Michel De Certeau Analysing Culture:

Michel De Certeau Ben Highmore,2006-05-30 Michel de Certeau is becoming increasingly recognised as a cultural theorist whose methodologies could rival those of Foucault In this engaging book Ben Highmore provides a stimulating account of Michel de Certeau s work and its relation to the field of cultural studies The book explores those aspects of de Certeau s work that both challenge and re imagine cultural studies highlighting the potential this work has for supplying a critical epistemology and a practical ethics for the study of culture within the arts and humanities more generally Michel de Certeau Analysing Culture provides an ideal introduction to the work of this extraordinary and important thinker Cultural Theory Imre Szeman,Timothy Kaposy,2010-04-26 Cultural Theory An Anthology is a collection of the essential readings that have shaped and defined the field of contemporary cultural theory Features a historically diverse and methodologically concise collection of readings including rare essays such as Pierre Bourdieu s Forms of Capital 1986 Gilles Deleuze Postscript on Societies of Control 1992 and Fredric Jameson s Reification and Utopia in Mass Culture 1979 Offers a radical new approach to teaching and studying cultural theory with material arranged around the central areas of inquiry in contemporary cultural study the status and significance of culture itself power ideology temporality space and scale and subjectivity Section introductions designed to assist the student reader provide an overview of each piece explaining the context in which it was written and offering a brief intellectual biography of the author A large annotated bibliography of primary and secondary works for each author and topic promotes further research and discussion Features a useful glossary of critical terms The Mysticism of Ordinary Life Andrew Prevot,2023 The Mysticism of Ordinary Life presents a new vision of Christian mystical theology offering critical interpretations of the theologians philosophers and intersectional feminists who draw on mystical traditions to affirm ordinary life arguing that everyday experiences of divine grace can be an empowering source of social transformation Communication, Culture, and Making Meaning in the City Ahmet Atay,Jay Brower,2017-10-10 As communicative cultural and political spaces cities present a vast array of racial ethnic national sexual and socioeconomic experiences around which human communities take shape This shaping forms a germinal point of mass cultural life City planners decide where buildings and neighborhoods are developed which ultimately affects who residents interact with how they get there and why they choose city life From these experiences boundaries and possibilities arise that define cultures of the city In Communication Culture and Making Meaning in the City Ethnographic Engagements in Urban Environments contributors focus on theorizing the notion of the city as a communicatively constituted cultural space drawing on situated reflexive ethnographic examinations of the city to show the complex and varied ways in which cities produce social meaning French Historians 1900-2000 Philip Daileader,Philip Whalen,2010-03-16 French Historians 1900 2000 The New Historical Writing in Twentieth Century France examines the lives and writings of 40 of France s great twentieth century historians Blends biography with critical analysis of major works placing the work of the French historians in the context of their lifestories Includes contributions from over 30 international scholars Provides English speaking readers with a new insight into the key French historians of the last century      Cultural Theory after 9/11 Robert Doran, 2010-09-01 This collection of material seeks to interpret the events of September 11 2001 from the perspective of cultural theory that is from the perspective of anthropological and social forces that motivate human beings and give meaning to their thoughts actions and feelings Though contributors to this volume work within various disciplines their approach is necessarily holistic because of the very nature of the event which resonates on many levels and in diverse spheres of human activity Clearly the perception of who one's enemy is has a cultural and psychological impact that goes far beyond the superficial media representations consumed on a daily basis the very curriculum of American universities has been altered as a result of the 9 11 attacks and this will have profound and far reaching effects      Critical Theory for Library and Information Science Gloria J. Leckie, Lisa M. Given, John E. Buschman, 2010-07-26 This text provides an overview of major critical theorists from across disciplines including the humanities social sciences and education that discusses the importance of these critical perspectives for the advancement of LIS research and scholarship The practical application of library and information science is based upon 75 years of critical theory and thought Therefore it is essential for students and faculty in LIS to be familiar with the work of a wide range of critical theorists The aim of Critical Theory for Library and Information Science Exploring the Social from Across the Disciplines is to provide a comprehensive introduction to the critical theorists important to the LIS audience and to give insights into how such theory can be incorporated into actual LIS research and practice This book consists of chapters on individual critical theorists ranging from Aglietta to Habermas to Spivak written by an international group of library and information science scholars Each chapter provides an overview of the theoretical stance and contributions of the theorist as well as relevant critical commentary This book will be particularly valuable as a reference text of core readings for those pursuing doctoral or masters level degrees in LIS      Religion and the Discourse on Modernity Paul-François Tremlett, 2011-11-03 The point of departure for this book is the debate about whether religious studies should privilege explanation or understanding Engaging with contemporary scholarship in the field Tremlett argues that the study of religions has always involved the conflation of facts and values and indeed has been structured in advance by the value saturated discourse on disenchanted modernity He argues that phenomenological and post modern approaches to religions lack both theoretical and methodological coherence and in their stead proposes a Marxist approach to religions that is at once empirical and informed by values pertaining to social justice freedom and autonomy      Culture at the Crossroads Asma Hichri, Samira Mechri, 2021-06-02 This collection explores the interfaces of culture gender and power from politico religious linguistic legal and historiographic perspectives More importantly the contributions gathered here examine culture's manifestations in different socio economic political theoretical and discursive contexts Being aware of the crisis in humanities researchers scholars and experts seek to relocate culture and cultural studies within academia and analyze the epistemological relationship between culture and education while also trying to eschew and refashion the stale conventional methodologies of approaching culture as an academic subject Is it possible to go beyond the crisis in humanities by valorizing culture in social and human sciences on the one hand and natural and exact sciences on the other especially when we take into consideration the escalation of fundamentalist extremist and xenophobic tendencies all over the globe How can we approach the issues of ethics and teaching humanities and sciences This book moves beyond conventional conceptions of culture that associate it with knowledge and enlightenment to suggest a holistic view of culture that enacts the dialectics of power nationality class gender and ethnicity in an ever shifting transnational context Engaging readers in a lively intellectual and cultural debate this volume is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students teachers critics and scholars from various academic fields and disciplines including historiography cultural studies anthropology political science literature and critical theory

