Municipal Journal, Public Works Engineer and Contractors' Guide, 1965 Entangled with Colour Mascha

Wieland, 2025-02-03 The topic of colour in literature is usually addressed in terms of semantics and figurative uses of colour. Entangled with Colour: New Materialist Explorations in English Colour Writing presents another take on colour in literary texts. It introduces the practice of colour writing which stresses the relationality between colour, matter, words and affects. With precursors in fin de siècle and modernist literature, a genre of colour writing has evolved since the end of the 20th century with Derek Jarman's Chroma, Maggie Nelson's Bluets and Han Kang's The White Book. This study demonstrates how these texts create a material discursive dimension of colour which in turn requires a rethinking of how to read colour. To examine the complex materialisations of colour matter in these texts, the study engages with a new materialist understanding of matter and agency. It further introduces a new reading strategy: an attentive reading that aims to unfold the various shades of colour's material discursive doings in colour writings. Such an attentive reading follows a postcritical tradition and is developed in close dialogue with texts by Nan Shepherd. By attentively describing the entanglements between colour, matter, text and reader, this study explores how colour matter makes itself felt in the reading process and how colour writings entangle the reader with their unique colourscapes. Pace, 1990 NYPD Green Luke Waters, 2015-04-16 Luke Waters had more than 20 years on the job. What he saw, what he heard and what he did will make you sit up, stay up and keep reading and that's only what he can tell you. Ed Conlon, Bestselling Author of Blue Blood. Finglas native Luke Waters dreamed of following his grandfather and brother into An Garda Síochána until, as for so many other Irish men and women in the 1980s, America beckoned. But Luke never lost sight of his dream and in spite of the hurdles he had to overcome, in August 1993 he joined the ranks of New York's finest. As Waters rose through the ranks to become a homicide detective in one of the toughest places in the world, The Bronx, he would see the best and the worst, the heroism of fellow detectives, the ravages of crack cocaine and the terrible fallout of 9/11. NYPD Green is a no holds barred account of the people and the cases, but also an insight into the dark side of a job where corruption and bravery often go hand in hand. The story of an Irishman made good of the American dream. NYPD Green also pays tribute to one of the hardest jobs there is. Point Blank Liz Tomlin, 2007 Point Blank, one of Britain's most provocative new theater companies, has received a deluge of critical acclaim for its darkly comic political satire and bleak metaphorical landscapes. Point Blank: Nothing to Declare, Operation Wonderland, Roses and Morphine here reproduces three prominent examples of the company's early work and contextualizes these plays in the wider tradition and recent history of British political theater. In addition to the full performance scripts, Point Blank offers comprehensive notes to enable a range of potential restagings of the plays as well as critical essays suggesting bold interpretations of the interplay between contemporary theatrical performance and the prevailing political climate. Editor Liz Tomlin offers invaluable insight into the company's dramaturgical processes that transform theoretical ideas into mythical, absurd scenarios and visually striking theatrical metaphor. Subversive and incendiary, Point Blank is forging a radical new vision of twenty-first century theater. Praise for the Point Blank theatre company: One of the most exciting theatres around.

Political witty challenging and bold Guardian Quality theatre totally compelling Independent on Sunday Explosive new political satire living up to their tag as Britain s hottest new theatre company This is incendiary stuff Edinburgh Evening News
