Oil And Honey The Education Of An Unlikely Activist:

Oil and Honey Bill McKibben, 2015-01-29 Bestselling author and environmental activist Bill McKibben recounts the personal and global story of the fight to build and preserve a sustainable planet Bill McKibben is not a person you d expect to find hand cuffed in the city jail in Washington D C But that s where he spent three days in the summer of 2011 after leading the largest civil disobedience in thirty years to protest the Keystone XL pipeline A few months later the protesters would see their efforts rewarded when President Obama agreed to put the project on hold And yet McKibben realized that this small and temporary victory was at best a stepping stone With the Arctic melting the Midwest in drought and Hurricane Sandy scouring the Atlantic the need for much deeper solutions was obvious Some of those would come at the local level and McKibben recounts a year he spends in the company of a beekeeper raising his hives as part of the growing trend toward local food Other solutions would come from a much larger fight against the fossil fuel industry as a whole Oil and Honey is McKibben s account of these two necessary and mutually reinforcing sides of the global climate fight from the absolute centre of the maelstrom and from the growing hive of small scale local answers to the climate crisis With characteristic empathy and passion he reveals the imperative to work on both levels telling the story of raising one year s honey crop and building a social movement that s still cresting

Confronting Totalitarian Minds: Jan Patočka on Politics and Dissidence Aspen E. Brinton, 2021-05-01 The Czech philosopher Jan Patočka not only witnessed some of the most turbulent politics of twentieth century Central Europe but shaped his philosophy in response to that tumult One of the last students of Edmund Husserl and Martin Heidegger he inspired V clav Havel and other dissidents who confronted the Communist regime before 1989 as well as being actively involved in authoring and enacting Charter 77 He died in 1977 from medical complications resulting from interrogations of the secret police Confronting Totalitarian Minds examines his legacy along with several contemporary applications of his ideas about dissidence solidarity and the human being s existential confrontation with unjust politics Expanding the current possibilities of comparative political theory the author puts Patočka s ideas about dissidence citizen mobilization and civic responsibility into conversation with notable world historical figures like Mahatma Gandhi Vaclav Havel Dietrich Bonhoeffer and other contemporary activists In adding a fresh voice to contemporary conversations on transcending injustice Confronting Totalitarian Minds seeks to educate a wider audience about this philosopher s continued relevance to political dissidents across the world

Cryopolitics Joanna Radin, Emma Kowal, 2017-03-24 The social political and cultural consequences of attempts to cheat death by freezing life As the planet warms and the polar ice caps melt naturally occurring cold is a resource of growing scarcity At the same time energy intensive cooling technologies are widely used as a means of preservation Technologies of cryopreservation support global food chains seed and blood banks reproductive medicine and even the preservation of cores of glacial ice used to study climate change In many cases these practices of freezing life are an attempt to cheat death Cryopreservation has contributed to the transformation of markets regimes of governance and ethics and the very relationship between life and death In Cryopolitics experts from anthropology history of science environmental humanities and indigenous studies make clear the political and cultural consequences of extending life and deferring death by technoscientific means The contributors examine how and why low temperatures have been harnessed to defer individual death through freezing whole human bodies to defer nonhuman species death by freezing tissue from endangered animals to defer racial death by preserving biospecimens from indigenous people and to defer large scale human death through pandemic preparedness The cryopolitical lens emphasizing the roles of temperature and time provokes new and important questions about living and dying in the twenty first century Contributors Warwick Anderson Michael Bravo Jonny Bunning Matthew Chrulew Soraya de Chadarevian Alexander Friedrich Klaus Hoeyer Fr d ric Keck Eben Kirksey Emma Kowal Joanna Radin Deborah Bird Rose Kim TallBear Charis Thompson David Turnbull Thom van Dooren Rebecca J H Woods Governing Complex Systems Oran R. Young, 2017-02-24 An exploration of the need for innovative mechanisms of governance in an era when human actions are major drivers of environmental change The onset of the Anthropocene an era in which human actions have become major drivers of change on a planetary scale has increased the complexity of socioecological systems Complex systems pose novel challenges for governance because of their high levels of connectivity nonlinear dynamics directional patterns of change and emergent properties Meeting these challenges will require the development of new intellectual capital In this book Oran Young argues that to achieve sustainable outcomes in a world of complex systems we will need governance systems that are simultaneously durable enough to be effective in guiding behavior and agile enough to adapt to rapidly changing circumstances While some insights from past research on governance remain valid in this setting Young argues that we need new social capital to supplement mainstream regulatory approaches that feature rule making with an emphasis on compliance and enforcement He explores the uses of goal setting as a governance strategy the idea of principled governance and the role of what is often called good governance in meeting the challenges of the Anthropocene Drawing on his long experience operating on the science policy frontier Young calls for more effective collaboration between analysts and practitioners in creating and implementing governance systems capable of producing sustainable outcomes in a world of complex systems Key