Travelling around Cultures Zsolt Győri, Gabriella Moise, 2017-01-06 Culture has always relied on art just as artists have been dependent on culture as a problem field to draw inspiration from and as a store of social ideological and political practices to endorse or criticise This volume addresses this dynamic reality by investigating how literary cinematic and artistic practices expose the often invisible structures and discourses which underlie the values concepts rites and myths specific to Anglo American cultural environments On the one hand the chapters re visit classical as well as contemporary authors including Charles Dickens Emily Dickinson Janice Galloway and Matthew Kneale through the lenses of culture to explore how their works become social commentaries and a cultural diagnosis On the other hand they explore the politics and ideological effects of cultural practices exemplified by such matters as censorship reading communities fan fiction and travelogues

Making Truth in Early Modern Catholicism Andreea Badea, Bruno Boute, Marco Cavarzere, Steven Broecke, 2025-10-01 Scholarship has come to value the uncertainties haunting early modern knowledge cultures indeed awareness of the fragility and plurality of knowledge is now offered as a key element for understanding early modern science as a whole Yet early modern actors never questioned the possibility of certainty itself and never objected to the notion that truth is out there universal and therefore safe from human manipulation This book investigates how early modern actors managed not to succumb to postmodern relativism despite the increasing uncertainties and blatant disagreements about the nature of God Man and the Universe An international and interdisciplinary team of experts in fields ranging from the history of science to theology and the history of ideas analyses a number of practices that were central to maintaining and functionalizing the notion of absolute truth Through such an interdisciplinary research the book shows how certainty about truth could be achieved and how early modern society recognized the credibility of a wide plethora of actors in differentiating fields of knowledge

Lived Experiences and Social Transformations CL Wren Radford, 2022-03-07 Practices of sharing marginalised lived experiences are framed as providing insight into injustices yet social inequalities influence whose experiences and whose interpretations of these experiences are seen as valid Lived Experiences and Social Transformations analyses academic and activist encounters with lived experiences arguing that these practices reinforce or disrupt power relations Through the example of UK activists sharing their experiences of poverty Wren Radford advocates for collaborative interventions that emphasise the critical creative knowledges enmeshed in marginalised experiences The book compellingly enacts this approach to practical theology rooted in concrete issues and argued through poetic writing artwork and interdisciplinary sources Death in the City Kathryn A. Sloan,2017 At the turn of the twentieth century many observers considered suicide to be a worldwide social problem that had reached epidemic proportions This idea was especially powerful in Mexico City where tragic and violent deaths in public urban spaces seemed commonplace in a city undergoing rapid modernization Crime rates mounted corpses piled up in the morgue and the media reported on sensational cases of murder and suicide More troublesome still a compelling death wish appeared to grip women and youth Drawing on an extensive range of sources from judicial records to the popular press Death in the City examines the cultural meanings of death and self destruction in modern Mexico The author examines approaches and responses to suicide and death disproving the long held belief that Mexicans possessed a cavalier response to death Provided by publisher

