemporary business philosophers Original An Analysis of Sun Tzu's The Art of War Ramon Pacheco

Pardo, 2017-07-05 Sun Tzu's The Art of War is a series of lessons in the applied art of problem solving Sun 544 BC 496 BC an experienced general from the Warring States period of Chinese history saw war as an inevitable problem indeed the ultimate problem confronting the state The Art of War summarises his lessons on how to solve the problems raised by conflict The work comprises a series of pithy discussions of the different strategic situations that might arise and the best responses for each In many ways it is a masterclass in the application of critical thinking to practical affairs Aspiring generals are advised to appraise the situation according to five separate criteria and to plan accordingly The expert at battle seeks his victory from strategic advantage Sun writes so every general must assess their situation from every angle and establish not only the best way to give themselves the strategic advantage but also of preventing the other side from giving itself the advantage Throughout the text Sun epitomises the qualities of a good problem solver by focusing on the nature of the problem asking productive questions about it and making sound decisions Systems Intelligence - Discovering a Hidden Competence

in Human Action and Organizational Life, 2004 Unraveling Religious Leadership Kristina Lizardy-Hajbi, 2024-04-23 Unraveling Religious Leadership considers various attributes related to the form and function of leadership within religious institutions in conversation with decolonial ideas and practices Decoloniality in negation of the ongoing legacies of colonialism seeks ways of being and doing beyond white eurowestern modern ideals of who a leader is and what a leader does especially in the context of Christianity and its entanglements with empire In this book Lizardy Hajbi draws upon decolonial ideas worldviews and practices to question the current assumed understandings of religious leadership as individual singular in role and structure centralizing in power possessing of expertise and select qualifications production oriented and primarily change inducing Pulling on each of these threads invites a reconsideration of the epistemologies knowledges and ontologies notions of being that give shape to religious leadership in North American Christianity today Lizardy Hajbi's innovative approach directly challenges popular leadership styles in wide use among leaders today placing these styles in conversation with decolonial scholarship diverse realities and worldviews and practices that disrupt idealized norms Popular styles such as authentic charismatic servant executive and transformational leadership are found wanting in terms of their substance and utility for meaningful leadership within religious institutions Ultimately Lizardy Hajbi engages readers by presenting alternative constructions that consider the myriad complexities within both the role and function of leadership offering new ways to frame the leadership identities the church needs for today's world Makedonska bibliografija, 2012 Glocalized Security Abu Bakarr Bah, 2025-06-03 What forces drive violent conflicts and whose interests are protected by military involvement In those conflicts how do domestic factors fuse with external dynamics and what issues spell the difference between successful and failed intervention Enter Glocalized Security a concept that argues that this fusion of domestic and external matters produces new war dynamics which require both substantial domestic reforms and realignment of external interests to achieve sustainable peace In this edited collection contributors use this concept to examine grievances and interests in and around war torn countries Combining a variety of disciplines from sociology and political science to peace studies and public policy and administration these case studies draw from over three decades of international military interventions around the world including Afghanistan Turkey Somalia Iraq Nigeria and Nepal Analyzing the intersectional relationship of the local and global Glocalized Security provides new insights into the problems of international security and why international military interventions often fail to ensure peace and security in conflict zones where these factors have morphed into terrorism warfare or zones of national interest among major world and regional powers By focusing on ethnicity religion poverty governance and the other most common motivators of violent conflicts Glocalized Security provides a crucial conceptual basis for understanding international relations in the twenty first century