Thinkers on the Environment Joy A. Palmer Cooper, David E. Cooper, 2017-09-14 Key Thinkers on the Environment is a unique guide to environmental thinking through the ages Joy A Palmer Cooper and David E Cooper themselves distinguished authors on environmental matters have assembled a team of expert contributors to summarize and analyse the thinking of diverse and stimulating figures from around the world and from ancient times to the present day Among those included are philosophers such as Rousseau Kant Spinoza and Heidegger activists such as Chico Mendes and Wangari Maathai literary giants such as Virgil Goethe and Wordsworth major religious and spiritual figures such as Buddha and St Francis of Assisi eminent scientists such as Darwin Lovelock and E O Wilson Lucid scholarly and informative the essays contained within this volume offer a fascinating overview of humankind's view and understanding of the natural world Biological Economies Richard Le Heron, Hugh Campbell, Nick Lewis, Michael Carolan, 2016-01-22 Recent agri food studies including commodity systems the political economy of agriculture regional development and wider examinations of the rural dimension in economic geography and rural sociology have been confronted by three challenges These can be summarized as more than human approaches to economic life a post structural political economy of food and agriculture and calls for more enactive performative research approaches This volume describes the genealogy of such approaches drawing on the reflective insights of more than five years of international engagement and research It demonstrates the kinds of new work being generated under these approaches and provides a means for exploring how they should be all understood as part of the same broader need to review theory and methods in the study of food agriculture rural development and economic geography This radical collective approach is elaborated as the Biological Economies approach The authors break out from traditional categories of analysis reconceptualising materialities and reframing economic assemblages as biological economies based on the notion of all research being enactive or performative The Hands-On Life Amy E. Weldon, 2018-01-30 Stressed out Swimming in a sea of screens Worried about our beloved endangered earth yet uncertain how to work for change If this sounds familiar you're not alone In this intelligent guide to mindfulness in the digital age writer and teacher Amy Weldon describes how practicing life as an artist can help you wake yourself up and take back control of your attention your money your time and the health of our society and our planet Traveling from farm to protest march to classroom and engaging a range of thinkers from Hannah Arendt to George Orwell John Keats and Henry David Thoreau The Hands On Life is a book for students and for everyone who dreams of building a better world Strategic Design Thinking Natalie W. Nixon, 2015-10-22 Who can design For too long that question has highlighted the supposed division between right brain dominant creative types and left brain dominant analytical types Such a division is not practical for preparing students to become innovative contributors to the complex world of design Strategic Design Thinking guides readers to cultivate hybrid thinking whether their background is design finance or any discipline in between This book is an introduction to an integrative approach using the lens of design thinking as a way to see the world The focus is on process instead of solution and on connecting disparate ideas instead of getting bogged down by silos of specialization Through this book students will be introduced to design management strategic design service design and experience design Grassroots Environmental Governance Leah Horowitz, Michael Watts, 2016-12-08 Grassroots movements can pose serious challenges to both governments and corporations However grassroots actors possess a variety of motivations and their visions of development may evolve in complex ways Meanwhile their relative powerlessness obliges them to forge an array of shifting alliances and to devise a range of adaptive strategies Grassroots Environmental Governance presents a compilation of in depth ethnographic case studies based on original research Each of the chapters focuses specifically on grassroots engagements with the agents of various forms of industrial development The book is geographically diverse including analyses of groups based in both the global North and South and represents a range of disciplinary perspectives This allows the collection to explore themes that cross cut specific localities and disciplinary boundaries and thus to generate important theoretical insights into the complexities of grassroots engagements with industry This volume will be of great interest to scholars of environmental activism environmental governance and environmental studies in general