Continental Philosophy of Technoscience Hub Zwart,2021-11-18 The key objective of this volume is to allow philosophy students and early stage researchers to become practicing philosophers in technoscientific settings Zwart focuses on the methodological issue of how to practice continental philosophy of technoscience today This text draws upon continental authors such as Hegel Engels Heidegger Bachelard and Lacan and their fields of dialectics phenomenology and psychoanalysis in developing a coherent message around the technicity of science or rather technoscience Within technoscience the focus will be on recent developments in life sciences research such as genomics post genomics synthetic biology and global ecology This book uniquely presents continental perspectives that tend to be underrepresented in mainstream philosophy of science yet entail crucial insights for coming to terms with technoscience as it is evolving on a global scale today This is an open access book The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki Andrew Nestingen,2013-06-25 Since 1983 Aki Kaurismäki has made classically styled films filled with cinephilic references to film history influencing Jim Jarmusch Quentin Tarantino and Wes Anderson Yet the director is often depicted as the loneliest most nostalgic of Finns except when promoting his films making political statements and running his many businesses Drawing on revisionist approaches to film authorship this text links Kaurismäki's work to issues in film aesthetics and history nostalgia late modernity commerce film festivals and national cinema Learning from Delhi Written by Maurice Mitchell,Shamoon Patwari,2017-03-02 The inflexibility of modern urban planning which seeks to determine the activities of urban inhabitants and standardise everyday city life is challenged by the unstoppable organic growth of illegal settlements In rapidly expanding cities issues of continuity with local traditions local conditions and local ways of working are juxtaposed with those of abrupt change due to emergency reaction to modernity environmental degradation global market forces and global technological imperatives to make efforts to control by physical planning redundant as soon as they are enacted In most third world cities there is little social welfare and almost no attempt at social housing

Early Orientalism Ivan Kalmar, 2013-06-17 The history of western notions about Islam is of obvious scholarly as well as popular interest today This book investigates Christian images of the Muslim Middle East focusing on the period from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment when the nature of divine as well as human power was under particularly intense debate in the West Ivan Kalmar explores how the controversial notion of submission to ultimate authority has in the western world been discussed with reference to Islam s alleged recommendation to obey unquestioningly a merciless Allah in heaven and a despotic government on earth He discusses how Abrahamic faiths Christianity and Judaism as much as Islam demand devotion to a sublime power with the faith that this power loves and cares for us a concept that brings with it the fear that on the contrary this power only toys with us for its own enjoyment For such a power Kalmar borrows Slavoj Žižek s term obscene father He discusses how this describes exactly the western image of the Oriental despot Allah in heaven and the various sultans emirs and ayatollahs on earth and how these despotic personalities of imagined Muslim society function as a projection from the West on to the Muslim Orient of an existential anxiety about sublime power Making accessible academic debates on the history of Christian perceptions of Islam and on Islam and the West this book is an important addition to the existing literature in the areas of Islamic studies religious history and philosophy

Documentary Filmmaking in Contemporary Brazil Gustavo Procopio Furtado, 2019 This book examines the vibrant field of documentary filmmaking in Brazil from the transition to democracy in 1985 to the present Marked by significant efforts toward the democratization of Brazil s highly unequal society this period also witnessed the documentary s rise to unprecedented vitality in quantity quality and diversity of production which includes polished auteur films as well as rough hewn collaborative works films made in major metropolitan regions as well as in indigenous villages and in remote parts of the Amazon intimate first person documentaries as well as films that dive headfirst into struggles for social justice The transformations of Brazilian society and of filmmaking coalesce and become entangled in this cinema s preoccupation with archives Historically linked to the exercise and maintenance of power the concept of the archive is critical for the documentary as a cultural practice that preserves images from the present for the future unearths and repurposes visual materials from the past and is historically invested in filmic images as records of the real Contemporary films incorporate reflect on and rework a variety of archives such as documents produced by official institutions ethnographic images home movies and photo albums and engage not only with what is preserved but also with lacunas in the record and with alternate forms of remembering retrieving and transmitting the past Through its interaction with archives this book argues the contemporary documentary reflects on and intervenes in the distribution of visibilities and invisibilities centers and margins silences and speech living memory and its preservation in the record thus locating the documentary on archival borders that concern Brazilian society and filmmaking alike

Four Histories about Early

Dutch Football, 1910-1920 Nicholas Piercey, 2016-10-06 What is the purpose of history today and how can sporting research help us understand the world around us In this stimulating book Nicholas Piercey constructs four new histories of early Dutch football exploring urban change club members the media and the diaries of Cornelis Johannes Karel van Aalst a stadium director to propose practical examples of how history can become an important democratic tool for the 21st century Using early Dutch football as a field for experimental thinking about the past the four histories offer new insights into the lives interests and passions of those connected to the sport in the 1910s and the cities they lived in How did the First World War impact on Dutch football Were new stadia a form of social control Is the spread of the beautiful game really a good thing And why was one of the sport s most prominent figures more concerned with potatoes These stories of early Dutch football suggest how vital sport and history can be in shaping our lives perceptions and actions and why we need to challenge the influence they have today

World Cities and Urban Form Mike Jenks, Daniel Kozak, Pattaranan Takkanon, 2013-12-02 This book presents new research and theory at the regional scale showing the forms metropolitan regions might take to achieve sustainability At the city scale the book presents case studies based on the latest research and practice from Europe Asia and North America showing how both planning and flagship design can propel cities into world class status and also improve sustainability The contributors explore the tension between polycentric and potentially sustainable development and urban fragmentation in a physical context but also in a wider cultural social and economic context
