Thinking with Adorno Gerhard Richter, 2019-07-02 What Theodor W Adorno says cannot be separated from how he says it By the same token what he thinks cannot be isolated from how he thinks it The central aim of Richter's book is to examine how these basic yet far reaching assumptions teach us to think with Adorno both alongside him and in relation to his diverse contexts and constellations These contexts and constellations range from aesthetic theory to political critique from the problem of judgment to the difficulty of inheriting a tradition from the primacy of the object to the question of how to lead a right life within a wrong one Richter vividly shows how Adorno's highly suggestive yet often overlooked concept of the uncoercive gaze designates a specific kind of comportment in relation to an object of critical analysis It moves close to the object and tarries with it while struggling to decipher the singularities and non identities that are lodged within it whether the object is an idea a thought a concept a text a work of art an experience or a problem of political or sociological theory Thinking with Adorno's uncoercive gaze not only means following the fascinating paths of his own work it also means extending hospitality to the ghostly voices of others As this book shows Adorno is best understood as a thinker in dialogue whether with long deceased predecessors in the German tradition such as Kant and Hegel with writers such as Kafka with contemporaries such as Benjamin and Arendt or with philosophical voices that succeeded him such as those of Derrida and Agamben

Walter Benjamin and the Antinomies of Tradition John McCole, 2018-08-06 Few modern thinkers have been as convinced of the necessity of recovering the past in order to redeem the present as Walter Benjamin 1892 1940 Benjamin at once mourned and celebrated what he took to be an inevitable liquidation of traditional culture and his determination to think both of these attitudes through to their conclusions lends his work its peculiar honesty along with its paradoxical antinomial coherence In a landmark interpretation of the whole of Benjamin's career John McCole demonstrates a way of understanding Benjamin that both contextualizes and addresses the complexities and ambiguities of his texts Working with Pierre Bourdieu's concept of the intellectual field McCole traces Benjamin's deep ambivalence about cultural tradition through the longterm project an immanent critique of German idealist and romantic aesthetics which unites his writings McCole builds a sustained reading of Benjamin's intellectual development which sheds new light on the formative role of early influences particularly his participation in the pre World War I German youth movement and the orthodox discourse of German intellectual culture and shows how Benjamin later extended the strategies he learned within these contexts during key encounters with Weimar modernism surrealism and the fiction of Proust The fullest account of Benjamin available in English this lucid and penetrating book will be welcomed by intellectual historians literary theorists and critics historians of German literature and Continental philosophers Wim Wenders and Peter Handke Martin Brady, Joanne Leal, 2011 Preliminary Material Acknowledgements Authors Note Introduction Politics Poetics Film The Beginnings of a Collaboration Parallel Texts Language into Image in The Goalkeeper's Fear of the Penalty Accompanied by Text From Short Letter Long Farewell to Alice in the Cities Mute Stories and Blind Alleys Text Image and Allusion in Wrong Move Leafing through Wings of Desire Conclusion Filmographies Bibliography Index Harald Szeemann Harold Szeemann, 2018-04-10 Born in Bern Switzerland in 1933 Harald Szeemann was a crucial force in identifying exhibiting and writing about the important new movements in postwar contemporary art This collection of seventy four texts from the curator's vast body of written work which includes essays lectures studio notes reviews interviews correspondence and transcripts introduces the depth of his method insight and inclusive artistic interests The pieces have been translated from German and French and collected in an informed authoritative edition making this the first time Szeemann's work is accessible in English The first two sections of this volume republish Szeemann's anthologies Museum der Obsessionen 1981 and Individuelle Mythologien 1985 The final part assembles important writings from 1986 until his death in 2005 to represent the later years of his career and round out a record of his contribution to and dialogue with later twentieth century art and artists The book's publication coincides with the opening of the Getty Research Institute's exhibition Harald Szeemann Museum of Obsessions and complements its catalogue as well as a contemporaneous satellite show at the Institute of Contemporary Art Los Angeles that focuses on Szeemann's Grandfather exhibition 1974

