The London Dream Chris McMillan,2020-08-28 The London Dream tells the story of a city that promises opportunity excitement and the possibility of prosperity It is a mythology has launched millions of migrant journeys No one benefits more from the flow of willed and willing workers than London s employers And still they come They come to a city propelled by a newly cool capitalism and hungry for workers to serve it From actors to cleaners academics to caf workers The London Dream explores the stories of Londoners chasing the dreams offered by the city and the economy within which their precarious hopes become profits

London's New Scene Lisa Tickner,2020-07-07 A groundbreaking and extensively researched account of the 1960s London art scene In the 1960s London became a vibrant hub of artistic production Postwar reconstruction jet air travel television arts programs new color supplements a generation of young artists dealers and curators the influx of international film companies the projection of creative Britain as a national brand all nurtured and promoted the emergence of London as a new capital of art Extensively illustrated and researched this book offers an unprecedented rich account of the social field that constituted the lively London scene of the 1960s In clear fluent prose Tickner presents an innovative sequence of critical case studies each of which explores a particular institution or event in the cultural life of London between 1962 and 1968 The result is a kaleidoscopic view of an exuberant decade in the history of British art

Scandinavian Blue Jack Stevenson,2015-09-02 This book traces the development of modern Scandinavian erotic cinema as it evolved in Denmark and Sweden from the gentle Swedish naturalist films starting with One Summer of Happiness in the 50s to the controversial groundbreakers like I Am Curious Yellow of the 60s and on through to the dawn of Liberated Denmark where in the early 70s the abolition of censorship was celebrated in films like 24 Hours with Ilse and the production of a number of other films that were blatantly pornographic Also considered is the influence of these films on other countries particularly the United States where Scandinavian erotic cinema helped to set in motion the sexual revolution and contributed to the end of film censorship

Living with London's Olympics I. Lindsay,2014-11-12 The quadrennial summer Olympic Games are renowned for producing the world s biggest single city cultural event This mega event attracts a live audience of millions a television audience of billions and generates incredible scrutiny before during and after each installment This is due to the fact that underpinning the 17 days of spectacular sporting events is approximately a decade worth of planning preparing and politicking It is during this decade that prospective host cities must plan and win their bids before embarking upon seven years of urban upheaval and social transformation in order to stage the world s premier sporting event This book draws on seven years of ethnographic inquiry around the London 2012 Olympics and contrasts the rhetoric and reality of mega event delivery Lindsay argues that in its current iteration the twin notions of beneficial Olympic legacies and Olympic delivery benefits for hosting communities are largely incompatible

Salsa World Sydney Hutchinson,2013-11-29 Since its emergence in the 1960s salsa has transformed from a symbol of Nuyorican pride into an emblem of pan Latinism and finally a form of global popular culture While Latinos all over the world have developed and even exported their own dance accents local dance scenes have arisen in increasingly far flung locations each with their own flavor and unique features Salsa World examines the ways in which bodies relate to culture in specific places The contributors a notable group of scholars and practitioners analyze dance practices in the U S Japan Spain France Colombia Cuba Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic Writing from the disciplines of ethnomusicology anthropology sociology and performance studies the contributors explore salsa s kinetopias places defined by movement or vice versa as they have arisen through the dance s interaction with local histories identities and musical forms Taken together the essays in this book examine contemporary salsa dancing in all its complexity taking special note of how it is localized and how issues of geography race and ethnicity and identity interact with the global salsa industry Contributors include Barbara Balbuena Gutierrez Katherine Borland Joanna Bosse Rossy Diaz Sal Escalona Kengo Iwanaga Isabel Llano Jonathan S Marion Priscilla Renta Alejandro Ulloa Sanmiguel and the editor In the series Studies in Latin American and Caribbean Music edited by Peter Manuel

Turbulent Times Keith Kahn-Harris, Ben Gidley, 2010-09-23 Compelling discussion of transformations within British Jewry in recent times The CD-ROM Directory 1996, 1996 This 15th edition of a yearly report provides a guide to all CD ROM and multimedia titles published In addition to a full description of each title the book contains the names and addresses of all the publishers and information providers The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Remaking London Ben Campkin, 2013-08-13 Between the slum clearances of the early twentieth century and debates about the post Olympic city the drive to regenerate London has intensified Yet today with a focus on increasing land values regeneration schemes purporting to foster diverse and creative new neighbourhoods typically displace precisely the qualities activities and communities they claim to support In Remaking London Ben Campkin provides a lucid and stimulating historical account of urban regeneration exploring how decline and renewal have been imagined and realised at different scales Focussing on present day regeneration areas that have been key to the capital s modern identity Campkin explores how these places have been stigmatised through identification with material degradation and spatial and social disorder Drawing on diverse sources including journalism photography cinema theatre architectural design advertising and television he illuminates how ideas of decline drive urban change Richly illustrated and engagingly written Remaking London is both a compelling account of contested sites from the capital s recent history and a powerful critique of the contradictions of contemporary regeneration

Greek Tragedies for Contemporary Time Dipu Baruwa-Etti, Katherine Soper, Sophie Ellerby, 2024-10-09 Three electrifying fresh takes on Greek classics adapting their stories to the modern day to address contemporary issues Protest desire free will the central themes of Greek classics have never been more prescient In this specially commissioned trio of plays modern writers utilise these well known plays and their timeless themes to speak to 21st century issues Lysistrata by Sophie Ellerby Between working a zillion part time jobs and campaigning to save the NHS sixth year medical student Lysistrata is struggling to stay afloat When a viral social media thread calls for all medical students to strike she knows the perfect place to stage her protest the local STI clinic The Bacchae by Katherine Soper When a group of young women discover the mysterious and charming Bacchus they instantly form an unshakeable devotion to him and each other it has awakened something inside of them that cannot be contained The Trojan Women by Dipo Baruwa Etti The country is in a terrible financial state and the cost of living destroying lives At a foodbank a local councillor works with and helps others mostly single mothers though even the volunteers are struggling not just monetarily but in their spirits wondering how much power they have and if they have control over their destinies These plays were first commissioned by the Lyric Hammersmith Theatre for the SPRINGBOARD programme a course that finds inspires and champions the next generation of performers from underrepresented backgrounds this trio of plays offers not only imaginative and thought provoking takes on Greek classics but fantastic performance opportunities for students and actors