Nature's Writers Donald S. Clark, 2024-09-03 A photographic celebration of the landscapes that have influenced some of America's most important nature writers from John Muir to Terry Tempest Williams to Barbara Kingsolver Since 2019 Donald S. Clark has documented the places that have been instrumental in influencing the lives and words of both historic and contemporary nature and environmental writers throughout the United States While we have always felt their passionate connection to their own environments no book has ever made this visual connection between writers and their land before the relationship between prose and place Featuring more than 40 of America's most important writers the content is as far reaching as America itself from sea to shining sea forest to prairie and mountain to coastline Accompanying each gallery of stunning photography is a selected excerpt by the writer about their land With the increasingly noticeable effects of climate change the significance of these writers and their personal connections to the environment is even more timely This unique and compelling story of the land and how it has inspired some of our greatest poets and authors will make a wonderful gift for budding environmentalists students of nature writing or anyone interested in conservation

Flying Blind Don Mitchell, 2013 When Middlebury writing professor Don Mitchell was approached by a biologist with the Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department about tracking endangered Indiana bats on his 150-acre farm in Vermont's picturesque Champlain Valley Mitchell's relationship with bats and with government could be characterized as distrustful at best But the flying rats as Mitchell initially thinks of them launched him on a series of improvements to his land that would provide a more welcoming habitat for the bats and a modest tax break for himself and his family Whether persuading his neighbors to join him on a silent meditation pulling invasive garlic mustard out of the ground by hand navigating the tacit ground rules of buying an ATV off Craigslist or leaving just enough honeysuckle to give government inspectors something to find Mitchell's tale is as profound as it is funny a journey that changes Mitchell's relationship with Chiroptera the land and ultimately his understanding of his own past Ruminating on the nature of authority the purview of the state and the value of inhabiting one's niche Mitchell reveals much about our inner and outer landscape in this perfectly paced and skilled story of place The Parents' Guide to Climate Revolution Mary DeMocker, 2018-03-05 Relax writes author Mary DeMocker this isn't another light bulb list It's not another overwhelming pile of parental to-dos designed to shrink your family's carbon footprint through eco-superheroism Instead DeMocker lays out a lively empowering and doable blueprint for engaging families in the urgent endeavor of climate revolution In this book's brief action-packed chapters you'll learn hundreds of wide-ranging ideas for being part of the revolution from embracing simplicity parenting to freeing yourself from dead-end science debates to teaching kids about the power of creative protest to changing your lifestyle in ways that deepen family bonds improve moods and reduce your impact on the Earth Engaging and creative this vital resource is for everyone who wants to act effectively and empower children to do the same The Evolution of the Property Relation A. Davis, 2015-02-04 Evolution of the Property Relation defines an approach to economics which is centered around the concept of property and explores the historical evolution of the relationship of the individual private property and the state and the distinctive changes wrought by the emergence of the market Ocean Country Liz Cunningham, 2015-09-08 Ocean Country is an adventure story a call to action and a poetic meditation on the state of the seas But most importantly it is the story of finding true hope in the midst of one of the greatest crises to face humankind the rapidly degrading state of our environment After a near-drowning accident in which she was temporarily paralyzed Liz Cunningham crisscrosses the globe in an effort to understand the threats to our dazzling but endangered oceans This intimate account charts her thrilling journey through unexpected encounters with conservationists fishermen sea nomads and scientists in the Mediterranean Sulawesi the Turks and Caicos Islands and Papua New Guinea Legislating Morality in America Donald P. Haider-Markel, 2020-01-07 This title undertakes an impartial authoritative and in-depth examination of the moral arguments and ideas behind the laws and policies that govern personal corporate and government behavior in the United States This A-Z encyclopedia surveys the moral arguments that provide the foundation for many of the most important and/or divisive laws policies and beliefs that govern modern American society The work discusses such controversial and important issues as abortion civil rights drugs and alcohol euthanasia guns hate crimes immigration immunization natural resource use and protection prostitution same-sex marriage and workplace laws In the process of surveying historical and current beliefs about appropriate legislative responses to these issues this work will help readers to understand how conservative and liberal conceptions of justice fairness and morality are at the center of so many hot-button political and social issues in 21st-century America The essays featured in the volume cover wide-ranging and controversial topics related to constitutional and religious freedoms crime and punishment sexuality and reproduction environmental protection and public health national security and civil liberties social welfare programs and education