Psychoanalysis, Monotheism and Morality Wolfgang Müller-Funk, Inge Scholz-Strasser, Herman Westerink, Daniela Finzi, 2013 In this volume renowned experts in psychoanalysis reflect on the relationship between psychoanalysis and religion in particular presenting various controversial interpretations of the question if and to what extent monotheism semantically and structurally fits psychoanalytic insights Some essays augment traditional religious critiques of Freudianism with later religio philosophical theories on for example femininity Others explore the relation between psychopathology and morality from the Freudian premise that psychopathology shows in an excessive way aspects or mechanisms of the human psyche that constitute our subjectivity moral capacities and behavior Contributors Andreas De Block KU Leuven University of Leuven Fethi Benslama University of Paris Diderot Sergio Benvenuto ISTC Rome Gohar Homayounpour Shahid Beheshti University Tehran Felix de Mendelssohn Sigmund Freud University Vienna Julia Kristeva University of Paris Diderot Lode Lauwaert KU Leuven University of Leuven Siamak Movahedi University of Massachusetts Wolfgang Muller Funk University of Vienna Gilles Ribault University of Paris Diderot C line Surprenant University of Sussex Inge Scholz Strasser Sigmund Freud Foundation Herman Westerink University of Vienna Joel Whitebook Columbia University Moshe Zuckermann Tel Aviv University Moving Images, Mobile Viewers Renate Brosch, 2011 Vision and movement seem to have shifted center stage in modes of experience in the last century as a result of their joint effect slow contemplative gazes at static images seem to be increasingly displaced by distracted vernacular ways of seeing Looking out of the window of a speeding car receiving photographs of Earth from outer space watching the flickering images of the TV screen scrolling through a text zooming in on a location in Google Earth or sending images via mobile phones or webcams all these are unique visual experiences that were impossible before various inventions in the 20th century originated completely new kinds of movement The double meaning of moving images is meant to signal the specificity of motion to these images and at the same time to express the emotional power of those visual images which are able to transcend the constant stream of images in contemporary perception Series Kultur und Technik Schriftenreihe des Internationalen Zentrums für Kultur und Technikforschung der Universität Stuttgart Vol 20 Adorno and the Political Espen Hammer, 2013-12-16 Interest in Theodor W Adorno continues to grow in the English speaking world as the significance of his contribution to philosophy social and cultural theory as well as aesthetics is increasingly recognized Espen Hammer's lucid book is the first to properly analyze the political implications of his work paying careful attention to Adorno's work on key thinkers such as Kant Hegel and Benjamin Examining Adorno's political experiences and assessing his engagement with Marxist as well as liberal theory Hammer looks at the development of Adorno's thought as he confronts Fascism and modern mass culture He then analyzes the political dimension of his philosophical and aesthetic theorizing By addressing Jürgen Habermas's influential criticisms he defends Adorno as a theorist of autonomy responsibility and democratic plurality He also discusses Adorno's relevance to feminist and ecological thinking As opposed to those who see Adorno as someone who relinquished the political Hammer's account shows his reflections to be on the most fundamental level politically motivated and deeply engaged This invigorating exploration of a major political thinker is a useful introduction to his thought as a whole and will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of philosophy sociology politics and aesthetics Three Sons Daniel L. Medin, 2010-01-11 Franz Kafka was a self-conscious writer whose texts were highly if mysteriously autobiographical Three giants of contemporary fiction J M Coetzee Philip Roth and W G Sebald have all acknowledged their debt to the work of Kafka both in interviews and in their own academic essays and articles for a general readership about him In this striking feat of literary scholarship Daniel Medin finds that the use of Kafka by Coetzee Roth and Sebald is similarly self-reflexive and autobiographical That writers from such divergent national and ethnic traditions can have such unique critical readings of Kafka and that Kafka could exert such a powerful influence over their oeuvres Medin contends attests to the central place of Kafka in the contemporary literary imagination

Theodor W. Adorno Detlev Claussen, 2009-06-30 He was famously hostile to biography as a literary form And yet this life of Adorno by one of his last students is far more than literary in its accomplishments giving us our first clear look at how the man and his moment met to create critical theory An intimate picture of the quintessential twentieth century transatlantic intellectual the book is also a window on the cultural ferment of Adorno's day and its ongoing importance in our own The biography begins at the shining moment of the German bourgeoisie in a world dominated by liberals willing to extend citizenship to refugees fleeing pogroms in Eastern Europe Detlev Claussen follows Theodor Wiesengrund Adorno 1903 1969 from his privileged life as a beloved prodigy to his intellectual coming of age in Weimar Germany and Vienna from his exile during the Nazi years first to England then to the United States to his emergence as the Adorno we know now in the perhaps not so unlikely setting of Los Angeles There in 1943 with his collaborator Max Horkheimer Adorno developed critical theory whose key insight that to be entertained is to give one's consent helped define the intellectual landscape of the twentieth century In capturing the man in his complex relationships with some of the century's finest minds including among others Arnold Schoenberg Walter Benjamin Thomas Mann Siegfried Kracauer Georg Lukács Hannah Arendt and Bertolt Brecht Claussen reveals how much we have yet to learn from Theodor Adorno and how much his life can tell us about ourselves and our time Abstract Resistance Yasmil Raymond, Marcus Steinweg, Thomas Hirschhorn, Simon Baier, 2010
